

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. The Regular Borough Budget—Several Accidents that might have been serious.

On June 1, Black's hotel will change its name to the Tremont house. Some racial has broken six of the rear seats lately placed in the park.

Mr. W. H. Hardman on Saturday evening drew the third watch drawn in Yerey's gold watch club.

The intense heat caused the closing of the Chickies rolling mill on Friday and Saturday last.

To day one week hence the Shawnee women will hold their dancing picnic in Hesse's woods.

Daniel Roads was arrested on Saturday for disorderly conduct. He was placed in the lockup until Sunday evening, when he was released on bail by Squire Evans.

In the Church World. Next Wednesday evening, after the usual prayer meeting, the teachers of the Presbyterian Sunday school will hold a business meeting.

The opera house was filled by an immense audience last evening, which had assembled to participate in the union memorial services. The music on the occasion was most excellent.

Yesterday Father Peiper, of the Trinity Catholic home, presented the officers of St. Joseph's benevolent society eight beautiful regalia, all of which are made of silk velvet, worked with gold thread and lace.

The Vigil of Newtown, gave the Columbia Base ball club, of this place, a bad defeat on Saturday afternoon. The score being 23 to 7. The defeat is partly attributable to the intoxicated condition of the important players of the home club.

On Wednesday afternoon another match will be played between the Columbia and the Leitz, on the grounds just north of the Shawnee ball field.

Two east bound freight trains of the P. R. R. were wrecked this morning at 4 o'clock at Marietta, by the axle of a car breaking. The south track was blocked several hours.

When about starting on a boat excursion on Saturday evening, Mr. Charles Enos was treated to a dip in the river by his boat expiring. This unpleasant accident occurred at 10 o'clock, and the boat was taken to Marietta to bring home the wagon.

A driver named Wm. Stone, of Lewisville, Ky., was thrown from the top of a Pennsylvania railroad freight car in this place, yesterday afternoon. He struck the bumper of the car and then fell to the track. The engineer witnessed the fall and put on the air brakes of the engine.

Personal and social. Mr. Will Pierce, of New York, is spending his summer vacation at his old home here.

To-morrow evening Orion lodge of Odd Fellows will hold an anniversary banquet and entertainment.

Mr. Lewis Park, wife of the proprietor of the D-pot hotel, died on Sunday morning from erysipelas, aged 38 years.

Funeral notices. The funeral will be held at her late residence on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Bella K. Schaffer, of Marietta, daughter of Mr. C. A. Schaffer, lumber merchant, to the Rev. John McEvinney, of Philadelphia. The ceremony will take place on Thursday evening, June 5th.

THE BOHEMIAN SYNOD. Saturday Afternoon and Monday Morning Services—Ordaining and Installing Presbyters.

Saturday Afternoon.—Reports of the committees on foreign missions, publications, home missions, finance, church government and Bohemian missions were received. The consideration of the report of the committee on finance was resumed.

On Saturday evening the synodical missionary meeting and love feast were presided over by Rev. J. E. Bohman, and addresses were delivered by Rev. L. M. Metcalf, of Hopedale, Penn.; Wm. Vogeler, of New Dorp, Staten Island; Morris Leibert, of New York, and Mortimer Levinger, of Bethlehem, Pa.

Sunday morning. Ordination services were held in the church, when Deacons Wilson Cope, George P. Bahson and Frank Wolf, of Wisconsin; William Strohmeyer, of Dakota; A. Gerdes, of Iowa, and Henry V. Rominger, of Kansas, were ordained presbyters. Bishop Vanhook preaching the sermon, and Reinke addressing the newly ordained presbyters.

In the evening communion services were held, Bishop Dr. Schweitzer officiating.

A REMARKABLE FAMILY.

The longevity of the Lanocock Millers. On Saturday the funeral of Abner Miller, an old citizen of Lanocock township, took place. Mr. Miller was the last member of a family of 12 children, the ages of whom at the time of their deaths were as follows:

Abner, 75 years, 8 months, 3 days; Joseph, 92 years, 4 months 18 days; Martin, 73 years, 2 months, 25 days; Cyrus, 53 years, 7 months; John, 69 years, 7 months, 12 days; Louis, 71 years; Ann, 73 years, 19 days; Charlotte, 77 years, 5 months, 26 days; Polly, 84 years, 3 months, 21 days; Rebecca, 75 years, 3 months, 4 days; Hetty, 88 years, 3 months, 10 days; Leah, 86 years, 6 months, 8 days.

The combined ages of the family is 927 years within one day, or an average of 77 1/2 for each. The whole family lived and died on the farm on which their great grandfather settled in 1727. The only children of Abner Miller living, are George H. Miller, of this city, and his sister Christiana, who still resides on the old homestead.

NORMAL NOTES. The health of the school was better than it is now. Not a case of serious sickness in it.

Rev. E. W. Gaylord, of the Paradise Presbyterian church, preached on Sunday on the text, "The Kingdom of God is within you." The school closed, to a large audience, on Friday evening, 30th inst. The Page literary society will hold its anniversary exercises.

A little girl, Annie Stites, a few days ago Aggie Coonin, a six year old daughter of John Coonin, Jr., 28 North Water street, was badly bitten by a bull terrier dog with whom she was playing. The dog seized her by the head, lacerated the scalp for more than two inches in length, and inflicted several other severe wounds.

Dr. Foreman was called in and dressed the wounds, and the child is doing pretty well. [By Dr. Foreman's advice the dog was kept penned up until it died, when no symptoms of hydrophobia having developed, it was killed.]

Two children—a young man and woman named about a year ago were having a jolly time on Saturday night at a home on West Lemon street, near North Queen. Mrs. Martha Miller, a neighbor, appealed to them to make less noise, and as they paid no heed to her appeal, she made complaint against them, and four of the young men were arrested by Officer Miles and locked up. They were released on payment of bonds.

Officer East-end by Toxives. Last night the ves broke open the office of Ezra F. Landis, at his machine shop, in Cherry alley. They easily opened the safe, as it was not locked with the combination. The drawers in the safe were prying open with a chisel, and although there was a little money in one of them, it was not taken. Postage stamps to the amount of $8 and a lot of cigars were taken from the office.

World Not Stand the Pressure. Jacob Halbach, water superintendent, went over to Reading today to test the "Y" east at Mellert's foundry for the Lancaster water works. The other two had burst at high pressure and a dispatch from Mr. Halbach says the one tested today also burst at 169 pounds pressure.

Buffalo Bill's show. The gang of bill posters belonging to Buffalo Bill's Wild West show, which exhibits in the Park on 9th and 10th streets, arrived in this city today. This morning they started for the country in four teams and are advertising like a circus.

Two Germans arrested while stealing their way west on the cars of the Pennsylvania. The consideration of the report of the committee on finance was resumed. Synod adjourned at 3:30, to meet on Monday morning.

Attending the Greenback Convention. Robert J. Houston, Greenbacker, of this city, left for Reading today to attend the National convention of the Greenback party.

Deaths. STAFFORD.—In this city, on the 21st inst., Mrs. MARY STAFFORD, aged 42 years and 2 days.
