the Town. James Grimes, of Marietta, was arrested here yesterday by Officer Wittick, charged with passing as money eleverly executed advertisement bills, which were issued by a cotton manufacturing firm of Manayunk Pa. The bills have all the appearance of bona fide five dollar bills to a careless glace. A number of them were found on Grimes' clothing. At last night's hearing Squire Patton committed him to prison for trial in default of bail, but this morning Mr. Abram Collins, of Marietta, be-came his surety. The latter says Grimes is of unsound mind, rendered so by failure ia business, he having formerly been a storekeeper at Collins' station. Officer Wittick has obtained evidence that Grimes sold four of these bills for $10. The case will be settled in court.

Came to tiear Election Setures For several days past a gang of men have been busy billing the town for Fore-paugh's circus. On Monday evening one of the party was working on the Harris burg pike near the city limits when he was approached by a stranger who asked him to exchange clothes. He said he had broken jail here some mouths ago and desired to get into town to see his family. If he wore the clothes that he then had the officers would catch him. The circus man pitted the fellow and agreed to his proposition. They exchanged the jail breaker was given a bucket and brush to carry. They got in safely, and after spending several hours in the city the stranger again put on his own clothing and left town the refused to give his name, but stare! that when the story of his trading clothing got around the boys would know who he was. It is believed that it was Johnny Wertz, who has been a bill poster himself for many years, and that he visited town to see who Conscience-Stricken After Twenty Years. Twenty years ago James Hutchinson, of Springtown, Bucks county, gave an acquaintance ten cents and requested him to bring a package of tobacco along from the stone to which the man was going. He brought the package and the affair was forgotten until last week, when the man wrote to Mr. Hutchinson, inclosing twenty live cents and a postal card, which he said was in payment for one cent change which he had received and had failed to return twenty years ago, the tobacco being only nine cents. He further stated he had joined the Dunkard church, and his conscience would give him no rest until he had returned it with full interest.

Meantime it was quietly whispered among Brosius' friends that if the convention named him he could not, dare not, would not, decline. Harry Schroyer and 'Squire Spurrier took charge of his boom and it was making rapid headway when it encountered the serious protests of Osborne, Cooper, Quay, Lilly and others, who main-

A CUT AND DRIED PROGRAMME

Some Kicking Indulged in Against Appointments.

Special Dispatch to the INTELLIGENCER. HARRISBURG, Pa., April 16.-Upon assembling it was seen that the Republican convention lacked the interest and popular attendance visible at Allentown. The machine programme ran along smoothly. Waddell was elected temporary chairman and made a spiritless speech, which was lamely received. According to the cut and dried programme a committee of nine was appointed on the Allegheny contest, consisting of Stewart, Longenecker, Merrick and Jadwin, Half Breeds; and Huff, Reeder, Losch and Lane, Stalwarts. Bowers, the other member, is not classi fied, but is supposed to be for Magee. Upon a call for committees Long and Yocum, of Lancaster, were appointed on resolutions and Spurrier and Roebuck on organization.

A rather fresh delegate from Butler, named Steve Harley, precipitated matters and obstructed the machine and its free operation by introducing, amid the applause of the packed galleries, a resolution declaring and instructing for Blaine and Lincoln. It met with mild opposition ; but Bayne and other Blaine men compelled a decision and show of hands. The Philadelphia and a few scattering delegates sullenly opposed it, and the vote announced was 200 ayes to 37 roes. Elliott, of Allegheny, was violently hissed for declaring for Lincoln but against Blaine. When the chair announced Snowden, of Philadelphia, chairman of the resolutions committee and Rowan of the committee on organization, Gilts in Embossed, Color and Plain, Bor-Bayne and others kicked and demanded the right of the committee to name the chairman. A motion to that effect, however, was laid on the table. Recess was then taken until 12:30 p. m. W. U. H. Cooper Re-elected-Brorius' Boom Keviving.

1:57 P. M.-Galusha A. Grow has been elected permanent chairman. In accepting the chair he made a prolix speech. Cooper WANTED. - TWO BOYS TO LEARN has been unanimously re-elected state chairman. The Browing boom is revisited chairman. The Brosius boom is reviving.

The Resolutions Adopted, 2:50 P. M .- The resolutions reported attack the Democratic state administration; favor protection; applaud party harmony; ask for a fair and free ballot; recommend gold standard coinage, and the trade dollar retirement; commend Arthur; sustain civil service reform, and declare and instruct delegates at-large for Blaine and Lincoln. A LARGE CONVENTION.

How the Delegates Got to Order.

Gens. Osborne and Lilly have opened HARRISBURG, Pa., April 16.-The headquarters and the members of their weather this morning was an agreeable train-bands straggle around displaying disappointment to the people attending the badges of their favorites; ex Attorney the convention. The sun shone brightly Gen. Lear is here inviting the nomination and the air was warm and pleasant in the to come to Doylestown; but the opera house where the Republican conven tion was held. The stage was filled with funniest thing in the canvas is the relavisiting statesmen and reporters long be fore the delegates settled in their places.

Cooper calls the Convention to Order, At 10:25 the usual brass band was sienced and Chairman Coeper rapped the convention to order. After roll call the only contest announced was that from the Fourth Allegheny district. Ex Senator Waddell, of Chester, was made temporary chairman and in his opening speech strongly advocated harmony in the party arrangement.

The order of business was then agreed upon as follows : Appointment of commitment and the motion as amended was passed by a vote of 200, to 37 negative the latter came one from Allegheny and the rest nearly all from Philadelphia. motion to have the name of Lincoln stricken out, because to make him vice president now would be to injure his prospects for the presidency four years hence, was ruled out of order. The chair then appointed Elwood Rowan chairman of the committee on permanent organization, and A. Lowden Snowden chairman of committee those who had become candidates on the on resolutions. Various committees were basis of his previous withdrawal. This is then notified where to meet and the convention took a recess for one hour. Grow on the Tariff

The hour's recess stretched itself out to double that time. Upon reassembling the committee on permanent organization county body here does not sympathize presented a unanimous report nominating Grow for permanent chairman, together with a number of vice presidents and secretaties. The report was adopted and Grow took the chair amid much apand received a very large slice of cold modities is not to be desired when it comes at the expense of the wages of the laboring man. He argued further that in ninety-nine cases out of one hundred a reduction of duties would not reduce the price of goods to con sumers. Free trade, he thought, was merely a logical theory based upon mistaken facts.

The State Committee. Chas. Emery Smith, editor of the Philadelphia Press, then made a eulogistic address in favor of Thomas V. Cooper being retained as chairman of the state committee. A motion to proceed with the election of electors at large was defeated of the place four years ago by Geist's and the work of forming the state committee proceeded. One member from each county was appointed.

A New System. Bayne, of Allegheny, and Kauffman, of Lancaster, advanced a resolution instituting a system of representation in the Republican state conventions doing away altogether with senatorial dele-For members of the state committee the gates, and recommending one delegate for every one thousand voters in each representative district, with one extra representation for each fraction of five The popular nominations of L.
