MOVEMENTS OF THE BOSSES.

Items in the Local Political World-Senseu-There were a goodly number of politicians in town to day and they have been moving around in a very quiet way all day. A number hung around the Examiner office payement. Among them were J. W. Johnson, John M. Stehman, S. M. Myers, Elwood Griest, John D. Skiles and others. It is thought that the boys are receiving their final instructions. It was appounced this morning that II. H. Kurtz had withdrawn from the ticket as a candidate for senator in the lower district. Mr. Kurtz was in town and he confirmed the story. His retirement from the field will greatly improve the chances of Senator Mylin, which, however, have been very good since the opening of the campaign.

The following is the short ticket which will be supported by Sensonig. The tickets are out and the one received at this office is for the Southern district :

BOTH LEGS OUT OFF.

The Terriule Arridert Which Beleft John W. Steinel.

John W. Michael, baggage master on the Frederick accommodation, train met with a terrible accident opposite the Penn-sylvania railroad depot, Columbia, about 12:30 this aftercoon. Engine 938 was pulling up the main track to allow the Frederick train to back a car off, when Mr. Michael not seeing it walked directly front of the engine. He was knocked down and the heavy engine wheels passed over both his legs, cutting them off between the knees and ankles. He was carried into the depot and Dr. Craig was sent for, and at once hastened to his relief and had him taken to his home ou Front street, Columbia. Dr. Craig has no hopes of his recovery, and says he may die at any moment.

Mr. Michael, is a native of this city, being a son of Mrs. Elizabeth Michael owner of the Grape hotel. He has a wife and six children living in Columbia. He has many friends here who will be greatly shocked at his misfortune. He has been in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad company as brakeman, conductor and baggage master for more than a quarter of a century, and was a careful, courteour, and efficient officer.

Similar Accident to a Bay. A fifteen year old boy named John Sheufelt, while attempting to board an east bound freight train at Middletown to-day at noon, slipped and fell with his right leg across the track and, the car wheels passing over it, cut it off just below the kuce. He was taken to his home in Middletown, where he received surgical Amusements.

Maude Granger .- This able and popular actress will appear here on a return visit Tuesday evening in her great play of "Claire, the Forge-Master." Everyone who was present in the opera house upon the occasion of her former visit, will remember with pleasure the splendid performance then given, and most of those who then saw Miss Granger will doubtless go again. The play is full of absorbing interest and is interpreted with great ability. Miss Granger's impersonation of the chief female character is a work of artistic histrionic ability rarely surpassed, and one that should be seen. SPECIAL NOTICES.

AFTERNOON TELEGRAMS FORE TROUBLE AGAIN IN CUBA.

Spanish Government Aroused and Alarmed at the Landing of Gen. Aguero on the Ireland

KEY WEST, Fla., April 10.—Advices from Havana state that Gen. Aguero in landing with his filibusters mot with no re sistance. It is reported that numerous factions joined Aguero on the march to the interior, swelling the party to many hundred followers. Several encounters with troops took place, the result of which was that the troops were obliged to retreat. Great excitement exists in the island, especially at Havana, owing to the large force of troops that was concentrated several days at a spot on the coast, where Aguero never would have landed. It is therefore believed that the government used the incident of Aguero's expected arrival for a display of force with the object of intimidating the Cubans of Havana at the next elec-tions. The government has telegraphed to Spain, requesting that additional troops be sent. The ceasorship of telegraphic lispatches has been re established.

As Mrs. Hughes was stepping up to give tes timony in the magistrate's court her busband sprang at her and drawing a shoemaker's knife, hacked her several times in the face and head. UNPROVOKED MURDER.

Dakota Marshal Shot Down to Cold Blood Au unprovoked murder was committed at Hank Lewis' saloon, in Mitchell, Dak., at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning, the victim being Capt. J. T. Pierce, city marshal, and the murderer being Hank Lewis, the saloon keeper. A city ordinance requires all the saloons to close at a designated hour, and Lewis announced that he would break the law with impunity and bid defiance to arrest, and threatened to shed the blood of the officer who should arrest him. Lewis' saloon was open at 3 o'clock, and the marshal told him that if he would not obey the law he would have to arrest him. At the same moment Lewis stepped back and picked up a shot gun. Pierce told him to put down the gun, but Lewis, as quick as thought, with steady nerve, level ed the weapon deliberately at Captain Pierce's head and fired, striking Pierce on the right of the head and partially blow-ing his brains out. Capt, Pierce fell back ward and expired in a pool of his own blood. Lewis was marched off to the jatl and secured behind the bars.

At an early hour the news of the murder was generally spread throughout the city, and the citizens began to flock to the scene and loud cries of " Lynch the murderer,' 'Hang him to a lamp post," wentup from the crowd, but the officers were prompt in quelling any effort in that direction, and better judgment prevailed for a time. Coroner Curtis held an inquest on the murdered marshal at an early hour Wednesday morning, and a verdict was

Wednesday morning, and a verdict was rendered in accordance with the facts. Later in the day a preliminary investigation was had before Judge Abbey, of the city court, who held Lawis for premeditated murder.

Lewis is one of the worst characters that ever came to the territory. Some weeks ago he shot at Oscar Warfield, the keeper of a saloon, in his own (Warfield's) saloon and he then turned and walked out, defied the officers to arrest him, and held the crowd at bay with a revolver in his hand. He was finally arrested for that offense by Capt. Pierce and Sheriff Atherton. A short time before that event Lewis undertook to murder a man at the Dakota took to murder a man at the Dakota house but shot too low and wounded the man in the thigh. He has always been successful in avoiding punishment, but there now seems to be no barrier between im and justice.

Later in the afternoon strong threats of ynching were made, and extra precautions were taken to guard the prisoner. The mayor has issued a proclamation requesting all good citizens to assist in upholding the law for the credit of the city.

ondon News. The position of a governess is naturally an ambiguous one, and difficulties surround it on every side. As the profession is overcrowded, so it is almost inevitably underpaid. Ladies have drifted into the position because so very few other means of making a livelihood were open to them. This is as much as to say that thousands of women with no natural vocation for the task became teachers. At the best the relations between the governess and the family with which she lives are difficult. To keep them pleasant requires extraordi nary tact and good temper on both sides A guest who is always there, a perpetual third besides husband and wife, has a hard part, and so have the wife and husband. The big brothers are a dreadful plague to governesses-the big brothers and the big cousins. These have a way of loafing in the school room, and expecting to find the children always ready to amuse them, which is naturally most annoying to the teacher.

Even worse than the war which big brothers are apt to wage with governesses with the maidens. This causes a perpetual fear in the minds of some mothers and here again is a difficulty in this most arduous profession. While the family and the parents are most to blame if the life of the governess becomes a burden to her, it would be unfair to blink the fact that some governesses run ahead, so to speak, to meet trouble before it comes. They expect to be persecuted, and are on the lookout for slights and wrougs. It is difficult to blame a temper so natural, though so unlucky, in a woman whose though so unlucky, in a woman whose position is difficult, and whose past life has probably not been fortunate.

JAMES M'HENRY ARRESTED.

The Hailroad Magnate Settles a $2,000,000 Judgment. James McHenry, the railroad magnate, was arrested Wednesday by a United States marshal on board the Servia while about to sail for England. The arrest was made on an execution ob-tained four or five year ago on a judgment issued by the United States courts, New York, for over $2,000,000 that Mr. McHenry owes to the Erie railroad. It was understood by the Erie railroad management that Mr. McHenry's express errand to New York was to try and effect a settlement of the matter. Shortly afterward the terms of settlement were agreed upon, and Mr. McHenry turned over to Mr. Jewitt 11,000 shares of the C. C. C. and I. railroad, valued at $681,000 and 13,000 shares of Chicago and Atlantic ex tension bonds. The bonds turned over have an aggregate value of $1,800,000. Mr. McHenry also gave a written promise
