It was Mr. Bryant's 'Ode to a Waterfowl.'" Whither, midst falling dew, While glow the heavens with the last steps Far, through their rosy depths, dost thou

Thy solitary way ! Vainly the towler's eye Might mark thy distant night to do thee wrong.

As, darkly painted on the crimson sky, Thy figure floats along. Seek'st thou the plashing brink Of weedy lake, or marge of river wide, Or where the rocking billows rise and sink On the chated ocean side?

There is a Power whose care Teaches thy way along that pathless coast, The desert and tillmitable atr,-Lone wandering, but not lost.

All day thy wings have fanned, At that far height, the cold, thin atmosphere Yet stoop not, weary, to the welcome land, Though the dark night is near.

And soon that toll shall end; Soon shalt thou find a Summer home, and rest. And scream among thy fellows; reeds shall bend Soon o'er thy sheltered nest, Thou'rt gone, the abyss of heaven Hath swallowed up thy form ; yet, on my neart. Deeply hath sunk the lesson thou hast given.

And shalt not soon depart : He who, from zone to zone. Guides through the boundless sky thy certain flight, In the long way that I must tread alone, Will lead my steps aright.

- William Cull en Bryant. ---Ex-Speaker James W. Hustee, of the New York Legislature.

I have found them very quick to cure and absolutely painless. In bruises no external remedies can be more effective." "Alleock's" is the only genuine Porous Plaster; buy no other and you will not be
