THE LEAF.
THE LOCAL AND OTHER MARKETS.
Tobacco still in the Field in The County and Large Quantities Delivered in The City—The Market in New York and Philadelphia.
There have been a few sales of old tobacco during the week at private rates, the largest sale reported being 100 cases of medium leaf. Holders of old tobacco are firm in their demands, there being a prevalent belief that the stock in hand is not sufficient to meet the wants of manufacturers and exporters; and this view appears to be held by the leading New York dealers, a number of whom were some days ago interviewed by a representative of the Tobacco Leaf. We condense below the replies of some of them:
"I. Lachenbruch says there is very little old tobacco remaining in the country. Not near so much as people think there is. The new crop of Wisconsin will not exceed 15,000 cases, and of that only 5,000 cases will come to this market. About one-third of the crop of 1883 was sold here and in this country, the remainder being sold in the market, and as soon as the crop for Havana seed has died out it will be readily bought."
"Mr. Sam'l Spangrow: I think that from 12,000 to 15,000 cases of 1883 Pennsylvania remain unsold. There are from 1,000 to 1,500 cases of 1880 Pennsylvania in dealers' hands. I have not figured it out, but I should think that not more than 40,000 cases of old tobacco of all kinds and growth remain in the possession of dealers."
"G. Falk: The stock of 1882 Connecticut is estimated to be about 5,000 cases, and the stock of 1881 Pennsylvania 5,000 cases. The stock of all tobacco held here and in this country, I think, will not aggregate 40,000 cases. Of course I don't include the new crop."
"Mr. Julius Bunzl: I estimate the 1881 Pennsylvania now in first hands at 10,000 cases. The stock of 1880 of all kinds cannot exceed 20,000 cases. The entire stock of old tobacco, I think, is 30,000, possibly 35,000 cases."
"Mr. Laidman: I think there is much less 1881 Pennsylvania in first hands than is generally thought of. A great deal of this tobacco has been sold privately, for the reason that the seller did not wish to have it known what he got for it, and the buyer did not want his customers to know that he was using it, on account of the prejudicial effect."
Similar views are expressed by a large number of other large dealers, and they concur in the opinion that business will soon open briskly at advanced prices. The scarcity of old tobacco is no doubt the principal cause of the rapidity with which the '83 crop is being bought up. Not less than three-fourths of the crop in this county has been taken, and the buyers are still in the field taking all that is offered at fair prices. It is generally expected that the crop will be sold in a few days, and the men and boys are constantly employed in assorting and packing the tobacco and it is probable that the pay rolls of the packers will be paid in a few days. The men of several weeks longer. In the score of packing houses scattered throughout the county, business is equally active, and will continue so until the entire crop has been bought and packed.
Below we print a few sales as samples of the prices being paid for new tobacco.
"Mr. Hensel has bought from E. E. Steady, of Bart, 4 acres at 9, 2, 2; from Joseph Embree 1 1/2 acres at 12, 4, 4, 2; from Joseph Embree 1 1/2 acres at 12, 4, 4, 2; and 1 acre at 5, 3, 2; from Robert Rea 1 at 10, 4, 2; Mr. Shubert bought from Mr. Fritz 1 acre at 14, 4, 2, 2.
"Mr. A. Armor, of West Bradford, Chester Co., Pa., has bought from J. H. Kendig & Son, of this city, a five-acre crop, which yielded 13,312 pounds and which was sold at 24, 8, 5, 3. Mr. Armor was formerly from Lancaster county and is one of the most successful of the county's planters. He has bought 25 cents through. This year he intends to plant Havana seed exclusively.
"Martin & Fritz received their first installment of '83 tobacco on Friday. It consisted of one ton, price not given.
"G. H. Collins, of East, has bought the following lots: Wm. Mason, 2 acres at 12, 3, 2; Henry Bostick, 1 acre at 12, 3, 2; George Haideman, East Donoval, 2 acres at 12, 6, 2; David Grove, 3 acres at 11, 2, 2; J. H. Shields, 1 1/2 acres at 10, 3, 2; M. Neuberger & Co., bought the following: John Mann, Manor, 5 acres at 10, 5, 4, 2; John Kendig, Earl, 3 acres at 17, 4, 2; T. Bradley, West Hempfield, 4 acres at 15, 3, 2; John S. Shearer, Earl, 3 acres at 13, 4, 2.
"Oscar Scotten, Little Britain, has sold 1 acre at 18, 5, 3; Geo. Baskin, Little Britain, 2 acres, at 15, 5, 3; Miller Patterson, Little Britain, 1 acre, at 13, 4, 2; all to Harrison Shirk, who also bought a very large quantity of tobacco from John Chas. Shubert bought in Bart from John Ferguson, 1 acre at 14, 4, 2; Mr. Kendig has also bought largely; he is credited with having bought sixteen crops in one day, among them are: J. Ferguson, 2 acres at 13, 4, 2; Jas. Bernard, at 11, 4, 2, both in Coleraine.
"Mr. Muser is operating around Liberty Square, and has purchased very freely.
"The new packers at Strasburg are a busy and have bought from S. Nisly, in Drumore, 7 acres at 15, 4, 3.
"Hildebrand, at New Providence, has bought from Harry Shirk, Drumore, 4 acres at 13, 9, 4, 2; Emory Barr, 2 acres at 8, Mr. Loeb has bought from A. Kaufman, Drumore, 2 acres at 11, 4, 2. "Jas. Shirk has bought of J. H. Gilbert, 4 acres, in Eden, private, and B. Bischoff, Drumore, 3 acres at 14, 6, 1, 2.
"Geo. Heiss from A. Ebenhess, Drumore, 2 acres at 8, 4, 2; Luke G. Hertz, 3 acres at 8, 4, 2; Nick Wells, 2 acres at 10, 4, 2.
"R. H. Brubaker, from White Swift, two acres in Little Britain, at 14, 6, 2, 2; Frank Scott, Coleraine, three acres at 10, 6, 4, 2; Frank Haversick, Drumore two acres at 10, 4, 2.
"J. F. Frey has bought the fine crop of B. Huber at Drumore Centre, two acres, on private terms; Wm. Boyer, Drumore, two acres at 10, 4, 2; Jas. Harner, Coleraine, two acres at 9, 3, 2; Groff & Muselman have bought of Jas. Hees, in Eden, two acres at 15, 4, 2.
"The '83 crops.
Farmers are busy at work preparing for the crop of '84. Most of them have planted their seed, and many have young plants peeping out from their glass or canvas covered beds. As a rule all the planters have secured Havana seed and will grow at least a part of their crop of that variety. Some will use Havana seed for their entire planting, but perhaps a majority will continue to use some of the favorite varieties of seed leaf, and in this we think they are acting wisely. Havana seed is no doubt a good thing and we have repeatedly urged farmers to give it a fair trial; but seed leaf is also a good thing; it has made fortunes for thousands of growers, and should not be hastily discarded. By the way, while so many farmers are

The scarcity of old tobacco is no doubt the principal cause of the rapidity with which the '83 crop is being bought up. Not less than three-fourths of the crop in this county has been taken, and the buyers are still in the field taking all that is offered at fair prices. It is generally expected that the crop will be sold in a few days, and the men and boys are constantly employed in assorting and packing the tobacco and it is probable that the pay rolls of the packers will be paid in a few days. The men of several weeks longer. In the score of packing houses scattered throughout the county, business is equally active, and will continue so until the entire crop has been bought and packed.
Below we print a few sales as samples of the prices being paid for new tobacco.
"Mr. Hensel has bought from E. E. Steady, of Bart, 4 acres at 9, 2, 2; from Joseph Embree 1 1/2 acres at 12, 4, 4, 2; from Joseph Embree 1 1/2 acres at 12, 4, 4, 2; and 1 acre at 5, 3, 2; from Robert Rea 1 at 10, 4, 2; Mr. Shubert bought from Mr. Fritz 1 acre at 14, 4, 2, 2.
"Mr. A. Armor, of West Bradford, Chester Co., Pa., has bought from J. H. Kendig & Son, of this city, a five-acre crop, which yielded 13,312 pounds and which was sold at 24, 8, 5, 3. Mr. Armor was formerly from Lancaster county and is one of the most successful of the county's planters. He has bought 25 cents through. This year he intends to plant Havana seed exclusively.
"Martin & Fritz received their first installment of '83 tobacco on Friday. It consisted of one ton, price not given.
"G. H. Collins, of East, has bought the following lots: Wm. Mason, 2 acres at 12, 3, 2; Henry Bostick, 1 acre at 12, 3, 2; George Haideman, East Donoval, 2 acres at 12, 6, 2; David Grove, 3 acres at 11, 2, 2; J. H. Shields, 1 1/2 acres at 10, 3, 2; M. "The '83 crops.
Farmers are busy at work preparing for the crop of '84. Most of them have planted their seed, and many have young plants peeping out from their glass or canvas covered beds. As a rule all the planters have secured Havana seed and will grow at least a part of their crop of that variety. Some will use Havana seed for their entire planting, but perhaps a majority will continue to use some of the favorite varieties of seed leaf, and in this we think they are acting wisely. Havana seed is no doubt a good thing and we have repeatedly urged farmers to give it a fair trial; but seed leaf is also a good thing; it has made fortunes for thousands of growers, and should not be hastily discarded. By the way, while so many farmers are

THE LOCAL AND OTHER MARKETS.
Tobacco still in the Field in The County and Large Quantities Delivered in The City—The Market in New York and Philadelphia.
There have been a few sales of old tobacco during the week at private rates, the largest sale reported being 100 cases of medium leaf. Holders of old tobacco are firm in their demands, there being a prevalent belief that the stock in hand is not sufficient to meet the wants of manufacturers and exporters; and this view appears to be held by the leading New York dealers, a number of whom were some days ago interviewed by a representative of the Tobacco Leaf. We condense below the replies of some of them:
"I. Lachenbruch says there is very little old tobacco remaining in the country. Not near so much as people think there is. The new crop of Wisconsin will not exceed 15,000 cases, and of that only 5,000 cases will come to this market. About one-third of the crop of 1883 was sold here and in this country, the remainder being sold in the market, and as soon as the crop for Havana seed has died out it will be readily bought."
"Mr. Sam'l Spangrow: I think that from 12,000 to 15,000 cases of 1883 Pennsylvania remain unsold. There are from 1,000 to 1,500 cases of 1880 Pennsylvania in dealers' hands. I have not figured it out, but I should think that not more than 40,000 cases of old tobacco of all kinds and growth remain in the possession of dealers."
"G. Falk: The stock of 1882 Connecticut is estimated to be about 5,000 cases, and the stock of 1881 Pennsylvania 5,000 cases. The stock of all tobacco held here and in this country, I think, will not aggregate 40,000 cases. Of course I don't include the new crop."
"Mr. Julius Bunzl: I estimate the 1881 Pennsylvania now in first hands at 10,000 cases. The stock of 1880 of all kinds cannot exceed 20,000 cases. The entire stock of old tobacco, I think, is 30,000, possibly 35,000 cases."
"Mr. Laidman: I think there is much less 1881 Pennsylvania in first hands than is generally thought of. A great deal of this tobacco has been sold privately, for the reason that the seller did not wish to have it known what he got for it, and the buyer did not want his customers to know that he was using it, on account of the prejudicial effect."
Similar views are expressed by a large number of other large dealers, and they concur in the opinion that business will soon open briskly at advanced prices. The scarcity of old tobacco is no doubt the principal cause of the rapidity with which the '83 crop is being bought up.
