Town Where Vice Is Not Encouraged-Methodism In Italy-Matters of Religious Interest.

Philadelphia Ledger. The town of " Pullman," near Chicago, ontaining several thousand inhabitants and equipped with the municipal conveni ences of a modern city, is interesting not only as being owned entirely by one corporation and practically by one man, but because of the example it sets. Mr. Pullman professes not to have been moved by any sentimental considerations when he planned and built the beautiful town, but it is doubtful whether business considera tions alone would have induced him to assume the risk and responsibility. Be this as it may, however, he built the place with the primary intention of bettering the condition of the working men in his car shope by freeing them from the conditions of poor dwelling in Chicago and the tempta tions of city life, believing that as their condition improved they would be more profitable to him as workmen. He select expended a great deal of money on the drainage, arranging for its collection in a great well, whence it is pumped to farm lands at a distance and utilized. He then bdilt great workshops, dwellings for the workmen, stores, public halls, schools, a church, a theatre and a botel, &c.; pro vided water and gas works and organized a fire department. . Thus equipped and peopled by the workmen and their families, the town of Pullman stands a model in its way. The stores, the hotel, the stables, the school, &c., are all managed for Mr. Pullman by employes, and the church building is open to any congrega-tion that may desire to rent it. At present, religious services are held by several denominations in small halls. As one after the other grows in numbers, requiring a large and separate place of wor ship, church buildings are to be erected for their use. At present there is much competition for possession of the existing edifice, which is rentable at fifty dollars per month.

law, but simply a regulation adopted by the landlord himself. Mr. Pullman thought that he could afford to furnish his work men good, cheerful homes in a wholesome new little town at less cost to them than would have to be paid for poorer quarters in a great city, and still obtain six per cent. on his investment, and he says that he has succeeded. Not only the workmen een awakened even in the most careless by the salubrity and beauty of their surroundings. No policemen are employed in Pullman, and it is said that in the three years since the town was first occupied, there has been no occasion for arrests. A defect in the scheme is about to be removed. Abundant employment had been provided for men, but none hereto-

employment can be given to the young

George Baucroft to its editor, the Rev. no such thing as disease ; what is called Dr. Buckley, in October last, in which he says : "Certainly our great united com-monwealth is the child of Christianity ; it may with equal truth be asserted that modern civilization sprung into life with our religion, and faith in its principles is the life boat on which humanity has at divers times escaped the most threatening perils."

Fast Day in the American Athens There was an unusually quiet observ ance of fast day in Boston Thursday. The federal and local government buildings were closed and other business was neglected, including the cathedrai, and in the state and city charitable institutions. The heavy snow storm of Wednesday, with almost continuous rain during the day, effectually prevented the performance of all out door sports, including baseball, which for many years have been attrac-tive features of the day.

The Children Found It.

A clergyman of Clinton, Ill., announced that on the following Sunday he would preach from the longest verse in the Bible, and should not announce his text, but would give a silver dollar to all mem ed cheap ground near Chicago and first bers of the Sanday school who would find out for themselves what verse it was. On Suday he received thirty eight correct answers, and awarded the prizes as promised.

Albany Times.

Last Sunday Mr. Beecher illustrated a part of his sermon by whistling a bar from an opera as he said he had once heard a caged bullfluch do. Mr. Beecher remarked that it was the saddest music he ever heard, and from all accounts he illustrated it perfectly. We must say that whistling in the pulpit and around newspaper offices is very sad music.

TEMPERANCER EFORM.

The Enforcement of Existing Laws Memphils Appeal.

The temperance people are discovering that the progress of sobriety among the population has not been commensurate with the amount of the effort that has been made, and the time that has elapsed since those efforts were begun. They can succeed, in instance, in procuring the passage of laws prohibiting the retailing of intoxicating liquors, but when obtained the law fails, because there is not sufficient support given to it by the citizens individually. We see by a statement in the Nashville Banner that temperance people in Tennessee are recognizing this tact, and are coming to the conclusion that it will be wise to approach a more sweeping law by putting into action laws that already highly pleased with their homes, and a exist. Mai, Sykes, one of the widest spirit of enterprise and self respect has known men in the state, who is at present actively working for the promotion of temperance in Middle Tennessee, is ur gently pressing this view of the case, and the Temperance Alliance of Maury county is giving him solid support. The immediate object aimed at is to have such existing regulations of the law that are inimical to intemperance put rigidly into effect. A sentiment is spreading that the best im-disease is merely a delusion born of an un-balanced mind. One of the apostles has cured a patient subject to epileptic fits. None of them has tackled a red hot case of smallpox yet, however. SENTENDING RIOTERS.

Meting Out Justice in Civernanti-Distand mest of Ji i ia. The first sentencing of prisoners since the riot took place on Friday in Judge Johnson's court. Belle Osborn, colored, convicted of shooting, with intent to kill, received seven years. She begged most pitiously when the sentence was pronounc-ed and the judge began to say, " As this is a woman, I will modify the sentence-" when the prosecutor interposed a vigorous protest, saying, "This woman has been before the criminal courts again and again and something must be done to relieve the courts, if for no other purpose." The udge permitted the sentence to remain. The only other case where the crime was homicide was that of John Murtah, who pleaded guilty of manslaughter. It ap peared that he struck a man with his fist, and the plea was accepted and a sentence of five years was given. The 1st Regiment of Cincinuati, talks of disbanding. In a number of instances members have been discharged because the workmen threatened to leave if the militia. men were permitted to come back to work. Prosecution for obedience to orders tends to discourage the men from longer holding connection with a militiary company. ---

"Was Eve the first woman," was the title of locture recently delivered down East. Of ourse we didn't hear the lecture, but we know the first woman, that ever used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup never experienced such a happy bure for her cough and coid.
