OUR REODLAR CORRESPONDENCE

Events Along the Susquehanna-Items of Interest In and Around the Borough Picked up by the Intelligencer Reporter.

William Hartman, painter, has secured the contract for repainting the large block of residences opposite Dr. Hoffer's residence, on Walnut street.

The Columbia band is much pleased with the reception it received at the Ironville band's fair on Saturday night. The fair is to be continued part of this week,

To night the Columbia firemen's fair will end, if everything can be disposed of. If this cannot be done, auction will be held at the armory to morrow evening. A large crowd attended the fair on Saturday. No more business meetings of Gen. Welsh post, G. A. R., will be held until the evening of May 6, but on next Friday evening a reception and entertainment of

A grand variety and musical concert will be held in the armory on Wednesday evening by Mt. Zion A. M. African church. St. Paul's P. E. church will give a reception and sociable on next Thursday evening in the armory. A large number of invitations have been sent out to friends of the congregation to attend. Everything possible will be done to make it a delightful affair.

The Presbyterians will not bold their proposed sociable on Thursday evening, having postponed it indefinitely. It is to be hoped that it will not be abandoned entirely, as another of these pleasant affairs

" Patience" To-morrow Night The comic opera of " Patience " will be the attraction at the opera house to morrow evening, being presented by the Lan caster company under the auspices of Gen. Welsh post, G. A. R. The reputation of the company is so well known that nothing need be said regarding it. Tickets are at the popular rates. A car will take Ma-rietians home after the performance. Meetings This by aning.

To night the following meetings will be held: Susquehanna Lodge of Odd Fellows; Conestoga Lodge Knights Pythias; Riverside home, No. 27, H. C. (H. F.) C. A. The armory being otherwise engaged no drill will be held by Company C, but the committee meeting appointed to pre pare for the approaching banquet of the company will hold a meeting at Bennett's

THE LANGASTER WATCH FAUTURY. Under a New Management-Mr A. Bitter President and Principal Owner.

Another change has taken place in the Lancaster watch factory by which a majority of the old stockholders and directors retire and Mr. A. Bitter becomes many well imformed as i interested parties that it may now be made a financial success.

The watch company has bad a rather checkered experience. It has cost not much less than half a million dollars, and while the work turned out by it is acknow ledged to be at least equal to if not better than that of any other factory in the country it has always been a draw upon the peckets of the stockholders. It will be runembered that last spring the company was reorganized, all interests were consolidated and the stock was capitalized at $248,000, of which $200,000 was distri buted pro rata to the stockholders, as their respective interest appeared on the books of the company, the remaining $48,000 being reserved to be used at the discretion of the company. None of this has been used except a small amount that was distributed to hands on account of

At a meeting of the stockholders held on Saturday it was shown that the liabilities of the company were considerably over $100,000. These consisted of a mort gage of $48,600 on the real estate and machinery, and an indebtedness of about $60,000 for loans, and notes discounted at bank. Some of the heaviest stockholders discouraged by the repeated disappointments that have attended their enterprise agreed to give their stock to Mr. A. Bitner, provided that he would meet all the above liabilities. He agreed to do so and furnished the necessary scourity. The stock thus voluntarily relinquished was as follows : John I. Hartman, 525 shares ; B. P. Miller, 525 shares; L. S. Hartman, 425 shares; B. F. Breneman, 400 and John D. Skiles 600. The par value of the stock is $25 per share, though it cost the stockholders a good deal more. On surrendering their stock the above named gentlemen, all of whom with the exception of B. P. Miller were directors of the company, resigned and their places were filled by the election of the following named : John E. Snyder, Jacob Koch, B. F. Bitner and W. H Denny. The other members of the board are A. Bitner, presi dent ; J. P. McCaskay, secretary ; and J. Gust Zook, representative of the interest of late C. A. Bitner, who held 1,625 shares

The stock of watches manufactured and in course of manufacture in possession of the company at the time of the transfer to Mr. Bituer was valued at $190,000, and had been pledged as collateral to the payment of the debts. As this is almost double the amount of the debts, Mr. Bitner appears to have made an excellent bargain; and as he now owns a controlling interest (five eighths of the entire stock). and is perhaps better acquainted with the affairs of the company than any other member, and is a man of untiring quesay. there is every reason to believe that, the Lancaster watch company is now on a firm basis and will pay its present stock-holders handsome dividends,

A Dangerous Negro.

A negro named Jake Tobias, who was "wanted" by Officer Brady, of the Pennsylvania railroad police force, made a furious assault on that officer at Marietta on Saturday, and escaped from him. Officer Wash. Pyle started in pursuit of the negro and overtook him near Bainbridge, and told him he wanted him. The negro, armed with a hickory club, resisted, and aimed a blow at Pyle's head. He warded it off with his left arm, which was almost broken by the blow, and closed in on the negro, who again wielded the club and got in a blow or two on the officer's head After a struggle the officer obtained the club and the negroran off, and after a long chase, escaped.

The affair occurred at the house of a man named McCarty, the latter being a person suspected of receiving goods stolen from the Pennsylvania railroad company, and who is under police surveillance in consequence. Tobias is suspected having stolen company property, and he, knowing that he was suspected, probably believed that the officer was after him when he entered McCarty's house. He was lest seen at Collins's station, on the Pennsylvania railroad.

> SPRING IN THE COUNTRY. Notes of an Afternoon Samble.

Pragrant arbutus is to be found in abundance on Chestnut hill above Robrers

The wheat looks beautiful. It has healthy green color, and the many snows of the last winter blanketed it, so that the crop is well set and thick on the ground In nearly every garden, or on the sheltered hillside of the farm is to be seen a muslin covered bed, in which the young tobacco plants are being coaxed along. There is no more beautiful drive leading out from Laccaster than to Columbia, thence over the Chickies hill to the Marietta turnpike, and returning by that highway to Lancaster.

Whittier described the season perfectly when he wrote :

Again the blackbirds sing; the streams Wake, inughing, from their winterdreams, And tremble in the April showers. The basels of the maple flowers.

OBITUARY.

Death of Isane Powl. Isaac Powl, the well-known proprietor of the Walnut street livery stables, died to-day, at his residence, No. 6 East Walnut street, aged 75 years. Deceased was an honest, enterprising busi-ness man, who accumulated a handsome competence by his own industrious effort. He was well liked by all who knew him; was a kind husband and father, agood neighbor and useful citizen. He was a constant member of the Old Menno pist church. His funeral will take place from his late residence at 9 o'clock Thurs day morning. Religious services at the would be welcomed before the close of the Old Mennonist church at 10 o'clock and interment at Millinger's grave yard.

Killed on the Ball.

Early on Sunday morning the people of lonewago about 10 miles from York, were thrown into a state of excitement by finding the horribly mangled body of a man lying on the N. C. railroad track at the switch in that place. The body was identified as that of a man named Sipe, who lives at Conewago. The remains were removed to his parents' residence there. It is sup posed that he was either stepping on or off one of the freight trains on Saturday night, and fell under the wheels.

Visiting the High schools. This morning Mrs Lizzie Dickey Flem ing, a graduate of the Millersville state normal school, and for ten years past prin-cipal of the state normal school at Fairmount, W. " Lights o' London,"-This popular drams will be given bere under the management of Shook & Colifer, proprietors of the Union Square theatre, New York, in Fulton opera house, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The Buffalo Courter says: " The play is one of the strongest of the recent productions of ceretrted English melodramatic writers written specially with a view to strong scenic effect and the introduction of stage mechanism and agenuity not necessary or essential to the success of light dramatic works. The plot of Lights o' London ' has continuity, the char scters are well developed, and the scenes and situations vividly dramatic and effective. It abounds in striking and sensational stage pictures." " Princess Ida."-This latest opera, from th pens of the famous composers Gilbert and Sullivan, will be presented in Fulton opera-house Friday evening. The New York Times says: "Whoever will look beyond the per-sonages and times in 'The Princess Ida,' will find something to reward him that he will seldom discover in the Franco-English and German-English operettas of the day. Mr. Gilgert's libretto, as a literary effort, ranks as far above the average opera bouffe libretto, as 'The Rivals' ranks above 'sam'l of Posen. In point of sterling musical worth as much can be conceded to Mr. Sullivan's scores Speaking in a general way, Mr. Sullivan's instrumentation is to be mentioned as calling for the warmest praise."

FALLING DEAD IN THE KING.

A Circus Clown's Sudden Death While Perpetrating a Joke. Julian Martinette, an old circus clown employed with Sells Bros', circus, fell dead at Salineville, Ohio, on Saturday night while endeavoring to amuse a tent full of people with coarse jokes and antics. He was in the act of perpetrating the old time mother in law joke when he suddenly reeled, put his hand to his head and fell dead in the ring. The audience thought that his dropping so suddenly was a part of the programme, and laughed and jeered as the circus jester lay dead on the sawdust. His death is supposed to have been caused by heart disease, resulting from over excitement. He was 63 years of age and was at one time proprietor of the Martinette and Ravel pantomime com pany. He had been with Sells Bros. for one week only. He lived in Baltimore and leaves a family in that city.

F. A. Olmstead has for years had business dealings with the late President & eley, and had a strong personal attachment for him. On Sunday night, the day before the funeral, he dreamed that he and Mr. Seeley were standing on a floor which gave way with them In the struggle to save him-self he was awakeped. The dream made a self he was awakened. The dream made a strong impression upon him, and after eating an early breakfast he hurried to the house of his dear friend, and without disturbing the family found his way into the cellar. He felt that the dream might possibly be a warning, and he was moved to examine the supports to the floor. He found that a very large beam which supported the floor timbers. beam which supported the floor timbers beam which supported the floor timbers of the parlor and a partition wall were cracked. The crack appeared to be a fresh one, and a closer examination with a lamp showed that it was, and that it was so large that one's hand could be placed in it. Mr. Olmstead immediately got two heavy posts and in a short time made the timber perfeetly safe. This timber is thirty feet long and had no supporting posts. Its great size was supposed to be sufficient to sustain the weight upon it. In the parler above rested Mr. Seeley's remains. A few hours latter the building was filled with friends. Had it not been for the dream it is not likely the broken timber would have been discovered in time to prevent a catastrophe.

A Missouri Snake Story. Troy Free Press

While I was mowing in the meadow I heard a couple of old guinea hens making a fearful noise, and upon going to where they were I found that a very large black snake had coiled itself around the nest in which were three eggs. I soon concluded from his looks that he had been swallowing eggs, so I took up my mowing blade and out his head off pretty well back to the first egg. Standing upon his tail with one foot and pressing his body with the back of my moving blade, I very soon landed niveteen eggs, safe and sound, all in a pile. Then with a stick I very carefully rolled them back into the nest, making twenty two in all. The old hen, after considerable sparring around went on the nest again, and in a few days came strutting to the yard with nineteen little chicks. Upon going back to the nest I found three eggs which had not hatched, and they were rotten.

A Generous But Anonymous Giver.

Some wealthy Clevelander, name un known, has given $150,000 for the erection of a new building for the old Cleveland medical society, which now goes under the name of the medical department of the Western reserve university. The new building will go up on the site of the old one, at St. Clair and Eric streets. It will be four stories high, and measure 90 x 145 feet. There is much guessing as to the donor, some averring that the money was left by the late H. B. Huribut, while others credit it to Joseph Perkins. A sufficient endowment to keep the college running accompanies the gift.

A Charch Figuring Ond Fellows.

The use of Plymouth Congregational church at Worcester, Mass., was refused on Sunday for the funeral of E. M. Stockwell, a prominent citizen, influential member of the I. O. O. F., and regular attendant of the church, if the Odd Fellows' burial service was not omitted. The use of the Universalist church was promptly tendered when this was known, and the funeral took place there, the pastor and Odd Fellows participating. The church was crowded. Much feeling is expressed over the action of the Plysuaghs. Property of the pastor can be considered to the church was crowded. Much feeling is expressed over the action of the Plysuaghs. Destruction of a Summer Hotel. The Hotel Bellevue, midway between Sea Bright and Highlands, N. J., caught fire Sunday evening, and with its contents burned to the ground. The house, which had become famous by the recent Levi Corey extortion suit, was owned by Lemuel Smith, of Highlands, and was valued at $75,000, which is partially covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is un-
