GEN. DAVIS ACCEPTS.

FOR CONGRESSMAN AT LARGE.

Correspondence between the Chairman of the Democratic State Convention and General Davis.

The following correspondence fully explains itself:

HUNTINGTON, June 5, 1884.

Gen. W. H. Davis:

My DEAR SIR--I have the honor to transmit to you a certified telegraphic report of the proceedings of the state Democratic convention, held at Allentown, April 9, 1884.

From this you will learn that you were the unanimous choice of the convention as its candidate for congressman-at-large.

I am confident that the Democratic party of the state heartily approve this nomination, and are anxiously awaiting your acceptance of a nomination which, sought by you, has met with great popular favor. I am,

Your obedient servant,

CHRIM M. SPEER, Chairman Convention.

Gen. Davis' Acceptance.

DOWNTOWN, Pa., June 13th, 1884.

Hon. C. M. Speer, Chairman Democratic State Convention.

My DEAR SIR:--I am in receipt of your letter of the 9th inst., informing me of your nomination as candidate for congressman at large. Although unsought, and made against my repeated protest, I feel it to be my duty to accept; and will meet defeat or victory with equal cheerfulness.

The country feels the necessity of thorough, practical reform in the national administration; a reform that shall reach down to the very bottom. The Republican party have become so corrupt in their quarters of a century of irresolute action, they would fall to pieces but for the cohesion of public plunder. The machinery of government is loaded down with political barnacles, which cling to it like leeches. When that party assumed power, it was led by earnest, patriotic men, with principles of the highest public confidence; now, the leaders have no higher ambition than the spoils of office and the war of factions. Recently, these spoilsmen, with unprecedented impudence, nominated one of their own number for the presidential office. To cure the evils complained of, half-way measures will not suffice; there must be a radical change everywhere; it reforms we must hew to the line. They, who would rescue the government, must unite to place it in clean hands. When this shall have been done, the motto of Thomas Jefferson, that "the whole art of government consists in being honest," will be made the chief stone of the corner in the great work of administrative reform.

When Jefferson drew his immortal indictment against the King of England, he charged, among other things, that he had "erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance;" that he "created a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance;" that he "erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance;" that he "erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance;"
