COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

An Indian on the Rampage Scares Some Columbia Children—Church Entertainments—Personal Points.

The school children have greatly annoyed the Indians belonging to the Warm Spring Indian show by attempting to invade the privacy of their quarters at the opera house, and last evening one of the "bucks" made a raid on the crowd of curiosity seekers. Two little girls were knocked down and slightly injured. Some of the spectators say they were knocked down by the Indians, and others, that they were hurt by falling as they attempted to run away. It would be a good thing for parents to keep their children from loitering about such public places as the opera house, and the managers of the Indian show should also do their duty by exercising some supervision over their unruly charges.

Personal.

Mrs. J. A. Slade is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Miss Mary Young has gone to Philadelphia to visit friends.

Mrs. Jane Pierce and daughter, Miss Fannie, left yesterday for Philadelphia and New York.

Mr. H. B. Fasig left for Philadelphia this morning to attend the commencement exercises of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and the alumni banquet. He is a graduate of the above college.

Church Meetings and Entertainments.

A large crowd was present at the supper held last night in the armory by Salem German Lutheran church.

Only a small number of the members attended last evening's meeting of the lyceum of the Second street Lutheran church.

The Bethel church of God sociable, held last evening at the residence of Mrs. Strawbridge, on Locust street, was fairly attended.

The Presbyterians will hold their entertainment in the lecture room of the church to morrow evening. Refreshments will be served free to all who may desire to attend the entertainment.

Items Around Town.

Orion lodge of Odd Fellows will meet to-night.

Another large audience attended the Indian show in the opera house last evening.

The employes of the Reading & Columbia railroad were paid the wages due them for their February services to day.

On Friday afternoon a meeting of the Agazzi's association of the high and grammar schools will be held. The study of natural history is the object of the society.

Several rafts passed this place yesterday. As soon as the river subsides a little more ratting will open in earnest. The water fell considerably last night.

Last night several pistol shots, and some screaming, was heard in the neighborhood of Third and Cherry streets. What caused them is a mystery, no person being able to explain anything about them.

In yesterday's report regarding the sale of stocks at the Franklin house it should have been stated that a number of shares of Columbia First national bank stock were withdrawn at $144 75 per share.

OBITUARY.

Death of a Young Lancaster Machinist

A telegram received by his family today, states that Charles King, son of S. M. King, of Lemon street, this city, died in Hamilton, Ohio last night. The cause of his death of unknown but he could have been sick but a short time. Deceased was about 27 years of age. He learned the trade of a machinist in the shops of Harberger & McCulley, this city, and was an excellent workman. For several years he was employed by this and other firms in this city. Some years ago he went to Hamilton where he has been doing very well.

Death of a Soldier.

Wm. Whalen, aged about 50 years, and lately employed at Grubb's ore banks, died at the county hospital this morning, of consumption, superinduced by injuries received while at work some time ago. Deceased was a member of Battery F., 1st Rhode Island artillery and served in it during the war. He was also for a time connected with a Maryland regiment. He has no relatives in this part of the country and his remains have been taken in charge by the members of the G. A. R., of this city, who have bought a lot and will bury him in the Lancaster cemetery.

A Double Bereavement and Funeral

The family of Mr. Henry A. Gable, residing at No. 346 South Queen street, are the subjects of a double bereavement; the death of the elder daughter, Miss Mary G. Gable, already announced, being followed on the same day by that of her little niece and namesake, Mamie Delzeit, who died at the residence of her parents in Brooklyn, N. Y., after a painful illness. Her father, Mr. Peter J. Delzeit, arrived in this city last night upon the sad mission of bringing the body of his child to her former home, and sorrowing relatives who will sadly miss her cheerful presence among them.

Owing to the lateness of the receipt of intelligence concerning the funeral of Miss Delzeit the announcement was not made sooner, as intended. The double funeral which occurred at 9 o'clock this morning from Mr. Gable's residence, was numerously attended by the many friends of both families.

English-speaking Nurses Abroad.

Rev. Dr. Robert J. Nevin, of this city, rector of St. Paul's church, Rome, is well and favorably known from his connection with charitable institutions abroad, and an appeal from him is sure to attract attention. He now publishes a circular showing the want of trained English-speaking sick nurses as felt by Americans traveling in Italy. Dr. Nevin founded, a year ago, the "St. Paul's Home for Trained English-speaking Nurses" at Rome, which has already cared for 23 cases of illness in Rome and elsewhere, while 48 applications have been made to the institution for nurses. He now wishes to establish at Rome a permanent nurses' home and hospital, at which travelers who are suffering may, at a moderate cost, receive proper care, and he estimates that $20,000 will be required for this purpose

Amusements.

"Queen's Lace Handkerchief"—This opera has been here before, and its excellence is well remembered. It is the latest and among the best of the composer Strauss' operas, and was a great favorite from the first. The company is said to be strong and well drilled and possess handsome costumes. The Wilkesbarre Record says: "The choruses were all rendered with spirit and harmony. Indeed it has been a long time since we have heard so many good singers marshaled under the management of a traveling company." They appear in Lancaster to-morrow evening.

George Adams.—This favorite fun maker will be here Friday evening. He is the best stage clown now living. In fact he never had a superior, not even in Fox, who attained a greater reputation than any other. Mr. Adams was unfortunate this season in having nearly all of his tricks, scenery, etc., destroyed by the great fire at the Park theatre, Cleveland, where he was performing at the time. He has purchased an entire new outfit with which the pantomime will be presented here. He is supported by his brother James, who appears as pantaloon and a full company of pantomime and specialty people, including the Tissots, Martinettes, Leslie Brothers, Wallace, "The Man Bird" and others.

"The Forge Master."—Without a doubt this play, translated by Mrs. Henderson, from the French novel by George Ohnet, is one that merits extensive patronage. It is replete with interesting and effective scenes, has a well connected and absorbing story and while now and then defective in all the essential attributes of a successful drama, it is as a whole exceedingly good, and altogether wholesome, retaining enough of the French style of composition and plot, to be effective, but not objectionable. Miss Granger sets the part of Claire with her usual elegance and finish, her interpretation being one as intelligent as it is satisfactory. The company, as a general thing, is altogether competent, and a fine performance, artistic and enjoyable, may be expected. Indications point to the attendance of a large audience.

Charles Gardner in "Karl."—On Saturday evening, Charles A. Gardner, Dutch comedian, who has always been a favorite here, will present his new play entitled "Karl," in this city. He will be supported by Miss Patti Rosa and a dramatic company of strength.

No matter what parts it may finally affect, catarrh always starts in the head, and belongs to the head. There is no mystery about the origin of this direful disease. It begins in a neglected cold. PATENT STEAM CARPET CLEANSING

—AND—

RENOVATING WORKS.

J. A. BECHTOLD, Manager, - Lancaster, Pa.

Recognizing a long felt want in our city, we have, at considerable expense, erected a PATENT STEAM CARPET CLEANING MACHINE, one of the best makes in the country, and used with great success in Philadelphia and New York. Carpets Cleansed and Renovated by our process are returned bright as new, free from dust, moth, etc., and returned on promised time, without regard to weather. This is a result that can't help but be appreciated by housekeepers, and which cannot be attained by the old plan of beating by hand.

IMPROVEMENTS AND MACHINERY.

By these machines, the carpets are only beaten on the back or under side, while a series of swiftly revolving bristle brushes, at the same time thoroughly cleanse the face or nap, as the carpet is slowly drawn over them. Under this is a rapidly revolving fan of immense power, through which a strong current of air carries off the dust and impure gases, at the top of the building. This apparatus is so powerful that it is able to draw a current of air through the thickest carpet, thus securing thorough ventilation. By the renovating process the colors are brought out bright and new, without blending, leaving the carpet as clean as ever. During the season, we will add a machine especially adapted for the thorough cleansing of delicate fabrics, such as India and Persian Carpets and Rugs, Portiere Curtains, Drapery, etc., without striking a blow or fastening together, or subjecting them to any strain whatever.

Carpets packed Moth Proof, Stored and properly taken care of. Carpets sent for, cleaned and returned, without regard to weather on appointed time. Orders left at our office, or by mail or telephone, will receive prompt attention.

PRICES OF CLEANING.—Ingrains and Three-Ply, three cents per yard; Brussels and Tapestries, four cents; Velvets, Wiltons and Moquettes, five cents per yard.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARY LAST NIGHT.

M. S. Quay Seemingly "Set Down On," and Chairman Leeds' Blaine Delegates Selected—Principal and Principle at the Presbyterian Hospital.

PHILADELPHIA, March 19.—The primary elections of the Republican party last night, for delegates to the state convention, brought out a fuller vote than usual. A glance over the field leaves the impression that the elements of the party represented by Ex-Secretary of the Commonwealth M. S. Quay, popularly supposed to be in the interest of the national administration, has been defeated and that the element of which Mr. Leeds, chairman of the city committee, is the head, and said to be favorable to Mr. Blaine, has been successful in a majority of the representative districts. The result of the convention's work this morning would seem to be to confirm this idea.

Principal and Principle to Go Together.

PHILADELPHIA, March 19.—The Presbyterian hospital, which some time ago refused a check for $2,500, its share of the fund raised by the Charity ball in this city, has received a check for $3,000 from a resident of Bucks county. The writer explains that $2,500 is in lieu of the money which the hospital did not receive and the remaining $500 is a premium for adhering to the principle. He requests that the entire amount be added to the principal of the permanent fund of the hospital "to the end that principal and principle may go together."

The Lasker Resolutions in the House.

In the House Mr. Curtin (Pa.) as a privileged question, reported resolutions reciting that the Lasker resolutions passed by the House were intended as a tribute of respect to an eminent foreign statesman and that as the House has no concern with the relations between the executive and legislative branches of the German government, it is not requisite to criticise the manner of reception of the resolutions after they were presented to the German government. Mr. Curtin demanded the previous question.

After some debate the resolutions were adopted without division.

The House then adopted the resolutions cordially reciprocating the wishes of the Liberal Union of the German Parliament for the closer union of the two nations, recognizing the graceful appreciation of its sympathy for those who mourn the death of Edward Lasker, and accepting the resolutions adopted by the Liberal Union, and directing them to be spread on the journal.

D. Taylor Deviney's pen of twenty six hogs at Wrightstown, Burlington county, N. J., have been for weeks the pride and wonder of the people of that section. The most of the hogs had not been able to stand for a long time and passed the fleeting hours in slumber, their snores rivaling the tooting of a country brass band. The hogs were slaughtered on Tuesday in the presence of hundreds of spectators and to the music of the Wrightstown band. The lot is the heaviest ever raised in the state. They were two season pigs and of the common Jersey Red breed.

The weights were as follows: 660, 675, 680, 710, 740, 735, 750,
