DECORATION DAY.

BY GEORGE W. BUNGAY.

Above the dear, brave hearts that cease to beat
Let loving hands straw flowers on every mound
Within the lines of the still camping ground,
Where there is no assault and no retreat,
And victory is not followed by defeat.
Unbroken rest and peace at last are found
No clash of swords, no trumpet's thrilling sound
Nor roar of guns disturb their slumbers sweet.
Their deeds are writ on mem'ry's sacred scroll;
And patriot love shall touch these hearts of ours,
When, at their graves, fame comes to call the roll,
And hope and love and honor scatter flowers.
Brave souls survive the storms of shot and flame;
Their furlough blossoms in eternal fame.
—N. Y. Independent.

Memorial Day.

It is eminently fit and proper that one day in the year should be set apart and consecrated to the sacred work of commemorating the noble deeds of those who at duty's call offered their lives that liberty might survive, for

"The patriot's blood is the seed of freedom's tree."

Though nearly a score of years has passed since the struggle ended, many a stricken heart still bleeds as fond memory calls up the loved form of some pale sleeper on a far off battle field. The hope and pride of many a happy home circle went forth never to return, and sorrow and sadness now brood over that household where erst were peace and gladness.

When we remember how they died, on the mountain's steep declivity, in the ravine, in forest glade, on the open field, in fire encircled fort, on the lonely picket beat, in the wrecked vessel that went down in river and bayou, in the lonely hospital tent where no gentle hands cooled their fevered brows and in the black stockade pining away under the blighting touch of foul and loathsome disease and cruel neglect,

"Tears will well to our eyes
And hearts seek relief in sighs."

But no bitter thought should find a lodging place in any patriot breast.

Ex-Speaker James W. Husted, of the New York Legislature.

MAKES A FEW REMARKS.

"You did not go to Florida for your cough and cold, as you proposed?"

"No! I found the necessary ozone and pine aroma in four Allcock's Porous Plasters, two on my back and two on my chest. I was quickly cured; they proved a perfect shield against pneumonia. These plasters also cured my son of rheumatism in the shoulder, which for months defied medical skill. I have found them very quick to cure and absolutely painless. In bruises no external remedies can be more effective."

"Allcock's" is the only genuine Porous Plaster; buy no other and you will not be cheated.

We Challenge the World.

When we say we believe, we have evidence to prove that Shiloh's Consumption Cure is decidedly the best Lung Medicine made, in as much as it will cure a common or Chronic Cough in one-half the time and relieve Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, and show more cases of Consumption cured than all others. It will cure where they fail, it is pleasant to take, harmless to the youngest child, and we guarantee what we say. Price, 10c., 50c. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore, Chest or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by H. B. Cochran, druggist, Nos. 137 and 139 North Queen street. feb7-eod1

A Policeman Braced Up.

D. F. Collins, member of police, seventh ward, Reading Pa., talks this way: "Suffered severely from rheumatism; nothing did me any good till I tried Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It is a pleasure to recommend it." For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

AND INTEND TO PROVE CERTAIN REPRESENTATIONS FALSE AND DEFY COMPETITION.

It has been circulated and reported during the last few months, to our customers, as well as others, that the quality of work constructed by us was of an inferior character, which had a tendency to hurt our reputation to a considerable extent, depriving us of quite a number of sales, and compelling us to sell at lower prices than heretofore, thereby causing us considerable loss. The object of this we can readily understand, and we think it unjust and a cowardly way of injuring our reputation, otherwise we would not complain; but as it is a base, cowardly misrepresentation, and reported by two of our alleged first-class coach makers, we intend to protect our rights, no matter at what cost.

In justice to ourselves and to sustain our reputation as first-class builders of light carriage work, we will wager any amount that we can construct as fine a vehicle as any in the city, and, furthermore, that our raw material in stock is greater, and of as fine a quality as that of the parties this may interest. Also, that our stock of finished vehicles on hand comprises some that will compare with any in the city. The above statements we will stand responsible for, and those offended and demanding satisfaction can be accommodated by calling on

NORBECK & MILEY.

N. B.—Any party accepting this offer will be compelled to construct a vehicle from material in stock and by mechanics in their present employ. And furthermore, should we hear any more of these scandalous reports we will prosecute the offender to the full extent of the law. m10-1md&w

HAVING DISSOLVED PARTNERSHIP and permanently closed the Chestnut Street Iron Works, I desire to inform my old patrons and the public generally, that I am still in the business, being located in the Penn Iron Company's Works, North Plum street, where I am making Iron and Brass Castings of every description, and will be pleased to serve all who may favor me with their patronage. From 40 years experience in the business and using the best material and employing the best mechanics, I am satisfied I can guarantee entire satisfaction. Castings made from a mixture of iron and steel which are more reliable for strength and durability than the best cast iron known. Y teeth roll pinions, rolls and rolling mill work a specialty. Castings made of very soft iron, and brass castings of every description. I have all the patters of the well and favorably known Mower Corn and Cob Crusher, refitted and improved. Also on hand, mills completely fitted up or in parts, to replace old ones which have been in use for years, guaranteeing them to give satisfaction.
