Lime street and Cherry alley.
The committee will meet on Thursday afternoon at 1:20 o'clock, at the office of Alderman Barr, for the purpose of inspect ing the several streets for the repair of which petitions were presented at the last meeting of councils.

BASE BALL.

Another Philadelphia Clab Downed. Another Philadelphia club came to grief here yesterday. The Actives of Manayunk, who played excellent games with the Eastern league and association clubs last season, tried their luck with the Ironsides and were badly left. The home club presented Williams and Derby as the battery, and the visitors could not hit the former but for a half dozen singles. The Ironsides did not have their strongest batting team, as Oldfield and Goodman were off duty, but their tremendous bacting was the feature of the game. They struck for over thirty singles. Higgings made a home run on a hot ball to the left field fence, and several others had two and three baggers. The fielding of the boys from Manayunk was poor. The score by innings was :

Philadelphia: Philadelphia 12, Buffalo 1; Baltimore 13, Athletic 3; New York: Cleveland 0, New York 4; Providence: Chicago 5, Providence 0; Boston: Boston 7, Detroit 0; Pittsburg: Allegheny 9, Brooklyn 6; Washington: Washington 4, Metropolitan 3; Altoona: Boston Union 10, Altoona Union 3; Baltimore: Monumental 1 Virginia 9; Allentown: Allentown 1, Trenton 4; Wilmington Wilmington 10, Harriburg 3; Brading: Wilmington 10, Harrisburg 3; Reading Domestic 9, Active 4; Cambridge, Mass. KROCKED DOWN

Anction Sale of the Empire Reiles. Henry Shubert, auctioneer, sold at the Empire Hook and Ladder hall, last evening a number of horns, pictures, flags and other property belonging to the old vol-unteer company. The beautiful gold and silver trophy, won by the Empire company in the parade, was bought by Alderman Fordney. It consists of a full size fire bend of the horseshoe are two or three sections of silver hose and on either side of it a silver fire hook and torch. The silver shield on which is engraved "Readsing tournament—precented by the FI:e men's Journal." Below this is fasteged a fireman's hat made of gold. The trophy is very pretty and Alderman Fordney was a chance of recovery. She was shot, they are much the same as the late President as much that

The large and beautiful frame of photo graphs presented to the company by the Impire hook and ladder company of Altoona, was not sold, but will be returned to the company that presented it. A few other articles belonging to the company are yet to be disposed of.

A Good Drill by the Reynolds Rifles. The Reynolds Rifles gave a fine exhibition drill last evening, executing with much dexterity a number of difficult manceuvres. They were under the com-mand of First Sergeant Michael F. Bowers, who has had considerable experience in military duties. Mr. Bowers entered the in great agony. This druggist was held regular army as a private in October, 1878, for murder. regular army as a private in October, 1878, was stationed at David's Island, N. Y., and in a few months was promoted to the post of drill sergeant of his company. This latter position he filled until December, 1880, when he was transferred to the 20th regiment, doing duty on the frontier. From that time until March 15, 1882, he held the position of drill instructor, acting sergeant major and acting provost ser-geant. Shortly afterwards Mr. Bowers was appointed first sergeant of the company. He is well versed in the manual of arms, and will doubtless bring the Reynolds Rifles in their drilling to a high

MR. JUHNSTON'S WILL. His Property to Go to a Home for Invalid

The will of Mr. Henry E. Johnston, of the late banking house of Johnston Brothers & Co., who died in New York on Monday, May 5, 1884, was filed for pro-bate yesterday in the orphans' court. The will is dated Baltimore, December 26, 1883. Mr. Johnston makes life bequests to his brothers and sisters of about $10,000 ceach all in twest to his brother Josiah L. to his brothers and sisters of about $19,000 cach, all in trust to his brother Josiah L. Johnston and Judge Wm. A. Fisher. He then devises the residue of his estate to Josiah L. Johnston, Judge Fisher and W. Graham Bowdoin, of the banking house of Alexander Brown & Sons, in trust for Mrs. Harriet Lane Johnston, widow of the deceased the whole income to be said to deceased, the whole income to be paid to her during her life, and after death in trust for the use of the Harriet Lane Home for Invalid children of Baltimore City, the certificate of incorporation of which was recorded December 24, 1883 The will also contains a clause to the effect that Mr. Johnston's wife, Harriet Lane Johnston, being possessed of considerable separate estate, chiefly property devised to her by her late uncle, James Buchanan, formerly president of the United States, he renounces all marital rights and declares the same to be her absolute property. He confirms a deed of his residence on Park avenue in trust for her, and " in farther recognition of the good sense and dignity of character which she has ex-hibited in every relation of her life, and of her very great goodness and loving kind noss as wife and mother," he gives her all the furniture, statuary, paintings, plate and other articles in the house, and also the horses, carriages and stable implements. In making the provisions in relation to his estate, and especially as to the residuum thereof, Mr. Johnston says he refers entirely to the estate which shall not have been derived from his wife. If he should survive his wife and acquire any

CHARLES O'CONOR.

DEATH OF THE FAMOUS LAWYER-Peaceful End of a Great Man and a Light of the American Bar-A Sketch of

His Career. NANTUCKET, Mass., May 13.—Charles O'Conor, the distinguished lawyer died here. He expired at 3:25 yesterday afternoon. His mind was clear and sound to the last. Three minutes before dissolution he opened his eyes, put his hand to the doctor and then in a clear, strong voice exclaimed, "My God!" and expired without a struggle.

Hisfuneral will take place at St. Patrick's cathedral, New York.

A Sketch of His Life, [The illness which has proved fatal to the great lawyer was the result of a cold contracted three weeks ago, which until early last week was not considered of much serious importance. The doctors termed his sickness a reflex of the stomach and for some days his sight has been gone. In November, 1875, he was attacked by a cold and contracted a very severe illness, and his death was looked for as certain. At that time he was so entirely paralyzed by atrophy of the stomach as to be incapable of taking nourishment of any kind, and on the 27th of November, at his own request, the last rites of the Roman Catholic church were TRY CLARK'S SELECTED TEAS AND Coffees and you will be gratified. Mr. O'Conor was descended from an old and distinguished family, living for generations in the province of Ireland-the direct descendants of those kings of Connaught who were the last Milesian monarchs of Ireland. The O'Conor Dov, lately a member of the British Parliament for the county of Roscommon, is the present nearest representative of the family. Charles O'Concor's father came from Ireland in 1801, and Charles was born in New York city in January, 1804. At the age of twelve O'Conor entered upon his legal studies. Mr. O'Conor never had much to do with practical politics. He was a Democrat all his life. In his early days he twice ran for assistant alder man of the Sixth ward, New York, but was defeated both times. In the hard and soft shell times he was placed on the hard ticket as a candidate for lieutenant governor and defeated. At the time of the United States bank he took the part of the conservatives and opposed the extreme views of the Democ racy in relation to our finances, and sided with Senator Rives, of Virginia, and Sanator Tallmadge, of Now York, the leaders then of the conservative party. In 1850, when Webster and Clay and Cass united for the peace of the coun-try, he then became an advocate of their pacificatory measures His stand in the last war is well known. He was opposed to the war and took extreme onstitutional views. He was firm through out—in his published letters and specones and in his becoming one of the bondsmen of Jeff Davis and in his voluntary proffer Phonics Passoneer. of his professional services in his behalf The candidacy of Mr. O'Couor for president in 1872 hardly made a ripple in his professional or his social life. At the convention of workingmen in New York that year he was chosen as its candidate. Mr. O'Conor declined to be the candidate, but, notwithstanding that, he received 21,559 votes throughout the country. Mr. O'Conor died in his splendil mansion over-looking the sea at Nantucket, Mass.— EDS. INTELLIGENCER]

IN CONGRESS.

Bohemian Glassware, The Senate Passes a Bill to Place Grant on the Retired List, Washington, May 13 .- In the Senate a number of petitions were presented op

Tea, Dinner & Toilet Sets. Mr. Logan, from the committee on military affairs, reported favorably a bill er Examine Our stock before purchasing. to place General Grant on the retired list. Unanimous consent was asked and given to put it at once upon its passage, and High & Martin, it was at once read a third time and passed without debate or remark. The bill provides that "in recognition of distinguished services rendered to the United States, General U. S. Grant, late general of the army, be placed on the retired list, with rank and full pay of general of the army."

In announcing his pair with Senator
Morrill to day, Mr. Cockrell said the distinguished senator from Vermont was absent for the first time during twentynine years of service in Congress.

FIRE AT WHALKO'S

Philip Schum, Son & Co's The Famous Matter at Washington Makes Washington, May 13 -Shortly after ten o'clock this morning fire broke out 1a the upper part of one of the rear build ngs of Willard's hotel.

At noon the fire was extinguished with out doing much damage to the hotel. The smoke was at first very dense and there were several narrow escapes from suffocation. Some of the people were taken from upper windows by ladders. The loss will not exceed $15,000.

Fall of a Tunnel.

SOMERSET, Pa., May 13 .- Intelligence is received here that a large part of the roof of the eastern end of the South Pennsylvania tunnel under the Allegheny mountains at Dexter's Gap, caved in on Saturday afternoon, instantly killing two men and badly injuring three others. The tunnel was being pushed with great vigor when it struck a quicksand, and before any precaution could be taken the roof came down with a crash. Superintendent White had just gone into the tunnel and was so brdly crushed that there is little hope of his recovery

Irish Affairs.

LONDON, May 13 .- James Stephens has issued a circular to the Irish Nationalists in America, stating that he has consented to again place himself at their head, " be cause the movement has arrived when a union of all Irishmen is possible." As soon as he receives answers from America the new conference of Irish leaders will meet in Paris. Stephens declares that Ireland shall be an independent republic before he dies.
