

Lancaster Intelligencer.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APR. 2, 1884.

Cincinnati's Law and Order.

We are telegraphed from Cincinnati an editorial article in the Commercial Gazette of that town, which is described as "an accurate and powerful presentation of the situation here."

The Gazette talks for the sound sake of its rhetoric, and with small regard for sober sense. It is the misfortune of this country that it is cursed with prominent journals of this character.

It is a somewhat strange coincidence that All Fools' day was selected for the opening of the baseball season.

Prothonotary Sam Matt Frye evidently thinks that it is the early work of a mischief maker who has taken to announce his candidacy for re-nomination.

John Sherman and J. Warren Keifer, both eminent citizens of Ohio, are the latest illustrations of how easily a man may be "hoist by his own petard."

Our benign government, ever considerate for the welfare of its citizens, has provided for the distribution of public documents by senators and representatives among their respective constituents.

The statement of the state treasurer shows that he had on hand yesterday, deposited in the Pittsburg, Philadelphia, Harrisburg and other banks of the state $1,285,324.18.

WE trust that there is no truth in the current rumor that at a recent political conference of Republican ringsters in this city one of the company offered to contribute $2,500 to the pool if his candidate for judge were put on the short ticket to be formed.

MR. BLISS testifies that in one of the Star Route cases, which the government has tried, it was shown that one route which was the outcome of the conspirators' operations "not a letter or paper went over it for twenty days, and that route paid $40,000 to $50,000."

THERE is a bill pending in the New York Legislature, taxing inheritances, which is commended by the New York World. We do not know its special provisions, but if it is intended to tax the wealth that cannot be taken with him by his owner on his way to Paradise or elsewhere, we think it is a good bill.

THE New Era did itself no credit by trying to conceal from its readers the fact that its candidate for Congress, Hon. A. Herr Smith, voted for the Fitz John Porter bill, after its own interperate and bitter partisan opposition to that measure and denunciation of those who supported that measure.

ONE looks in vain over the list of entries in the New York walking match for the name of Samuel J. Tilden.

CINCINNATI QUIET.

DISCUSSING THE THREE DAYS' RIFT.

A sentiment that the military were to blame in precipitating bloodshed metter Government.

Cincinnati has settled down to what very much resembles its old time quietude, although the place still retains the appearance of a city in a state of siege.

THE exact number of dead and wounded will probably never be ascertained, on account of many of the wounded being carried away to hospitals.

THE committee of fifteen at a subsequent meeting decided to raise by subscription $100,000 to be used to pay 2,000 extra police.

THE Municipal Reform association, composed of citizens of all parties, have issued a manifesto to the voters of the city, stating that they more than ever demand the severance of party politics and municipal government.

Tuesday morning has been free from any incident indicating a change in the situation. The proposed relief of the militia by the civil police cannot be put into operation, as yet.

THE Volokobit (German) says "The calling out of the militia on Friday night was only a trifling matter and a warning only. It appears, but shooting, if violence had been placed on the police force, might have been a serious matter.

MR. BLISS referred to the position of district attorney. He said: "Cook wanted to be made district attorney, and I did not consent to it. Afterward, he resigned, but I did not do so. I had understood that Senator Edmunds, chairman of the judiciary committee, had said that he would not consent to Cook's removal."
