MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 16, 1884.

A HIGH HANDED SHOT.

The Sole Heir of a Large Estate Attempts an Assassination.

Joe Drinker, a member of one of the oldest families in Susquehanna county, while standing in front of Sparks' drug store, on Main street, Montrose, drew a revolver and shot three time in rapid succession at William H. Cooper, the banker, who was on the pavement near him. Cooper fell bleeding to the side walk. At the third shot C. M. Crandall sprang upon Drinker, and, with a well-directed blow knocked him senseless. Mr. Cooper was carried into the drug store, where a hasty examination disclosed the fact that two bullets had entered his body, one in the lower part of his back and the other in the hip. He was taken home.

Drinker was carried into Decker's store unconscious from Crandall's blow and was afterward removed to the jail. There is no reason which can be given for the shooting, but it is supposed the would-be assassin was actuated in his crime through some trouble about money affairs. Drinker was never considered very bright, although he is not thought to be insane. Mr. Cooper had something to do in settling up the estate of Drinker's parents, who died some years ago, and it is supposed he held some spite against Cooper in connection with that transaction.

There is a rumor on the street that Drinker drank something from a bottle supposed to be poison before doing the shooting. He remained unconscious about half an hour after the shooting, and since then has been vomiting freely. The physician who is attending him says he will be all right in the morning.

Mr. Cooper is very dangerously wounded, but the physicians cannot say whether his wounds are necessarily fatal or not, and cannot decide until after the effect of the shock has passed off. Mr. Cooper's daughter was married last Thursday to Mr. Oscar Keen, of New Jersey, and the tragedy comes doubly hard at this time. The wounded man is one of the most prominent residents of Montrose, and a gentleman of wealth.

Joseph Drinker, the prisoner, is the sole remaining heir of the "old Drinker estate," inherited by his father and succeeding to the son, who is 40 years of age.

Later Particulars.

Drinker has fully recovered from the effects of the drug which he took at the time of the shooting. He says it was chloroform and laudanum and that he fully intended killing himself after killing Mr. Cooper. When asked why he did the shooting, he said that his sister's wrongs must be avenged; that she was unjustly incarcerated in the insane asylum and that she was perfectly sane and was suffering illegally.

A sister of Drinker's had been imprisoned for several years in an insane asylum. She is now in the Harrisburg asylum. There was an inquiry as to her insanity a year or two ago, and she was brought before the court there, and, upon being declared insane, was taken back to the asylum. Drinker does not claim that Mr. Cooper had any hand in her incarceration, but that he remained passive and did not interfere when he might have done something to release her. Personally he has nothing against Mr. Cooper. When asked if he is not sorry now for the act, he replied:

"I don't rejoice in the suffering of Mr. Cooper. I wish I had killed him immediately, but I feel that I have done my duty. I am sorry for Mr. Cooper, but some one had to pay the penalty for the suffering of others," then, with his eyes glaring fiercely and with a tragic gesture, he exclaimed, "My sister has been illegally wronged, and I have avenged her."

He says that he had fully determined upon the act long ago, and that if he had been unable to kill Mr. Cooper he would have killed some one else. There is no doubt in the minds of those who have seen him that Drinker is insane. His acquitting Mr. Cooper of any part in putting his sister in the asylum, of any act or wrong whatever, except that the banker did not interfere, and his claiming that if he had not killed Cooper he would have killed some one else, taken together with his actions before and since the shooting, all go to show a diseased mind.

Cure of Asthma and Spinal Weakness.

239 WEST 24th STREET,
NEW YORK, MAY 17, 1883.

Though it may be irregular for a physician to give a certificate in favor of a proprietary medicine, still, in the cause of humanity, I venture to say a word in favor of ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS, which I esteem the most remarkable external remedy of this century.

I have known these Plasters to cure Spinal Weakness where the patient had been confined for months to his bed. A blacksmith of my acquaintance was severely injured in the back by the kick of a horse; four ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS quickly relieved him of excruciating agony and cured him in a week. Another patient, suffering with Neuralgia of the Heart, was completely cured in four hours.

In Asthma, I know of a case where they were worn for three months and fully restored the health. In another case where a patient had sporadic cholera, nothing relieved him until he put on three ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS; in twelve hours all pains in his chest and stomach disappeared. I know that these plasters, applied on the pit of the stomach are a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia and constipation.

Finally, if persons once use ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS they will never use any other; they are so pleasant, quick and painless—nature's balmy assistant.

H. C. VAN NORMAN, M. D.

"Don't Hurry, Gentlemen,"

Said a man on his way to be hanged, "there'll be no fun till I get there." We say to the dyspeptic, nervous, and debilitated, don't hurry thoughtlessly for some remedy of doubtful merit, uncertain of relief, when you can get at the druggists for one dollar Burdock Blood Bitters almost sure to cure and certain to benefit. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

No Deception Used.

It is strange so many people will continue to suffer day after day with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Sour Stomach, General Debility, when they can procure at our store SHILOH'S VITALIZER, free of cost if it does not cure or relieve them. Price, 75 cents. Sold by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster. feb14-eod5

How Much Will Do It?

How much of Thomas' Eclectric Oil is required to cure? Only a very little. A few drops will cure any kind of an ache; and but a trifle more is needed for sprains and lameness. Rheumatism is not so readily affected; an ounce and sometimes two ounces are required. No medicine, however, is so sure to cure with the same number of applications. Sold by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa.

HAVING DISSOLVED PARTNERSHIP and permanently closed the Chestnut Street Iron Works, I desire to inform my old patrons and the public generally, that I am still in the business, being located in the Penn Iron Company's Works, North Plum street, where I am making Iron and Brass Castings of every description, and will be pleased to serve all who may favor me with their patronage. From 40 years experience in the business and using the best material and employing the best mechanics, I am satisfied I can guarantee entire satisfaction. Castings made from a mixture of iron and steel which are more reliable for strength and durability than the best cast iron known. Y teeth roll pinions, rolls and rolling mill work a specialty. Castings made of very soft iron, and brass castings of every description. I have all the patterns of the well and favorably known Mowrer Corn and Cob Crusher, refitted and improved. Also on hand, mills completely fitted up or in parts, to replace old ones which have been in use for years, guaranteeing them to give satisfaction.
