WHEN MY SHIP COMES IN. And the day is bright, be it storm or shine, for far away, o'er a sunny sea,
Suits a treasure-vessel, and all is mine.
I see the rippies that fall away.
As she cleaves the azure waves before;

And nearer, nearer, day by cay, Draws the happy four when she comes to

"But what if she never comes?" you say, "It you never the honor, the treasure It has made me happier, day by day,

It has eased full many an acting pain;
It has kept the spirit from envy free,
Has dulied the ear to the world's rude din.
Oh! best of blessing it's been to me.
To look for the hour when my ship comes in. -Retward 8, Rand

Trees in the City.

Philadelphia Record. Look up, money getting and money hunting citizens; look up, weary and worn toilers, as you pass through Independence and Washington squares. The oaks, the class, the maples, the buttonwoods and the sh trees are as green in these small areas as in the open country; the tulip poplars are gay with great orange blossoms; the lindens are in their glory, and there is deep shade on walk and grass. It is worth while to spend a few minutes in tree study, for in the country one may walk many miles without seeing so many kinds of trees as are brought together in these two squares. Here are the English and Norway maples, the catalpa, the Pautorial imperialis, several species of Gar, the English ash, the Kentucky coffee tree, the cottonwood, the bald cypress or Taxodium of the Southern swamps, which fares but ill in the dry soil; the yellow buckeye, the mulberry, the nettle tree, or hack berry, and many others. All that is needed to make these equares as lovely as the as in the open country ; the tulip poplars to make these equares as lovely as the alamedas of Spain is water—running water -a cooling fountain and a mimic rock

Notes of One Show.

A mulatto girl with a remarkably pretty but peculiar face was engaged by a shrowd Western showman. He had a tooth extracted from each side of her mouth, and inserted a pair of long tusks, covered her ears with false ones like a beast's, bleached and tangled her abundant hair, and instructed her to utter an unintelligible jargon. Thus she was transformed into a valuable curiosity, and her wages of $15 did not satisfy her. On the arrival of the show in Indianapolis she attempted to quit it, and a row resulted in an exposure of the fraud.

Five children went home from a circus in Dakota deeply impressed by the feat of descending an incline on a globe. Find ing a smooth log lying at the top of a steep hill, they took their places on it in a row, and set it rolling. They were all thrown off and run over, three being SENATE CHAMBRE, ALBANY, N. Y., I April 4, 1883. (On the 27th of February, 1883, I was taken with a violent pain in the region of the kidhardly stand up. As soon as possible I applied two Allcock's Porous Plasters, one over each kidney, and laid down. In an hour, to my se and delight, the pain had vanished and I was well. I were the plasters for a day or two as a precaution, and then removed them. I have been using Alloock's Posocs Plasters in my family for the last ten years, and have always found them the quickest and best external remedy for colds, strains, kinks and rhenmatte affections. From my experience I believe they are the best plaster HENRY C. NELSONS.
