THE WORST WEAPON.

Dr. Gatling Talks About His Multi-Barrel Gun.

This interview with the inventor of the great modern death dealer is taken from the Cleveland Herald:

"In 1861 I was living at Indianapolis. The war had broken out, and the country was all excitement. My house was within a few blocks of the depot, and I was often present there when volunteers were departing for the field, and also when their dead bodies were at times shipped back home in boxes for burial. One surprise to me that the number of men killed by sickness and disease was more than those killed by ball or actual battle.

"One day I remember nineteen corpses were landed at the depot; three had been killed in battle. The thought then struck me if a gun could be invented that would do the work of a hundred men, and would require but a few men to operate it, that the horrors of war would be greatly diminished, and an end would come much sooner of every struggle. More men could stay at home, and lives would be saved. The thought took such hold of me that I commenced to work on it at once. The result was the Gatling gun.

"My first guns were made in Cincinnati, and they would fire from 150 to 250 shots per minute. I had six of them manufactured in 1862, when the foundry was burned by incendiaries—I suppose rebel sympathizers—and the guns were destroyed. Next I had thirteen guns made at what is now the type foundry in Cincinnati, and these I sent on by my partner, a wealthy merchant of Cincinnati, to Washington to persuade the government to introduce them. He took them to Baltimore, where he left twelve, and went with the others to Washington.

"The chief of the ordnance department at the time was an old fogy. He received him coldly, told him he had no faith in his gun, and that he believed flint-lock muskets were, on the whole, the best weapons for warfare. In short, he would have nothing more to do with him. My partner then left Washington and returned to Baltimore. Ben Butler was there with his troops. He had heard of the guns, and he asked to see them work. As soon as he had done so he said he would buy them on his own responsibility, and did so, giving his voucher for $12,000 for them. My partner had this cashed, but at this time there was a great fall in pork, and 50,000 hogs which he had packed in Chicago, with the expectation of a rise, had to be sold.

"In a word, the break in the market ruined him, and my money went with him. So, for the first twenty guns I had made at a great cost to myself, I received nothing. Ben Butler took the guns he had bought with him to the battle of Petersburg and fired them himself upon the rebels. They created great consternation and slaughter, and the news of them went all over the world. Now they are used by all the leading governments of Europe and also in Asia and Africa. They enabled the Prussians to conquer Austria in 1870, though the Austrians had the larger forces, and they shortened the war by Germany and France so that it practically lasted but a few days.

"The Gatling guns are now made in Hartford, in this country, and in Europe at Newcastle on the Tyne. I sell only to governments and the United States uses many of my guns. They now take part in all wars and you have seen the reports of the work they have done in Egypt."

"How far will the Gatling gun send a ball?"

"From two to three miles. The new improvements, which will enable it to be fired into the air, are such that the ball, when it falls to the earth, acquires from the force of gravity such a velocity that when it reaches the ground it will pass through a plank two inches thick. This at a distance of three thousand yards from the place of firing?"

"Will it shoot accurately?"

"Yes. We can aim the gun at a plank nailed to a support several thousand yards away, and by moving the gun rapidly along while firing we can cut a line through the board as though it were sawed. Bullets of different sizes are used in different guns. No two bullets leave the gun at the same time, but when you consider that twelve hundred shots can be fired in a minute you will see how rapidly and regularly it works."

Letter from J. Malcolm Smith, Clerk of Winchester County, New York, for Nine Years.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 7, 1883.

I have for many years been troubled at times with muscular rheumatism and pleuretic pains, and have always found Allcock's Porous Plasters to be quick and efficient in affording relief.

In December last I had an attack of Pneumonia, which left one of my lungs in a weak and extremely sensitive condition, accompanied at times with severe pain. The application of one plaster relieved the pain in a short time, and I have worn one almost constantly since, as a protection to the weakened lung.

I have used Allcock's Porous Plasters for myself and family for over twenty-five years, always with speedy beneficial results, and I do not hesitate to recommend them for their mild counter-irritant qualities, and for their efficiency in relieving soreness of the lungs and pains of a rheumatic and neuralgic character.

J. MALCOLM SMITH.

Be sure to obtain "Allcock's" Porous Plasters, as all others are worthless imitations.

"He looks uneasily at his flanks; won't lie down; stands with his legs wide apart, and straddles as he walks." "Inflammation of the kidneys. Give him the usual dose of Day's Horse and Cattle Powder, and your horse will be well in a few days."

The New Tricycle.

This machine is propelled by steam, and will car y two people twenty miles in an hour, it is said. It is quite an invention but does not compare with Burdock Blood Bitters, which will carry the invalid along the road to health to beat all. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

MACHINERY.

HAVING DISSOLVED PARTNERSHIP and permanently closed the Chestnut Street Iron Works, I desire to inform my old patrons and the public generally that I am still in the business, being located in the Penn Iron Company's Works, North Plum street, where I am making Iron and Brass Castings of every description, and will be pleased to serve all who may favor me with their patronage. From 40 years experience in the business and using the best material and employing the best mechanics, I am satisfied I can guarantee entire satisfaction. Castings made from a mixture of iron and steel which are more reliable for strength and durability than the best cast from known. Y teeth roll pinions, rolls and rolling mill work a specialty. Castings made of very soft iron, and brass castings of every description. I have all the patterns of the well and favorably known Mowrer Corn and Cob Crusher, refitted and improved. Also on hand, mills completely fitted up or in parts, to replace old ones which have been in use for years, guaranteeing them to give satisfaction.
