Separate proposals will be received and seen the old tactics of endeavoring to create a hurrah for him were tried several times, but they did not succeed as well as expected in his native state. General Prentiss (Mo.) seconded the nomination, but was badly treated by his auditors. Then came Blaine's boom. For ten minutes the convention was in uproar.

Judge West was led to the platform and seated in a chair at the edge, with Hon. Ed McPherson at his side to guide him. Separate proposals will be received and separate contracts awarded as announced in said schedules. All proposals must be accompanied by a bond with approved security conditioned for the fathful performance of the contract, and addressed and delivered to make for eleven o'clock a. m. of Thursday, the 25th day of June, A. D. 1884, at which time the proposals will be opened and contracts awarded, in the Executive Chamber at Harrisburg. Pennsylvania. Schedules containing forms of proposals can be obtained on application at the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. S. STENGEE, The orator leaned upon his cane and made one of the most eloquent speeches ever heard in the ball. The building shook as if waved by the winds when Blaine's name was formally presented. It was a scene which paled into insignificance the memorable night four years ago when Conkling and Cameron led the hurrah for Grant, or even when Daniel Dougherty named Gen. Hancock at Cincinnati. A. Chicago Tribune editor procured a beautiful floral cap, surmounted by a white plume, took a front position near the stage and waved this aloft, adding to the interse excitement. But a Much Better Place to Buy Your Goods | Finally quiet was restored. Stephen B. Will be Found at | Elkins and Thomas M. Bayno climbed upon the stage and whispered into Judge West's ear to demand that all other candidates withdraw in the interest of Blaine. He did this, and it was immedidetermined by Blaine's managers to force a ballot before adjournment, and, if necessary to nominate Blaine by 1 or 2 o'clock in the morning.

Hon. Thomas C. Platt asked the Blaine Wholesale & Retail Clothing House, delagates to stand firm, and victory now and in November was theirs. He was followed by Hon. Galusha A. Grow, who also spoke for Blaine.

It was 11 o'clock, Philadelphia time, when New York's delegation was called upon to name their choice. President arthur was cheered to the echo. His boom was not so great as that of Blaine, bosen was not so great as that of Blaine, but it was confined more to the delegates and not so much to the speciators. Flags were waved, horns and whistles blown and the band played. It was pandemonium, and was a surprise to the Blaine people, who did not think Arthur's friends could summon so large a crowd of supporters. The demonstration continued for half a hour, when Martin I. Townsend formally named President Arthur. His speech was frequently interrupted by cheers. He said Arthur's nomination would give satisfac tion to all classes of citizans. Townsend attacked Conkling and Platt and said that they were against Arthur because he could not make the executive mansion a place for political caucuses. He also charged George William Curtis and the civil service reformers who were opposed to Arthur with being ungrateful. The speech created

When Vermont was reached there was considerable cheering, and Governor Long (Mass) took the stage to present Edmunds' claim. He was listened to with great at tention, and was frequently interrupted by applause.

George William Cartis seconded Edmunds' nomination, and was received with Hirsh & Brother's loud cheers.

At 12:46 a. m. a motion was made that the convention proceed to batter. Au amendment was offered that at least tive ! ballots be taken. A lively discussion on saed, and a motion to take a recessiontil Nos. 2 and 4 North Queen treet. 10 a. m. was lest. Finally a motion prevailed by 412 to 381

THE PLATFORM.

A VERY VERBOSE DELIVERANCE.

Trying to Cover Every Point-A Carlon Piece of Patenwork-Blowing Met and Cold on Every Known Issue. Following is the Republican platform

The Republicans of the United States, in convention assembled, renew the allegi-ance to the principles upon which they have triumphed in six successive presidential elections, and congratulate the American people on the attainment of so many results in legislation and administra-tion by which the Republican party has, after saving the Union, done so much to render its institutions just, equal and beneficient—the safe-guard of liberty and the embodiment of the best thought and highest purposes of our citizens. The Republican party has gained its strength by quick and faithful response to the demands of the people for the freedom and the equality of all men, for a united nation equality of all men, for a united nation assuring the rights of all citizens; for the elevation of labor; for and honest currency; for purity in legislation, and military if need be. for integrity and accountability in all de-partments of the government, and it ac-cepts anew the duty of leading in the work of progress and reform. We lament the death of President Gar-We lament the death of President Garfield, whose sound statesmanship, long conspicuous in Congress, gave promise of a strong and successful administration, a promise fully realized during the short period of his office as president of the United States. His distinguished success

United States. His distinguished success in war and in peace has endeared him to the hearts of the American people. In the administration of President Arthur we recognize a wise, conservative and patriotic policy under which the country has been blessed with remarkable pros-perity, and we believe his eminent services are entitled to and will receive the hearty approval of every citizen. It is the first duty of a good government to protect the rights and promote the interests of its own people; the largest diversity of industry is most productive of general prosperity and of the comfort and independence of the people.

The Tariff Plank.

We, therefore, demand that the imposition of duties on foreign imports shall be made, not for "revenue onty" but that, in raising the requisite revenues for the government, such duties shall be so levied is to afford security to our diversified in dustries and protection to the rights and wages to the laborer, to the end that active and intelligent labor as well as capital. may have its just reward, and the laboring man his full share in the national prosperity.

Against the so-called economical system of the Democratic party, which would degrade our labor to the foreign standard, we enter our earnest protest; the Demo-cratic party has failed completely to relieve the people of the burden of unnecessary taxation by a wise reduction of the surplus.

The Republican party pledges itself to correct the inequalities of the tariff and to reduce the surplus, not by the vicious and indiscriminate process of horizontal reduction, but by such methods as will relieve the taxpayer without injuring the laborer or the great productive interests of the country. We recognize the importance of sheep husbandry in the United States, the serious depression which it is now experienc-prosperity; and we, therefore, respect the demands of the representatives of this important agricultural interest for a readjustment of duty upon foreign wool in view that such industry shall have full and adequate protection.

The principle of the public regulation of railway corporations is a wise and salutary one for the protection of all classes of the people, and we favor legislation that shall prevent unjust discrimination and excessive charges for transportion, and that shall secure to the people and to the railroads alike the fair and equal protection of the laws. Protection to Labor.

We favor the establishment of a national bureau of labor, the enforcement of the eight-hour law, a wise and judicious system of general education by adequate appropriation from the national revenues whenever the same is needed.

We believe that everywhere the protec tion to a citizen of American birth must be secured to citizens by American adoption, and we favor the settlement of national differences by international arbitration. The Republican party, having its birth in a hatred of slave labor and in a desire that all men may be free and equal, is unalterably opposed to placing our working-men in competition with any form of servile labor, whether at home or abroad. In this spirit we denounce the importation of contract labor, whether from Europe or Asia, as an offence against the spirit of American institutions, and we pledge ourselves to sustain the present law restricting Chinese immigration, and to provide such further legislation as is necessary to carry out its purposes.

Civil Service Reform.

The reform of the civil service auspictously begun under Republican administration should be completed by the further leading.

The spirit and purpose of the reform should be observed in all executive appointments, and all laws at variance with the objects of existing reformed legislation should be repealed, to the end that the dangers of free institutions which lurk in the power of official patronage may be wisely and effectively avoided. The public lands are a heritage of the people of the United States and should be reserved as far as possible for small holdings by actual settlers. We are opposed to the acquisition of large tracts of these lands by corporations or individuals, espe cially where such holdings are in the hands of non resident aliens, and we will endeavor to obtain such legislation as will tend to correct this evil.

We demand of Congress the speedy forfeiture of all land grants which lapsed by reason of non-compliance with acts of incorporation, in all cases where there has been no attempt in good faith to perform the conditions of such grants.

The grateful thanks of the American people are due to the Union soldiers and sailors of the late war, and the Republican party stands pledged to suitable pensions to all who were disabled and for the widows and orphans of those who died in the war. The Republican party pledges itself to the repeal of the limitation contained in the Arrears act of 1879, so that all invalid soldiers shall share alike, and their pensions shall begin with the date of disability or discharge and not with the date of the ap-shall give the right to expect that foreign nations shall refrain from meddling in America, and the policy which seeks peace can trade with all powers, but especially with those of the Western Hemisphere. We demand the restoration of our navy to its old-time strength and efficiency, that is may in any sea protect the rights of American citizens and the interest of American commerce, and we call upon Congress to remove the burdens under which American shipping has been depressed, so that it may again be true that we have a commerce which leaves no sea unexplored, and a navy which takes no law from superior force. adopted by the Chicago convention in full:

Denouncing Southern Outrages. The people of the United States in their organized capacity constitute a nation and not a mere confederacy of states. The national government is supreme within the sphere of its national duty, but the states have reserved rights which should be faithfulled. The perpetuity of our institutions rests upon the maintenance of a free ballot, an honest count and a correct return. We denounce the fraud and violence practised by the Democratic party in Southern states, by which the will of the voter is defeated, as dangerous to the preservation of free institutions, and we solemnly arraign the Democratic party as being the guilty re-cipient of the fruit of such fraud and violence.

We extend to the Republicans of the South, regardless of their former party affiliations, our cordial sympathy, and pledge to them our most earnest efforts to promote the passage of such legislation as will secure to every citizen, of whatever race and color, the full and complete re-cognition, possession and exercise of all civil and political rights.
