THE COUNTY SUPERINIEND ENCY.

The Canvass of the Politicians and Directors There is some excitement among the politicians and school men of the city and county this week over the discovery that an attempt is being made by political intrigue to defeat the election of M. J. Brecht for county superintendent of pub-lic schools. When the office was made vacant by the resignation of Prof. Shaub, who left it to take the principalship at Millersville, Prof. I. S. Geist, of Marietta, was an aspirant for the appointment, but for good reasons, he took himself out of the canvass. Mr. Brecht was appointed and visited most of the schools during the past year, besides holding an institute. His work met with general approbation, and his election has been generally con

Of late a vigorous effort has been made to defeat him with Prof. Goist. It is charged that the latter has left his school in Marietta this week and is busily canvassing the county for the votes of directors. It is also stated, on good authority, that during the late Republican primaries several attempts were made to barter the vote of Marietta to candidates for the votes of school directors for Geist. There are other rumors of political intrigues, and of a combination of disappointed aspirants for the appointment against Brecht. These developments have aroused the school men of the county and those interested in keeping our educational affairs out of the hands of political marplots; and the intelligence and sense of right of the directors, as well as their zeal in the cause of the schools, will be appealed to for support of Mr. Brecht, as one who having been found faithful and efficient in his duties deserves election. The election, by a convention of the directors outside of Columbia and Lancaster, comes off in this city on May 6.

Givler & Rathvon of this city, the large and hardsome banner which was suspended store during the last annual conclave held in this city. The sir knights of Erie are highly pleased with it and in a letter to Messrs, Givler & Rathvon, say: "The committee and others who have seen the work are of one opinion in the estimation of it; they all admire it and say you are deserving of much credit for the conception and execution of so fine a display piece for the purpose used."

A Utileken Marderer.

The east end of the city is not a little ag itated over the mysterious death of a large number of chickens. Yesterday morning Edward Ransing, of East Grant street, found six of his fowls lying dead in the coop. Miss Ellen Torslinson, Orange street, near Ann, found five of her favorite fowls lying dead. Mr Fordney, cor per of Ann and Grant, had no less than fifteen of his game fowls killed, and a far. The Mt Joy soldiers' Orphaus School. We have reason to believe that Harvey Houck, esq., the new principal of the soldiers' orphans school at Mt. Joy, is fully sensible of many taults of management, which formerly prevailed in that institution, and is making resolute, intelligent and successful effort to cure them. He has already accomplished much, and the condition of the school, with its 102 girls and 172 boys, attests this. Amusements.

" Lights o' London,"-This fine sensational play will be given in Lancaster for the first time this evening and repeated to-morrow evening. The Adrian Record says: "The scene of the Slips, Regent Park, by moonlight was very beautiful, far exceeding anything ever before attempted here, and the acting of Lancaster and Columbia elect their own the little child as 'Jim, the wait,' with the policeman, was a phenomenal bit of work, that is seldom seen. Altogether the 'Lights o' London' is worthy the patronage and attention of all lovers of art and amusement and we advise those who did not witness the performance last evening to attend to-night and they will never regret it."

THE NEW YORK STATE CONVENTION

The Various Deals Made by the Different Combinations-Blaine's Supporters Not Disturbed and Arthur Men Claiming 200 Votes-The Factions, UTICA, N. Y., April 23.-The many arrangements were all completed at noon for the meeting in this city, of the Repub-lican state committee. Yesterday it looked as though the convention would be in complete possession of a Blaine-Edmunds combination, and last evening there were not a few Arthur men who admitted their defeat. The leaders of Blaine and Arthur last night made strong overtures to the Edmunds men, but later on in the night emphatically refused to name other terms than the right to name the four delegates at-large and the temporary chairman of the present convention. The Arthur men accepted the terms of the proposition this morning. The Edmunds men then named the ticket, including George F. Erwin, for temporary chairman, and the Arthur men agreed to carry out the programme. Erwin declined the candidacy for the temporary chairman and Assemblymen

Boynton was selected in his stead.

The Edmunds men claim from 60 to 80 delegates, while the Arthur leaders claim over 200. Blaine's supporters just now don't appear much disturbed over the situation, although only 249 votes are required to control the convention.
