COLUMBIA NEWS.

JUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Some Gossip Anent the Elections in Colum Dis and Marietta - Floating News

About the River Town. Democrats are happy because they have control of the school board and council, and Republicans rejoice over the capture of the offices of chief burgess and justice of the peace of the Second ward. Some Democrats already agitate the removal of John Klingbell from the janitorship of the Cherry street school building and the ap-pointment of a Democrat in his place. It pointment of a Democrat in his place. It is next to a certainty that council will make a clean sweep of all Republicans holding offices or positions under its control. The only person likely to be retained will be Mr. Joseph Zeamer, manager of the opera house. He has held the position so long, which, by the way, requires a man used to the rapid handling of money in the box office, which requisite money in the box office, which requisite Mr. Zeamer's position as bank clerk gives him, that no change is likely to be made. The Democrats of Marietta are as much surprised as they are pleased at the result of the election. That they have made a clean sweep is a matter for which they rejoice exceedingly. The defeated Repub-lican candidate for the constableship, Allen Ruby, looks to be the worst disap pointed man in the town, and the young men of both parties were mainly instru-mental in electing James Kelly, Democrat, justice of the peace, and it is generally acknowledged that the choice fell upon a very worthy young man. A Fire at Geo. Wall's Hotel, The alarm of fire at half past eleven o'clock this morning was caused by the burning of a clothes press, a quantity of clothing and other articles in a second story back room in George Wall's Southern Exchange hotel, corner of South Queen and Middle streets. The fire was discovered by Mrs. Campbell, who gave the alarm, and the flames were extinguished by the family and some neighbors before the arrival of the fire department, but not until almost everything in the room had been destroyed. The large wooden clothes press, in which the fire originated, contained all the clothing of Miss Theresa Wall and some belonging to other mem-bers of the family, all of which was de-stroyed. The carpet, the beds and bedding, tables, chairs, bureaus and other article are more or less damaged; the windows are all broken ; the window frames, doors, walls and ceilings are also badly blistered, The whole loss is probably $200 or $300. and is covered by insurance. The hired man, Charlie Buns, who worked nobly in fighting the fire, was almost suffocated with smoke.

It is supposed the fire was caused by a four year old child who had been in the room, and who probably ignited a match while at play.

About 12:15 to day an alarm was struck from box No. 25, at the corner of Mulberry and Chestnut streets. It was caused by an unusual amount of smoke coming from the chimney of the Evangelical church, in which fire was being made. The firemen responded promptly, but there was no occasion for them.

OBITUARY.

Death of Lewis Spreeher Lowis Sprecher, an old and highly es-teemed resident of Lancaster, aged 76 years, died last night at 11 o'clock, at the residence of his son-in-law, Ence Schaeffer, on the New Holland turnpike, opposite the Park house. Mr. Sprecher had been in declining health for several years past, and his death was due to a general breaking up of the physical system rather than to any special disease. He was born near New Holland, and on reaching manhood followed farming for many years. He afterwards bought the tavern stand near Bareville and kept it for several years. About 1846 he bought the Leopard hotel, on East King street, this city, and kept it for about twenty years, his son Jonathan Sprecher becoming his successor. He also bought the Park house in the Sixth ward, and Jonathan was proprietor of it for some years, his death ocourring there.

Mr. Sprecher was a good business man houest and upright in all his dealings and in the course of a long life accumulated considerable property. He built the brick row on Duke street opposite the court house, added a story to the Leopard hotel, built two fine dwelling houses on the New Holland pike pear the park, and made several other improvements in the city. He was a gentle, kind hearted man, ever ready to lend a hand to the poor and deserving. He never aspired to office and was never much of a partizan. He was a member of Trinity Lutheran church. He leaves a son, Samuel Sprecher, civil engineer, and a daughter, Mrs. Schaeffer. His funeral will take place at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Interment at Woodward Hill cemetery.

Jonah Boughton, of Philadelphia, the temperance speaker, agent and lecturer of the grand division of the Sons of Temperance, of Pa., addressed an audience last evening that completely filled Armory hall, of Wrightsville. Gone to mt. Nebu. The Baneys, father and son, charged with the murder of Barney Short, were taken from the county jail this morning to Mt. Four repreentatives of the city papers went down to attend it, and also Counsellors Thomas Whitson and James M. Walker, the attorneys for the accused.

—There is a rumor on the street to day that before leaving the city this morning the younger Baney confessed to Constable shenk, who had him in custody, that he killed Short. The story, however, lacks confirmation.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The toilowing statement of William J. Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 18761 was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expend-ed over a hundred dollars in doctors and medteines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR, WM, HALL'S my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a britle to satisfy them, when to my surprise at d gratification, I commenced to feel better My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to lay I feel in better spirits than I have

IN EUROPE. BISMARCK AND THE LASKER RESOLU-

He is Supported by Berlin Journals, Which Attack the American Misist r-A Battle Near Trinsetar, Egypt.

Berlin, Feb. 21.—Bismarck's organ, the North German Gazette, repells the attacks of the opposition newspapers on Bismarck's action relative to the Lasker resolution, passed in the American House of Representatives. It says: "The request addressed to Bismarck by Minister Sargent was of such a remarkable character that it could only be explained by his ignorance of diplomatic usage. It amounted to nothing less than asking the emperor to endorse the vote of a few least to the such as the s was of such a remarkable character that it could only be explained by his ignorance of diplomatic usage. It the emperor to endorse the vote of a foreign body and to hand it vised to the Reichstag " The National Gazette the Progressists and Secessionists on economic questions.

The Bertinei Tageblatt says: "The proper form of intercourse between nations has not yet been discovered. Besides the so called official interview, there is one infinitely more official, named the Press, which no statesman controls. Thus the resolution of the American Congress, which Prince Bismarck is unwilling to impart to the Reichstag is long ago conveyed to the whole nation through the press. Indeed, the publication of the Prince Bismarck himself arranged to give the German people what he refused to transmit to the Reichstag—namely, the demonstration of respect for Herr Lasker by a people upon the other side of the ocean."

CYCLONES AND FLOODS.

The Misery Consequent on Them. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21 - Detailed reports to-day from Tuesday's cyclone and the flooded districts show widespread destruction and destitution. The misery along the Ohio river is great and severities of flood are felt now more than ever, and even people who have money to buy can find nothing to purchase. All along the Ohio river in West Virginia and Ohio the story of desolation is repeated. In one case the relief boats found fifty houses swept away and entangled in one inextricable wreck.

Tuesday's storm was felt most in the vicinity of Evansville, Indiana, where within a radius of 50 miles fully one half We are now offering to our customers Al.L. damage done to the extent of $120,000. In the South the cyclone was perfect furious. Davidsboro, Ga., is almost de stroyed, and one man was killed and many

In Putnam county, Ga., a falling house killed a lady, Mrs. Pasoball, and seven negroes, and nearly all the live stock was killed by the general wreck. Within a space of three miles wide on the borders of the Cherokee and Pickins counties, Ga., twenty-two people were killed and forty wounded.

In Rockington, N. C., buildings were blown into fragments. Many persons were killed and their bodies horribly torn and mutilated. Already twenty three bodies have been found in Richmond county, N. C., and it is feared there has been great loss of life in country places not yet heard from.

The phenomena accompanying the cyclone were marked principally by a daz-zing red sky at midnight. A furious snow storm prevails in the Rocky mountains, west of Salt Lake, and trains are blocked near Truckee, In Southern California great floods prevail. In the streets of San Sernardino, California, there are three feet of water. The town of Fall Brook is entirely washed away, and it is supposed many people have been drowned.

THE DANVILLE RIOIS.

The Testimony of a Witness To-day, WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 21 .- J. D. Blackwell, (white) a lawyer of Danville, Va., was examined to-day in the Danville riot investigation. He had witnessed the riot from a window and described minutely the attack made by the whites upon the negroes. He was attracted to the window, he said, by cries of "murder !" and saw negroes being beaten with clubs and shot down with revolvers. After some indiscriminate shooting, the whites formed in line and fired a volley at the negroes. The volley was discharged like that of a well drilled body men. The whites were much excited and brandishing their revolvers they fired many shots at the fleeing negroes, who retreated down the street.

An Indian Figut.

CRICAGO, Feb. 21 -A dispatch from Billings, Montano, says : Five Piegan In dians left their reservation and stole 53 ponies from the Crow reservation. They were pursued by four Crow Indians and seven white men, and a fight ensued in which two of the white men were killed and two wounded, and four of the Piegans killed. The ponies were recaptured.

The Keller-Boynton Matter, WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 .- The Keifer-Boynton committee met to-day and heard one witness, who testified that Keifer told him of the alleged interview between himself, Keifer and Boynton. The commit-tee then, at Keifer's suggestion, adjourned until Saturday.

the Reichstag." The National Gazette doubts if it was necessary to trouble the emperor with such a purely formal matter as the Lasker resolution, and points out that the consent of the crown was not asked to hand to the Reichstag the funds subscribed in America for the inundated districts last year.
