

Lancaster Intelligencer.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 21, 1884.

Had Blood Breaking Out.

There is a noisome scandal in England because a noble lord is indicted for indecent assault upon a household within gates where he was a guest. It is predicted that if his demand be tried by his peers it will be held against him...

His royal mother once had the respect and sympathy of all Christendom in her old days; but her conduct for some years has been highly indiscreet and silly, to say the least of it...

It was the same pungent satirist who told his countryman of a royal George who was "in youth, manhood and old age, gross, low and sensual..."

Homes for Friendless Children. The recently enacted statute requiring young children in county almshouses to be removed to and provided for in separate homes is making some stir in various counties of the state...

Bismarck hates Jews and the United States with like fervor. BEN. BUTLER has a facility for sleeping on railroad trains and is a terrific snorer.

James W. Sherman wrote an obituary for a lady who was a party to the Tribune eight years ago. It was only published the other day, but Sherman had long since gone to glory.

Rev. Dr. Gladden, after an investigation upon this work of caring for their friendless children may find a great many valuable hints in the time-approved Lancaster home...

The young and frisky editor of the New Era pounces down upon "the venerable editor of the Doylesdale Democrat," because he asked: "Is there any reason why a farmer should not grow tobacco with little restraint as corn or potatoes?"

IN SESSION.

A brief flurry was caused in the Methodist conference Tuesday morning by the report of the committee on temperance, recommending constitutional prohibition and the formation of juvenile temperance societies and denouncing social drinking.

The election of editors of the Methodist organs was continued, with the following results: Western Christian Advocate, of Cincinnati, Rev. J. B. Bayless, in place of Rev. E. S. Hoyt...

The presence of the Siamese embassy on the platform of the Arthur meeting in New York, indicates that the land of the white elephant is solid "fir" in it.

The Arthur literary bureau, no doubt, is disseminating the useful information that Attorney General Brewster has the finest collection of blue China in the country.

TO-DAY England is holding a semi-millennial celebration of the work of John Wycliffe, who has been called "the Morning Star of the Reformation."

Few murder trials in the country have attracted more attention than that of Orrin A. Carpenter, of Lincoln, Ill., who was acquitted of the murder of Zora Barus, a domestic in his employ.

PERSONAL. Bismarck hates Jews and the United States with like fervor. BEN. BUTLER has a facility for sleeping on railroad trains and is a terrific snorer.

James W. Sherman wrote an obituary for a lady who was a party to the Tribune eight years ago. It was only published the other day, but Sherman had long since gone to glory.

Rev. Dr. Gladden, after an investigation upon this work of caring for their friendless children may find a great many valuable hints in the time-approved Lancaster home...

The young and frisky editor of the New Era pounces down upon "the venerable editor of the Doylesdale Democrat," because he asked: "Is there any reason why a farmer should not grow tobacco with little restraint as corn or potatoes?"

At the meeting of the school board, Reading on Wednesday night, Mr. Joseph T. Valentine was elected city superintendent of public schools for one year, vice Prof. Samuel A. Baer...

RELIGIOUS AND OTHER CONFERENCES.

The Methodist, Presbyterians, Lutherans and Episcopalians—An Anti-Liquor Report Adopted. A brief flurry was caused in the Methodist conference Tuesday morning...

The election of editors of the Methodist organs was continued, with the following results: Western Christian Advocate, of Cincinnati, Rev. J. B. Bayless, in place of Rev. E. S. Hoyt...

The presence of the Siamese embassy on the platform of the Arthur meeting in New York, indicates that the land of the white elephant is solid "fir" in it.

The Arthur literary bureau, no doubt, is disseminating the useful information that Attorney General Brewster has the finest collection of blue China in the country.

TO-DAY England is holding a semi-millennial celebration of the work of John Wycliffe, who has been called "the Morning Star of the Reformation."

Few murder trials in the country have attracted more attention than that of Orrin A. Carpenter, of Lincoln, Ill., who was acquitted of the murder of Zora Barus, a domestic in his employ.

PERSONAL. Bismarck hates Jews and the United States with like fervor. BEN. BUTLER has a facility for sleeping on railroad trains and is a terrific snorer.

James W. Sherman wrote an obituary for a lady who was a party to the Tribune eight years ago. It was only published the other day, but Sherman had long since gone to glory.

Rev. Dr. Gladden, after an investigation upon this work of caring for their friendless children may find a great many valuable hints in the time-approved Lancaster home...

The young and frisky editor of the New Era pounces down upon "the venerable editor of the Doylesdale Democrat," because he asked: "Is there any reason why a farmer should not grow tobacco with little restraint as corn or potatoes?"

At the meeting of the school board, Reading on Wednesday night, Mr. Joseph T. Valentine was elected city superintendent of public schools for one year, vice Prof. Samuel A. Baer...

HERE AND THERE.

A progressive young man, who wears out a good deal of shoe leather, had the book of stock subscriptions to the crematorium stuck under his nose. "Do I want to be burned?" No. I have stock in both base ball clubs; try that and you'll get burned enough.

The "federal directors' associations," which is the name of a combination of undertakers, will soon hold a conference in Pittsburgh. Their discussions will be directed to the main thing, the best modes of embalming and preserving the corpse. If they recognized the inevitable they would know that the popular demand now is to have most quickly disposed of it.

The INTELLIGENCER printed a romantic story the other day that Gen. Hood, of the Confederate army, got his promotion through the influence of the ambitious wife of Gen. Lee. The story is entirely untrue. Hood's military discomfiture in the Southwest, "Snubbed" hears that it was a Miss Preston, of the famous South Carolina family of beautiful sisters, to whom Hood was betrothed.

A sketch of Blaine's life and public services, and a compilation of his speeches, are published by I. S. Clark, an experienced historian, and Representative John H. Landis, an industrious compiler and ardent admirer of Blaine. As Mr. Blaine's own big book omits mention of him, it is fair to say that this work is a labor of love, and not a mere compilation.

I am satisfied that the scare about the peaches being winter killed and the apple blossoms being drowned out was premature. The weather has been so good since the 15th of the month that the fruit is doing well.

Next Congressman Hinesland, Sam Matt Friday, Senator Stehman, Delegates Lew Hartman and Reinhold and a lot of other congenial Lancaster county Republicans propose to travel in a special car to Chicago.

As two young men whisked up North Queen street one said: "He's a loading and she's a working." I did not know their names, but I am sure they were not in the least bit of a hurry.

There are fully 40,000 cattle fed every year in this county, "said a prominent stock dealer." They are brought here from the west, fattened and mostly sold for the New York and Philadelphia markets.

Thaddeus Stevens' house, of which the parlor was recently used for a cigar store and the law office for a barber shop, is now devoted to the entire first floor to the use of a store for farm implements.

It was Judge Black who savagely exclaimed that the fall of Adam was such calamity had happened to the human race. Their narrow intolerance was the dirty stripe, he used to say, that ran through the whole web and woof of our history.

BRISTOW HITS BACK.

Cooper Institute Crowded With Friends of the President—Brewster and Bristol Arrive. The mass meeting of citizens and business men of New York to express approval of the administration of President Arthur was held in the Cooper Institute last night.

The mass meeting of citizens and business men of New York to express approval of the administration of President Arthur was held in the Cooper Institute last night. The Cooper Institute was crowded with friends of the President.

Bristol commended the wisdom and prudence of Mr. Arthur's administration and then made the following reference to the letter of Mr. MacVeagh: "I must decline my invitation to go into the slums of personal defamations."

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the select and common councils of the city of Lancaster in council assembled: That between the first day of April and the first day of October in each year, it shall not be lawful for any person to sell or expose for sale any kind of fresh fish...

SECTION 2. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for each and every offense, which sum shall be recovered as like penalties are now recoverable upon suits brought before the mayor or any of the aldermen of the city of Lancaster.

SECTION 3. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for each and every offense, which sum shall be recovered as like penalties are now recoverable upon suits brought before the mayor or any of the aldermen of the city of Lancaster.

SECTION 4. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for each and every offense, which sum shall be recovered as like penalties are now recoverable upon suits brought before the mayor or any of the aldermen of the city of Lancaster.

SECTION 5. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for each and every offense, which sum shall be recovered as like penalties are now recoverable upon suits brought before the mayor or any of the aldermen of the city of Lancaster.

SECTION 6. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for each and every offense, which sum shall be recovered as like penalties are now recoverable upon suits brought before the mayor or any of the aldermen of the city of Lancaster.

SECTION 7. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for each and every offense, which sum shall be recovered as like penalties are now recoverable upon suits brought before the mayor or any of the aldermen of the city of Lancaster.

A TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLAR FIRE.

Warehouse and Three Hundred and FIFTY Cases of Tobacco Burned—An Account of the Fire. This morning between 1 and 2 o'clock the large frame tobacco warehouse owned by John Harman, situated on the corner of the city street and the railroad, at Harris' station was totally destroyed by fire.

This morning between 1 and 2 o'clock the large frame tobacco warehouse owned by John Harman, situated on the corner of the city street and the railroad, at Harris' station was totally destroyed by fire. The fire was first discovered in the building near the rear of the building.

This morning between 1 and 2 o'clock the large frame tobacco warehouse owned by John Harman, situated on the corner of the city street and the railroad, at Harris' station was totally destroyed by fire. The fire was first discovered in the building near the rear of the building.

This morning between 1 and 2 o'clock the large frame tobacco warehouse owned by John Harman, situated on the corner of the city street and the railroad, at Harris' station was totally destroyed by fire. The fire was first discovered in the building near the rear of the building.

This morning between 1 and 2 o'clock the large frame tobacco warehouse owned by John Harman, situated on the corner of the city street and the railroad, at Harris' station was totally destroyed by fire. The fire was first discovered in the building near the rear of the building.

This morning between 1 and 2 o'clock the large frame tobacco warehouse owned by John Harman, situated on the corner of the city street and the railroad, at Harris' station was totally destroyed by fire. The fire was first discovered in the building near the rear of the building.

This morning between 1 and 2 o'clock the large frame tobacco warehouse owned by John Harman, situated on the corner of the city street and the railroad, at Harris' station was totally destroyed by fire. The fire was first discovered in the building near the rear of the building.

This morning between 1 and 2 o'clock the large frame tobacco warehouse owned by John Harman, situated on the corner of the city street and the railroad, at Harris' station was totally destroyed by fire. The fire was first discovered in the building near the rear of the building.

This morning between 1 and 2 o'clock the large frame tobacco warehouse owned by John Harman, situated on the corner of the city street and the railroad, at Harris' station was totally destroyed by fire. The fire was first discovered in the building near the rear of the building.

This morning between 1 and 2 o'clock the large frame tobacco warehouse owned by John Harman, situated on the corner of the city street and the railroad, at Harris' station was totally destroyed by fire. The fire was first discovered in the building near the rear of the building.

BASE BALL NEWS.

The Ironsides Go to Richmond, to Fill the Dates of the District of the Local Games Yesterday. A dispatch in the morning papers from Baltimore states that the Monumental club of that city disbanded yesterday.

The Ironsides Go to Richmond, to Fill the Dates of the District of the Local Games Yesterday. A dispatch in the morning papers from Baltimore states that the Monumental club of that city disbanded yesterday.

The Ironsides Go to Richmond, to Fill the Dates of the District of the Local Games Yesterday. A dispatch in the morning papers from Baltimore states that the Monumental club of that city disbanded yesterday.

The Ironsides Go to Richmond, to Fill the Dates of the District of the Local Games Yesterday. A dispatch in the morning papers from Baltimore states that the Monumental club of that city disbanded yesterday.

The Ironsides Go to Richmond, to Fill the Dates of the District of the Local Games Yesterday. A dispatch in the morning papers from Baltimore states that the Monumental club of that city disbanded yesterday.

The Ironsides Go to Richmond, to Fill the Dates of the District of the Local Games Yesterday. A dispatch in the morning papers from Baltimore states that the Monumental club of that city disbanded yesterday.

The Ironsides Go to Richmond, to Fill the Dates of the District of the Local Games Yesterday. A dispatch in the morning papers from Baltimore states that the Monumental club of that city disbanded yesterday.

The Ironsides Go to Richmond, to Fill the Dates of the District of the Local Games Yesterday. A dispatch in the morning papers from Baltimore states that the Monumental club of that city disbanded yesterday.

The Ironsides Go to Richmond, to Fill the Dates of the District of the Local Games Yesterday. A dispatch in the morning papers from Baltimore states that the Monumental club of that city disbanded yesterday.

The Ironsides Go to Richmond, to Fill the Dates of the District of the Local Games Yesterday. A dispatch in the morning papers from Baltimore states that the Monumental club of that city disbanded yesterday.