

Lancaster Intelligencer.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 12, 1884

Back to the Lash.

The Massachusetts House has passed a bill providing that wife beaters shall be themselves beaten in the houses of correction of their respective counties.

The important duty will devolve upon councils at its next meeting of making the appropriations for the coming year.

The electric light is getting no better rapidly. What do councils propose to do about it?

The conservative university of Oxford has decided to grant the same examination to women as to men.

The North American, a Stalwart Republican paper, capable of being fair, impatiently waits to hear Senator Logan's bid for the presidency in the new speech.

One of the mighty problems wrestled with on Monday by the Methodist conference of Baltimore was Sabbath observance.

COOK'S TESTIMONY.

THE SPECIAL COUNSEL OF THE GOVERNMENT CONTAINS THIS INTERESTING REVELATION.

In the Star Route investigation, Wm. A. Cook, of counsel for the government in the present prosecution, testified that, shortly after his appointment, he had an interview with President Garfield.

On the conversation at the interview on Wednesday night before the president was assassinated, Mr. Cook said: "I said to the president that he should be careful of his movements."

In answer to the question if any efforts had been made to learn if Guiteau had any accomplices, the witness said: "I went to the office of the district attorney and suggested strongly that line of investigation."

JACOB F. KLEIN, of Highspire, Dauphin county, announces himself a candidate for county commissioner on the broad platform of "one candidate, one term and rotation in office."

THE TROJANS are not to have it all their own way. Hon. Daniel H. Chamberlain, formerly governor of South Carolina, and an eminent practical man, has been making a lecture at Yale, in which he boldly grapples with Charles Francis Adams on the question of Greek as a college study.

ONE OF THE mighty problems wrestled with on Monday by the Methodist conference of Baltimore was Sabbath observance.

WE fear that our esteemed contemporary, the New Era, has been imposed upon in the "special arrangement" with the weekly "by" which it is printing in authoritatively a new version by C. H. Miller of his well worn story of the "Danites."

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

OPENING OF THE M. E. CONFERENCE.

Pierce dispute of the Theologians—Brief addresses were made by Bishop H. W. Warren, D. D.; the Rev. William Swindells, the Rev. O. E. Adamson and Professor James Strong, L. L. D., of the Drew theological seminary.

THE COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION SYSTEM FOR THE INTELLIGENCER.—The system of examining applicants for government offices in various branches of knowledge is not calculated to select the fittest men for them.

THEOLOGICALS IN BAD TEMPER.—Two Episcopalian Teachers Fall Out About a Question.—Kenyon college and the Theological seminary of Ohio, located at Kenyon, are in a state of tumult.

REMAINS OF INTERESTING AND CATHOLIC.—Rev. Father Murphy, of Dover, New Hampshire, has, by order of his bishop, directed that the remains of the Emment association to be buried under penalty of excommunication.

ENDING THEIR LIVES.—A Congressman's Brother Killed Himself.—The little village of Greenville, on the line of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, six miles from Scranton, has been startled by the suicide of Andrew J. Weaver, aged 43 years.

PRECIOUS CHILDREN.—The Effect of Too Much Religious Trash.—Fannie Cook, aged 17 years, and Lillie Burgerwald, aged 19 years, were arrested yesterday at the Broad street station, Philadelphia, having run away from their homes in Baltimore.

THE "BOYS" ON TOP.—The "boys" succeeded in organizing the Republican county committee in New York last evening, and John J. O'Brien, in spite of the canvassing which has been done for the last two weeks and the careful plans which had been laid to defeat him, was elected to permanent president of the committee.

THE LONG INSURANCE CASE ENDED.

THE JURY BRING IN A VERDICT ON $2,150.95 IN FAVOR OF THE PLAINTIFFS—BASED ON THE AWARD OF THE ADJUSTERS.

The celebrated suit of Gottschalk & Lederman against the North British and Mercantile insurance company, that has been on trial in the court common pleas since Feb. 29, came to an end this morning.

Mr. Houseman, well known gentleman 70 years of age, was run over by a train at Stockport, Pa., and killed. A profane fire near Kinsley, Missouri, destroyed a number of ranches and dwellings, and burned a woman to death.

Mr. Upchurch endeavored to cross Red Island creek, Miss., which was deep and swift. He had his wife and four children with him, and as soon as he had reached the edge of the water the current shifted his horse's head down the creek.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHTS STILL KEEP UP THEIR SATISFACTORY DUTY TUESDAY NIGHT.—Electric Lamps—Christian and Grant, Lime and Orange, from 7 o'clock; East King and Ann, Orange and Ann, out for two hours; Orange and Square, Orange and Duke, Orange and Lime, out all night; South Queen and Square, out for three hours; South Queen and Hager, South Queen and Andrew, South Queen and Hazel, out for three hours.

THE DEBT OF LEBANON COUNTY IS $63,950; COUNTY TAX $59,189.21.—Harrisburg is trying hard to get new market for "the boys."

SIX WEEKS ago William Hamer, a resident of Highspire, six miles below Harrisburg, picked up a little Skye terrier, which had wandered on his premises.

AT A special meeting of the Lancaster Bicycle Club, six miles below Harrisburg, Tuesday, to answer for the larceny of a coat alleged to have been stolen from G. W. Hollis, had a hearing before Alderman President Dr. E. P. Day; captain, W. F. Gorrell; secretary and treasurer, Chas. E. Haberbusch.

LANCASTER DAILY INTELLIGENCER, WEDNESDAY MARCH 12, 1884.

LANCASTER, PA., MARCH 11.

STREBORN has been left a fortune. MISSIE HACK is winning glory and sheels singing through Texas.

REVEREND FATHER MURPHY, of Dover, New Hampshire, has, by order of his bishop, directed that the remains of the Emment association to be buried under penalty of excommunication.

THE DEBT OF LEBANON COUNTY IS $63,950; COUNTY TAX $59,189.21.—Harrisburg is trying hard to get new market for "the boys."

SIX WEEKS ago William Hamer, a resident of Highspire, six miles below Harrisburg, picked up a little Skye terrier, which had wandered on his premises.

AT A special meeting of the Lancaster Bicycle Club, six miles below Harrisburg, Tuesday, to answer for the larceny of a coat alleged to have been stolen from G. W. Hollis, had a hearing before Alderman President Dr. E. P. Day; captain, W. F. Gorrell; secretary and treasurer, Chas. E. Haberbusch.

THE DEBT OF LEBANON COUNTY IS $63,950; COUNTY TAX $59,189.21.—Harrisburg is trying hard to get new market for "the boys."

SIX WEEKS ago William Hamer, a resident of Highspire, six miles below Harrisburg, picked up a little Skye terrier, which had wandered on his premises.