MAINNEROBOR VISITORS

Yesterday afternoon a committee of the Germania Mannerchor, of Baltimore, consisting of Mesers, A. Pieti and Philip Freitag, arrived in Lancaster - the object of their visit being to present to the Lar. master Manuscrebor and the Languager Letderkrauz, souvenirs of the very pleasant visit the Baltimoreans had August, during the festivities attending the dedication of the Managerehor hall, The visitors, accompanied by a committee from the Lancaster Ma first paid their respects to the Liederkranz where Mr. Preil, in behalf of the Germania Manuercher, presented the Liederkrauz with a handsomely frained group of photographs of all the Baltimore singers who participated in the Mannerchor festivities. The gift was received by Prest dent Philip Stumpf, of the Liederkranz After music and refreshments, the party marched to Mannerchor hall, an invitation having been extracted to the Liederkratz to accompany them. The visitors were met by the Mannerchor in strong force and after being introduced and welcomed, Mr. Pfeil presented to the Mænnerchor a very large and costly group of photographs of the singers of the mania Michaerchor. President William Wohlsen, of the Michaerchor, accepted the testimonial in behalf of that body. Then there were music and feasting, which were kept up until a late hour. A special feature of the evening was the music ren dered by the mixed chorus of the Lancis ter Mannercher, consisting of fifty or sixty male and female voices, under the leader ship of Prof. Matz. The visitors will return to Baltimore on Wednesday.

TLASH LITERATURE.

Its Pornicious Effects on the Young-Speci-

New Era, Editorial, Joaquin Miller's Story, Third Installment.

The young hopeful soon learns what is expected from him and strives to come un to expectations. He learns all the streets and flash literature of the day can teach him. The ambition is fired by what he reads, and soon he longs to rival the to him proud exploits of Claud Duval and Six teen string Jack. He cannot assault men on the highway, but he organizes a little gang of his own, where all these things are discussed and where juvenile raids are resolved upon. He does on a minor scale what his elders do in a more enlarged sphere. He carries a cheap pistol, of course, and believes it manly to use it. Here we have the origin of the youthful Indian fighter, midnight raider and general do no good.

DARKER'S TONIU.

Put a Brand on Him.

"Women are a necessary evil," he said, bringing down his fist hard on the counter to emphasize the heartless remark. It was in the village store at West Milton, Saratogo county, and the speaker was the central figure of a group of bucholic philosophers. He was homely, slovenly and sixty, "There's where I differ from you altogether," said Mr. George T. Graham, of the same place. "Women are mostly what men make 'em. When husbands are brutes wives will fail into submission or make home hot for the men; and they're thmake nome not for the men; and they're then natural in either character. Love them, and especially be good to them when they're sick, and you'll have no trouble. There's my own wife, now. She's suffered a good deal with dysepsia, nervous progration and other aliments that took the bloom off her cheeks and the spring out of her steps. Well, she saw an advertisement of Parker's Tosio, and thought it would be just the thing for her case. Gentlemen, I sent five miles after a bottle. She took it. I sent again after more. So several times. Trouble? Why, if you could see how much good it has done her you would say that women are the greatest of God's blessings, and Parker's Tonic's the next."

This preparation, which has been known as Parker's Ginoma Tonio, will hereafter be called simply Parker's Tosio. This change has been rendered necessary by substitutes imposed upon their customers by unprincipled dealers under the name of ginger; and as ginger is really an unimportant flavoring ingredient, we drop the inisteading word.

There is no change, however, in the preparation itself, and all bottles remaining in the hands of dealers, wrapped under the name of "Parker's Ginger Tonio," contain the genuine medicine if the signature of flucox & Co. is at the bottom of outside wrapper. natural in either character.
