REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

Grand Sociable of St. Paul's P. E. Church—Gas Condensers in Position—Town Notes.

As predicted, the social event of the season was the sociable given in the armory last evening by St. Paul's P. E. church. A very large number of persons were present, including representatives from most of the churches of town. The programme was an unusually fine one, and consisted of vocal and instrumental music, select readings and tableaux. The tableaux were beautiful, and too much praise cannot be bestowed upon them. The refreshments consisted of coffee, buns and cakes, the tables from which these were eaten being beautifully decorated with flowers. The hall still contained the decorations put up by the Columbia firemen for their fair, and these, with the stage on which the features of the programme were carried out, presented a handsome appearance. The sociable throughout was a grand affair.

Gas Condensers in Position.

The great gas condensers which were recently made at the Perrottet iron works here for the Philadelphia gas company have been placed in position at the gas works and found to operate admirably. Mr. Perrottet returned home from Philadelphia last evening, where he had been for the past week superintending the work of placing the machines in position.

The Painting of the Opera House.

Although the entire opera house sadly requires the liberal use of paint upon it, yet enough is satisfied with having portions of the woodwork repainted, and these places on the walks where the plaster has fallen away retouched with paint only. As the paint is different in shade from that covering the balance of the walls the building will have in consequence something of the appearance of a mottled circus house.

Town Notes.

Mt. Bethel cemetery is reported to be infested with snakes.

One or more surprise parties is held here every night. They seem to be the most popular way of giving parties this season.

A number of the members of Company C from Marietta were in town last evening in full uniform, by order of Captain Case.

The Warm Spring Indian show will return here in June or July, and will exhibit under canvas. It will be composed of 80 Indians and 50 Indian families. Life in the wild West will be fully represented at the performance.

Society Matters.

Olive Branch Lodge No. 1377, G. V. O of O. F.

To-night the following meetings will be held: The Columbia band; Shawnee encampment No. 23, I. O. of O. F.; and Gen. Welsh post, G. A. R.; will hold a much talked of reception to-night, at the post room. The invitation to attend in circles only members of Grand Army posts and their families.

All who desire to see a handsome lodge room should not fail to visit Susquehanna lodge room to-morrow evening. It is located on the fourth floor of Odd Fellows' hall. A cordial invitation is extended by the lodge to the general public.

A Clean and Orderly Place.

Lime Rocks.

Persons who have not lately visited the Midway oil station will be surprised to find that what was formerly a worthless meadow, has been changed to a comparatively beautiful spot.

The surroundings have been filled up with solid material and the place wears a beautiful and cleanly appearance. There is very little of that oily smell, as many might suppose, and of noise—well, it is so quiet that you can almost hear a pin drop in the pump or boiler house. Every part is kept remarkably clean; no dirt, no grease spots, no waste is allowed to accumulate anywhere. Every employe has his duties to perform which one knows his place and can be found at his post.

The pumps work so quiet that we were about to ask whether they were not in operation when their movements were noticed. The tanks which each hold 35,000 barrels, are seldom more than half full, one of them supplying the Philadelphia refinery and the other at Baltimore. The oil as it runs through the pipes, has a dirty, greenish appearance, and does not at all resemble the oil we burn in our lamps. The employes work twelve hours in one stretch, one force working from 12 o'clock at noon until 12 at night, and the other from midnight until 12 at noon. The coal are taken from the shutes to the boiler house in a car, two men being constantly employed in attending to the fires under four huge boilers.

A Death at the Prison.

Henry Pryor, an inmate of the county prison, died this morning. Deceased was about 45 years of age and a resident of this city. For some years past he has been living as a tramp, and of late his health has been very bad, owing to exposure, &c. He was at the hospital at different times, but last week left that institution and came to town. For several days he walked around town with a blacking box, but was so weak that he could scarcely get along. He was arrested while lying on a door step and the mayor sent him to prison for 30 days, where he died. The man presented a frightful appearance, and the prison officials think he should have been sent to the hospital.

The Leiderkranz Flag.

The "flag committee" of the Lancaster Liederkranz met in Mrs. L. Knapp's parlors last evening and organized by electing His Honor, Mayor Rosenmiller, chairman, Walter Reed, secretary, and Mrs. Henry Wolf, treasurer. The parties having subscription books to collect money for the society flag, (a description of which has been given in these columns) reported that about $116 had been collected. As the flag is to cost $300 the collectors were requested to retain their books a week longer, and report to a meeting of the committee to be held at Mrs. Knapp's on Thursday evening next, by which time it is expected the whole amount of the fund will be raised.

Officers of the Western Market.

The Western market company organized yesterday afternoon by electing the following officers for the ensuing year:

President—J. Fred. Sener.

Secretary and Treasurer—W. O. Marshall.

Market Committee—Frank Pfeiffer, John Lorentz and Benj. Gamber.

Janitor—Aaron Witter.

Seven o'clock, a. m., was the time fixed for opening the market for the summer months, commencing on the 13th day of May next.

Exchange of Real Estate.

Mr. A. B. Shaeffer, liquor dealer has exchanged his fine residence No. 25 East Orange street for that of Mr. B. F. Shenk 219 North Duke street, adjoining the Friendship engine house, which Mr. Shaeffer also bought recently. The terms of the exchange made with Mr. Shenk are not given.

"Lights o' London."

The second presentation of this popular melodrama was given at the opera house last evening to a smaller audience than that present on Wednesday evening. All of the enjoyable features previously alluded to were well brought out, each actor in the cast measuring up fairly to the requirements of his role.

Forepaugh's Route of Parade.

Leave show grounds on North Queen street about 10 o'clock, North Queen to Center Square, West King to Prince, to Conestoga, to South Queen, to Center Square, East King to Plum, to Chestnut, to Lime, to Lemon, to Duke, New, to North Queen, to show grounds.

The Street Lamps.

The electric lamp at Ann and Rockland street was reported out all night; at Chestnut and Duke, poor all night; at Duke and Frederick, out from 9 to 11, and East King and Ann out from 2 to 3 o'clock.

Two of the gasoline lamps were reported out.

Mayor's Court.

The mayor committed to the county prison this morning for five days each four drunken and disorderly persons, and discharged two tramps who professed to be in search of work.

Sale of Real Estate.

Samuel M. Myers yesterday purchased a lot of ground on North Duke street, 45 feet front and 245 feet deep, from Newton Lightner, esq., for $1 800. Mr. Myers will erect a residence on the grounds.

Funeral of Rev. Pennypacker.

The funeral of Jesse Pennypacker will take place to-morrow afternoon from the residence of Andrew McGinnis, No. 428 West Lemon street. Posts 84 and 405 of the Grand Army will attend the funeral.

Summer Arrested the Monument.

Mr. Wm. Pyfer, florist, has very nicely arranged, with green sod and fresh plants and handsome flowers, the enclosure within the fence surrounding the monument in Centre square.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION will meet this evening at 7.45 in the parlor of the Y. M. C. A., for the study of the lesson for next Sunday: "Abstinence for the sake of others"—1 Corinthians, viii, 1-13. The Rev. Dr. Shumaker, pastor of St. Paul's Reformed church, is teacher. The meetings are an essential help and advantage to Sunday school teachers.

City Band Fair.

The ladies' fair for the benefit of the City band, will open in Mannerchor hall, a room that is better adapted for that purpose than any in the city, to-morrow night. The object of the fair is for the purpose of purchasing new uniforms and instruments. These well known musicians should be patronized.

Bartholomay Brewing Company's Celebrated Rochester Beer.

The quality of this beer speaks for itself. It is conceded by the best judges and experts to be the Finest and Purest malt beverage brewed in the United States. Patronsare requested to see that they obtain Bartholomay's Rochester; every bottle labelled, and not confound it with other so-called Rochester beer. Mr. Geo. A. Kiehl, of Lancaster is alone authorized to sell our beer at wholesale in Lancaster county, both in kegs and bottles.

BARTHOLOMAY BREWING CO.,

Foreppaugh's Circus.

On Saturday the great Foreppaugh with his world of attractions will exhibit in this city. A novel feature of the show is the band of Jubilee Singers. They form a feature in the parade, and present a sketch of southern life never before seen north of Mason and Dixon's line. The singers are seated upon genuine cotton bales, loaded in an old wagon which is drawn by mules and driven by an old darkey. The mules are attached to a rickety old wagon by a rope harness. The whole furnishes a true picture of one kind of life in the South—the cotton picker's return from the field. The troupe sing plantation melodies in loud tones as the old wagon rolls along the road.

One of the most extraordinary equestrian events of the age are the twenty-two famous reason gifted trained horses and marvelously educated six-hand ponies in Forepaugh's show. It is an exclusive $4,000 feature consisting of fifteen night black and snow white stallions, and the sensational troupe of pigmy performing ponies, all their neighbors.

Twenty-five trained elephants, all appearing simultaneously, are exhibited in Forepaugh's show, and, at the word of command, rear their ponderous bodies into colossal pyramids. The twenty-five trained elephants appear in living pyramids, dances, military evolutions, engage in racing, play on instruments, etc., besides which they display all the human attributes of passion.

In connection with the great specialties and monster menagerie, the most gigantic and combined circus in three rings ever seen in this country is to be found in Forepaugh's show. The mammoth pavilion will accommodate fifteen thousand spectators, and is supplied with luxurious arena chairs. Three great troupes! Different performances in each. One ticket admits to all.

Amusements.

"Princess Ida."—Gilbert and Sullivan's latest comic opera, "Princess Ida," will be produced at the opera house this evening by a first class company of actors and singers, including Miss Mary Beebe, Miss Jennie Reifarth Messrs. W. H. Clark, C. H. Clark and Phil. Branson. It was the fashionable attraction of an entire season in London, was a success in New York and Philadelphia, and has many of the taking qualities in music and characters of "Patience." The costumes and scenes are new, elegant and picturesque.

Lost Faith in Physicians.

There are innumerable instances where cures have been effected by SCOVILL'S SARSAPARILLA, OR BLOOD & LIVER SYRUP, for all diseases of the blood, when the patient had been given up by physicians. It is one of the best remedies ever offered to the public and as it is prepared with the greatest care, as a specific for certain diseases, it is no wonder that it should be more effectual than hastily written and carelessly prepared prescriptions. Take SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP for all disorders arising from impure blood. It is endorsed by all leading professional men.

How to Secure Health.

It seems strange that any one will suffer from the many derangements brought on by an impure condition of the blood, when SCOVILL'S SARSAPARILLA AND STILLINGIA, OR BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP will restore perfect health to the physical organization. It is indeed a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and has proven itself to be the best BLOOD PURIFIER ever discovered, effectually curing Scrofula, Syphilitic disorders, Weakness of the Kidneys, Erysipelas, Malaria; all nervous disorders and debility, bilious complaints and all diseases indicating an impure condition of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, Skin, etc. It corrects indigestion. A single bottle will prove to you its merits as a health renewer, for it ACTS LIKE A CHARM, especially when the complaint is of an exhaustive nature, having a tendency to lessen the natural vigor of the brain and nervous system.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laugh at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise a gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold by H. B. Cochran, 137 North Queen street

A Mob Menaces and Attacks a Jail in Kentucky—A Brutal Negro Lynched—Other Chronicles of Crime.

MOUNT STERLING, Ky., April 25.—Yesterday morning between 40 and 50 men went to the residence of the jailer and demanded admittance, the leader stating that he was the sheriff of Breathett county, Ark. A prisoner in the jail was on the point of admitting them when he discovered the party to be a mob intent on hanging a prisoner named William Osborn, sentenced for five years, for killing Henry Thomas. The leader of the mob told the jailer that unless he surrendered the keys the mob would batter down the doors. This was done, but the jailor and his two sons, who were in the second story, were armed and defied the mob to ascend the stairs. After searching the lower part of the house for the keys of the jail the mob left.

MISHAPS OF A BRIDAL PARTY.

The Groom Forgot the Ring and the Best Man was Arrested for Stealing.

A young couple stood before Mayor Edson, in New York city. The mayor was about to marry them, when the bridegroom suddenly recollected that he had not procured the wedding ring. The ceremony was suspended, and the groom and his brother left the city hall to buy a ring. They went to Wm. Hallisy's jewelry store. While looking over the rings Hallisy suddenly remarked to the groom's brother:

"Put back that ring you've just slipped up your sleeve."

Policeman Levy was called in, and took both men to the Tombs. A messenger informed the bride of the arrest, and she also went to the Tombs.

The prisoner said he was Edward Kane, teacher of dancing. The groom, his brother, was Edwin Kane, his assistant. He denied that he had taken the ring.

"I saw him give the ring a twist," said Hallisy, "and up his sleeve it went."

Policeman Levy said he searched the prisoner in Hallsy's store, but found no ring.

Justice Duffy dismissed the complaint. It was then too late to find the mayor at his office, and the cermony was postponed.
