PRAXITELES AND PHRYNE.

A thousand silent years ago,
The twilight faint and pale
Was drawing o'er the sunset glow
It's soft and shadowy veil.

When from his work the sculptor stayed
His hand, and turned to one
Who stood beside him, half in shade,
Said with a sigh, "'Tis done!"

"This much is saved from chance and change
That waits for me and thee;
Thus much—how little—from the range
Of Death and Destiny.

"Phryne, thy human lips shall pale,
Thy rounded limbs decay,
Nor love, nor prayers can aught avail
To bid thy beauty stay.

"But there thy smiles for centuries
On marble lips shall live—
For Art can grant what love denies
And fix the fugitive.

"Sad thought! nor age, nor death shall fade
The youth of this cold bust;
When this quick brain and hand that made,
When thou and I art dust.

"When all our hopes and fears are dead,
And both our hearts are cold;
And love is like a tune that's played,
And life a tale that's told,

"This senseless stone, so coldly fair,
That love, nor life can warm,
The same enchanting look shall wear,
The same enchanting form.

"In peace no sorrow shall destroy:
Its beauty age shall spare;
The bitterness of vanished joy,
The wearing waste of care.

"And there upon that silent face
Shall unborn ages see
Perennial youth, perennial grace,
And sealed serenity.

"And strangers, when we sleep in peace,
Shall say, not quite unmoved,
So smiled upon Praxiteles
The Phryne whom he loved."

W. W. Story.

CURIOUS HAPPENINGS.

That Occur in the Workaday World.

While walking along the street in Pennfield, Pa., Wednesday with an open knife in his hand, a boy named Young fell and plunged the weapon through his heart, causing instant death.

Captain Adam Miller, a prominent citizen, fell under a Panhandle train while it was running nearly twenty miles an hour, and he only saved his life by his wonderful prudence and presence of mind. He lay quiet while the entire train passed over him. The buttons on his coat were scraped off and some of his clothing torn away. It was a miraculous escape.

Tuesday morning Annie Partons, aged 14, was frightfully and probably fatally burned at her home in Bellaire, Ohio. She had knelt down before the grate and was engaged in tying her brother's shoes when a live coal fell on the skirt of her dress, igniting it. Her dress burned rapidly, and the poor girl, frightened at the flames, at once rushed out of doors and ran a considerable distance from the house, when a man named Richard Crozier caught her, and by wrapping her in his coat extinguished the flames.

At 5 o'clock Wednesday morning James Donovan was discovered by Officer Kendall in the basement of a house in Boylston place, Boston, which he had entered with burglarious intent. The officer secured Donovan. On the way to the station house the prisoner tripped Kendall, and getting possession of the officer's club beat him brutally on the head. Kendall succeeded in drawing his revolver and shooting Donovan, the ball entering his mouth and taking effect in his head. Donovan died fifteen minutes later.

On Monday morning last Dr. C. E. Woodward, of New Egypt, N. J., was called to the farmhouse of Thomas Parker near Davis' Corner, to professionally assist a girl named Jane Richardson, who was living there at service. A monstrosity was delivered, of which the head was the only portion remaining intact. After the patient had revived she horrified those present by the confession that her father, Harrison Richardson, was the father of the child. Her father's persecution of her began when she was but 7 years of age, and the intimacy has continued up to within a short time, except at intervals, when she was employed at service.

Concentrate Vitality.

All excitants, to radically cure, must be innocent. The art consists in continuing their use until matters in the system contrary to health are removed. Health finds happiness in the mere sense of existence.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS stimulate the blood so as to enable nature to throw off all morbid humors, and cure disease, no matter by what name they are called.

The secret of recruiting the vital principle is discovered in BRANDRETH'S PILLS. Because they remove what holds it in check. It is believed they possess the element's own vitality. Heat, healthy animal warmth, is certainly increased by the use of this wonderful medicine. Provided the great organs are not irreparably injured, there is no disease BRANDRETH'S PILLS will not cure. The true art of healing is to assist nature to throw off disease—to concentrate, as it were, the whole vitality of the system to eject that which is fastened on a part.

GET BRADRETH'S PILLS. Be not off with none other. And follow the printed directions and health will surely bless you.

In inflammation of the lungs (pneumonia) and inflammation of the air passages (bronchitis) Dave's Hoe and Cattle Powder is a specific. Keep your stable moderately warm and well ventilated. Price twenty five cents per package of one pound.

Look out for Your Head.

No matter what parts it may finally affect, catarrh always starts in the head, and belongs to the head. There is no mystery about the origin of this direful disease. It begins in a neglected cold. One of the kind that is "sure to be better in a few days." Thousands of victims know how it is by sad experience. Ely's Cream Balm cures colds in the head and catarrh in all its stages. Not a snuff nor a liquid. Applied with the finger to the nostrils. m4-2wdeod&w

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking my case incurable; but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold by H. B. Cochran, 137 North Queen street.

PATENT STEAM CARPET CLEANSING

—AND—

RENOVATING WORKS.

J. A. BECHTOLD, Manager, - Lancaster, Pa.

Recognizing a long felt want in our city, we have, at considerable expense, erected a PATENT STEAM CARPET CLEANING MACHINE, one of the best makes in the country, and used with great success in Philadelphia and New York. Carpets Cleansed and Renovated by our process are returned bright as new, free from dust, moth, etc., and returned on promised time, without regard to weather. This is a result that can't help but be appreciated by housekeepers, and which cannot be attained by the old plan of beating by hand.

IMPROVEMENTS AND MACHINERY.

By these machines, the carpets are only beaten on the back or under side, while a series of swiftly revolving bristle brushes, at the same time thoroughly cleanse the face or nap, as the carpet is slowly drawn over them. Under this is a rapidly revolving fan of immense power, through which a strong current of air carries off the dust and impure gases, at the top of the building. This apparatus is so powerful that it is able to draw a current of air through the thickest carpet, thus securing thorough ventilation. By the renovating process the colors are brought out bright and new, without blending, leaving the carpet as clean as ever. During the season, we will add a machine especially adapted for the thorough cleansing of delicate fabrics, such as India and Persian Carpets and Rugs, Portiere Curtains, Drapery, etc., without striking a blow or fastening together, or subjecting them to any strain whatever.

Carpets packed Moth Proof, Stored and properly taken care of. Carpets sent for, cleaned and returned, without regard to weather on appointed time. Orders left at our office, or by mail or telephone, will receive prompt attention.

PRICE OF CLEANING—Ingrains and Three-Ply, three cents per yard; Brussels and Tapestries, four cents; Velvets, Wiltons and Moquettes, five cents per yard.
