FUN AND FANCY. THE JUCKNALIST'S WIT AND HUMOR.

Some Wayside Gleanings Which Illustrate the Spirit of the Times-A Bundle of Anecdotes.

Louise Michel, in jail, is writing children's stories. If more of the people who write children's stories were in jail it would be better for the children. A coaching friend informs the Boston Transcript that aces are the most popular

The following is a literal transcript of a sign on a Pennsylvania village store: "Tea and Taters, Sugar and Shingles, Brickdust and Lasses, Whiskey, Tar and other Drugs."

The wife of the proprietor of the Haddan house, at Atlantic city, has a room specially built and furnished for her pet dogs. They all have little beds, and there is a swinging spring door opening on a little play yard, through which they can come or go at will.

A Caledonian who claimed that the best poets were Scotch, giving Shakspeare as a specimen, replied to an objecter's doubt whether Shakspeare was a Scotchman, that "his abeelity would warrant the supposection!" A wag the other day denied that John Bunyan was the author of "Pilgrim's Progress," for it is impossible that a bun ion could contribute to any pilgrim's pro-An Arizona Episode : Two drinks. Two

"Ah!" remarked the old lady, "they don't care now that they have our money. See all sing together so that they may get through scener."
"Mamma," said a little boy, "this paper says that the latest styles of slippers are trimmed with swan's down." "Yes, dear," replied mamma, "and what of it?"

"Oh, nothing," said the little boy, "only if you want to be in style you had better get a pair. There ain't any swan's down on your old ones."

TRUE MERIT ALONE

est sale of any external remedy in the world. If you have been using other kinds of plasters one trial of "Ailcock's" will convince you of their wonderful superiority.

65 BROADWAY, ROOM 52. NEW YORK, March 2, 1883. Having been cured of a severe attack of rheumatism of the neck and shoulders by using Alleock's Porous Plasters, I feel it my duty to strongly commend their use to any similarly afflicted. For a period of several months t had exhausted many other so called remedies without obtaining the slightest relief. Finally I applied one of Allcock's Porous Plasters, and found myself almost immediately cured.

I consider them a true blessing. Fatthrully yours, JAMES R. HOSMER.

A Baptist Minister's Experience.

"I am a Baptist Minister, and before I ever thought of being a clergyman, I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present profession, 40 years ago. I was formany years a sufferer from quinsy: "Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me." I was also troubled with hourseness, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil always relieved me. My wife and child had diphtheria, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured them," and it taken in time it will cure seven out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold or cough, and if any one will take a small teaspoon and half fill it with the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon into the head by sniffling as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice that twice a week, I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarrh. For deatness and earache it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever feit like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it in my house for any constderation. I am now suffering with a pain like rheumatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves me like Thomas' Eclectric Oil."

CARPET CLEANING WORKS OUR PLAN FOR BEATING CARPETS BEING NEW TO MANY.

The system of beating CARPETS by steam, although carried on for years in the larger cities, is new to many of our citizens here, and some have an idea that we cannot do work as well as by the old plan of beating by hand. We will make this offer to convince those who are in doubt, viz—Have your carpets beaten by hand, let the man do his best work on it; after he is through bring it to us and if we do not take enough dirt out of it afterward, as well as brightening the colors, to satisfy you that ours is the best plan, we will make no charge. Our machine is open to the inspection of our customers at any 'me. Give us a trial. Remember, Carpets sent home on promised time, without regard to the weather.
