REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

Warned Against a Ticket Swindler—Delinquent Members of Co. C. to be Court-martialed—Notes About Town.

Mr. J. R. Wood, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania railroad company, has sent a circular to agents of the company, with a request that copies of the same be sent to all schools, academies and other educational establishments in this vicinity. It reads as follows:

"The public is cautioned against a swindler who, under the assumed name of Wilson, Steane, etc., has been collecting money as agent of the Pennsylvania railroad company, by representing that he is authorized to sell tickets at reduced rates, and usually demanding small advances for expense of printing, etc.

Courtmartialing Delinquent Militiamen.

It will be remembered by the readers of the INTELLIGENCER, that Capt. D. B. Case, of Co. C., 4th Regt., N. G. P., threatened to courtmartial any member of the company who did not participate in the annual spring inspection held May 1. Quite a number of the members were not in attendance that night, and now they are to be punished, at least it is so intimated. They have been notified to appear this evening at 7:30 o'clock, before a court of inquiry, which has been appointed by Capt. Case, when and where they will be compelled, under oath, to state their reasons for not being present at the May inspection. Their failing to put in an appearance will be immediately turned over to the regimental courtmartial, while those who do attend, and give unsatisfactory reasons will be similarly dealt with.

Robbed a Box Car.

A few days ago, Henry McFall broke open a box car, which was loaded with household goods, at Conowingo station, and stole therefrom a suit of clothes, several silver plated knives and forks, etc. P. R. R. detectives hunted for and found him, and when arrested he had on the stolen clothes. He was taken to Cecil county, Md., and committed to jail to await trial at court.

Jottings Around Town.

The York accommodation was much behind time to day.

The M. E. and Cookman chapel Sunday schools spent a very pleasant day at Lititz yesterday.

Owing to the disagreeable weather the Presbyterians will not go to Lititz until to morrow.

A car jumped the river road yesterday while being shifted.

Mr. H. C. Young and family are visiting in Philadelphia and Brooklyn.

Mr. Geo. Miller, aged 21, died of consumption yesterday morning.

Ben Ryon, who was accused and sued for wife beating, is still under bonds. His case was to have been heard by 'Squire Frank yesterday, but owing to the fact that it will probably be settled, the hearing was indefinitely postponed.

The remains of Miss Mary, daughter of 'Squire Hunter, were brought to Columbia from Baltimore last evening, and interred in Mt. Bethel cemetery. 'Squire Hunter and family formerly resided in this place.

Mr. L. W. May's Bible class had a very pleasant time at Wild Cat Falls yesterday, despite the rainy weather and the presence of a number of rowdies from York, who insulted the Columbians in more than one way.

THE AFRICAN METHODISTS.

Conference Adjourns After Transacting Business of Importance.

The conference of the African M. E church for the southeastern district of Pennsylvania reassembled in the Strawberry street church at 2 p. m. yesterday.

The committee on the salary of the presiding elder reported a resolution apportioning the expenses of the presiding elder's trip on each of the forty-one churches of the district. The assessment was fixed at five cents each on the 2,300 church members of the district. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

After a number had spoken hopefully of the success of the new system of having a presiding elder, which went into effect June 1, with Rev. C. C. Feltz, of Philadelphia, as first occupant of the office, some resolutions were offered on Sunday-school and church work. Their introduction occasioned discussion until adjournment at 4:30 o'clock.

At 8 p. m. the conference again assembled and unanimously adopted the resolution presented by Revs. Thompson and Robinson on Sunday school and church work. A blank form for the class leader's report to quarterly conference, embracing statistics of the class temporal and spiritual, was then adopted.

A resolution was agreed to recommending the stewardesses and presidents of the different church organizations as honorary members of the quarterly conference. A form of report was adopted for Sunday-school superintendents and other officers in making their reports to conference.

Rev. A. A. Robinson, of Mount Pisgah church, Philadelphia, was appointed as fraternal delegate from this district to the Delaware district conference. It was resolved to hold the next meeting of conference in Allen chapel, Philadelphia, on the last Thursday of April, 1885.

Resolutions indorsing Rev. Feltz's course as presiding elder, and thanking the members of the church for their kind reception were then adopted, after which at 10:30 o'clock the conference adjourned with prayer by the presiding elder, and benediction by Rev. Norris.

Announcement was made prior to the adjournment that the first quarterly conference by the presiding elder in the local church would be held at 8 o'clock this evening.

BAFFLED BARRISTERS.

Who Failed to Get Their Picnic To-day.

Fifty lawyers and a half ton of ice were to go out to What Glen park this forenoon to hold the annual all day picnic of the Lancaster bar association. S. H. Reynolds, A. J. Kauffman, W. A. Wilson, B. F. Eshleman, W. U. Hensel and C. I. Landis were the committee running the affair, with C. W. Eckert and H. E. Slaymaker as able assistants. The grounds were somewhat damp early this morning, but the barristers were dry; and the committee and its help began about 6:30 a. m. to hold a series of special meetings to determine what they would do about it. Some of the subscribers wanted to go out to What Glen, and were glad they had such fine cool weather for it. Some of them wanted to adjourn until to morrow and have a mandamus issued directing "Old Probs" to furnish a fair day. Others suggested that a temporary injunction against rain was the proper remedy. Others were for hiring a hall at once and holding a picnic indoors, in the city.

A general meeting for consultation was held in front of the Law building at 9 o'clock, the chairman occupying the fire plug and the secretary keeping the minutes in the gutter with an umbrella. The question was long and elaborately argued. Finally it was agreed to wait a day and, if the weather improved, to go to What Glen to morrow; if not to hold the picnic under cover in town. Counsellor North went to Columbia, and Capt. Case took the train for Marietta.

A Reconsideration.

After this, other members of the bar came upon the scene of action; the impetuous element who were "agin" postponement obtained recruits and secured a reconsideration. It was urgently shown that postponed things never succeed; and that there were elements of preparation for the day's event that wouldn't keep. The bread for the occasion had come from the Vienna bakery in Philadelphia; the lobster, caught especially for the picnic, had the colors of the sunrise on them when taken; and the clams had walked all the way from Little Neck to get here on time. Mr. Rochester had come on from western New York for one day only.

These considerations prevailed. The Stalwarts won the day. North and Case were telephoned to come back. The picnic began at high noon in Excelsior hall. The doors are guarded, keeping reporters out and lawyers in.

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI.

Reviving the Memory of Early School Days at a Pleasant Gathering.

There was a good attendance of the male and female departments of the city high school's in the large room of the girls department of the high school building last evening. Mr. James C. Gable called the meeting to order, and the following programme was effectively carried out, the vocal selections being received with particular favor.

"Alumni March," composed and rendered by Prof. Haas; vocal solo, "Heaven Hath Shed a Tear," Katie Shirk; recitation, "Jamie," Amanda Landis; "History of the Alumni," by the society historian, John Snyder; vocal solo, "When the Robins Nest Again," Mrs. H. Elias; essay, "Study of Physical Science," Walter P. King; recitation, "Lady of Provounce," Sue Harkins; vocal solo, "Ave Verun," Frank McClain; recitation, "From Exile," Laura Falck; bass solo, Yoman's Wedding March (Fleming), John G. Warfel; recitation, "Trust in Heaven," Sue Harkins; essay, "School Dreams and After Days," Sadie Fleming; violin solo, Prof. Kevinski; recitation, "Katrina's Trip to New York," Amanda Landis; vocal solo, "Let Me Dream Again," Mary Sener; "Twenty Years Ago," D. H. Sensenig.

At the conclusion of the programme a business meeting was held, at which the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Walter P. King; vice presidents, first, Mazie Erisman; second, John Snyder; corresponding secretary, George F. K. Erisman; recording secretary, H. I. Spencer; treasurer, Amanda Landis; historian, C. L. Frantz. The following committees were then appointed by the new president:

Executive Committee—Miss Harriet B. Curtis, Miss Laura Falck, Mr. W. Scott Adler, Mr. Clarence Stormfeltz.

Finance Committee—Mr. Howard F. Hays, Mr. Frank V. McClain, Mr. Charles Heitshu, Mr. Isaac Hartman.

At the conclusion of the business meeting those present adjourned to another room, where refreshments were served.

Oxford's Successful Fair.

At a meeting of the board of managers of the Oxford Agricultural society the report of the treasurer showed the following in regard to the spring fair: Admissions, $1,674.40; entry fees, $336.25; sutlers, $294.15—a total of $2,304.80. This is an excess of $86.05 over last spring's fair. The expenditures were: Premiums, $914.59; expenses, $380.97—leaving a net balance of $1,009.33. The cost of repairs on the grounds and buildings this spring amounted to $327.79. The fall fair will be held September 24, 25 and 26.

Burned by Coal Oil.

Shortly before noon Wednesday, a terrible accident occurred to Mrs. A. N. Breneman, No. 40 West King street, by which she might have lost her life. She applied a match to a coal oil stove, and without a moment's warning the stove exploded, throwing the burning oil all over her. With much difficulty the flames were extinguished, but not until a great part of Mrs. Breneman's hair was burned; and on both sides of her face and on her back large spaces are crisped.

A Grocery Store Robbed.

Last night the grocery store of Otto Pachelbe, corner of Duke and Middle streets, was broken into and robbed. The money drawer, containing between fifteen and twenty dollars was rifled. The thief or thieves entered by breaking the cellar door. The money drawer was carried to the cellar. Mr. Pachelbe offers a reward of fifty dollars for the arrest and conviction of the robbers.

A Bootblack's Good Fortune.

Peter Mulholland, a bootblack, who has gained some notoriety about Philadelphia police head quarters by pestering the mayor for a position on the police force, appeared at his regular stand Wednesday without his box, but with $300 in money. When "Sharkey" and "Billy the bootblack," his mates at the Central office, recovered from their astonishment sufficiently to ask him whence the money came he informed them that he had $1,200 in cash and $25,000 in real estate beside. Then he took the pair to a neighboring restaurant, gorged them with a fifty cent banquet, and divided his benediction and his "kit" between them. "Peter, the bootblack," has a little history of martyrdom of his own. He was a Chicago bootblack once, and was given a day in which to leave town by an association of his comrades whom he had refused to join and who had agreed to raise the price of a polish. He came here and with his wife and five children took a small room in a tenement-house. Last Monday Mulholland's wife's mother, Margaret, Fitgerald, died in St. Joseph's hospital, and Peter was informed that the old lady had somehow amassed $1,500 in cash and real estate said to be worth $25 000, which she had left to her daughter and himself.

RESCUED FROM DEATH

The following statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold by H. B. Cochran, 137 North Queen street.

THE GREAT STORM.

BRIDGES DOWN AND HOUSES RUINED.

Its Destruction in Berks County—Two Hundred Houses and Many Bridges Swept Away in York County.

READING, Pa., June 26.—Reports from all sections of Berks county, indicate great damage to the crops by the storm of last night. Miles of wheat fields have the appearance of having been mown down. Washouts on the Philadelphia & Reading railroad delayed trains over one hour. At Laurel station the water was so high as to extinguish the fires in the rolling mills. Some supports have been washed away from under the bridge at Embreeville. At Birdsboro this forenoon a large portion of the Schuylkill canal bank broke, overflowing many fields and destroying the crops in the surrounding country.

Terrible Devastation in York County and Vicinity.

YORK, Pa., June 26.—The storm in York county last night was very destructive. The dam at Glatfelter's paper mill gave way early in the morning, and the rush of water carried away every dam and bridge as far as Littlestown. Every bridge on the Frederick division of the Pennsylvania railroad was either carried away or seriously damaged. The loss on the Northern Central railroad is also severe. In this town every bridge spanning the Codorus creek was swept away, as were also nearly two hundred frame houses and stables. There was no loss of life.

The Rain Around Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, June 26,—The storm of last night and this morning caused considerable interruption to telegraphic and telephonic communication in this vicinity. Railway travel has been interrupted by telegraph poles falling across the tracks. At Nicetown, in the suburbs, the tracks are submerged. Considerable injury to wheat and other grain crops is reported from the surrounding country.

COAL PRICES.

An Advance in Shipboard Prices.

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—The following circular of eastern prices of the Philadelphia & Reading coal and iron company issued this morning, shows an advance of 25 cents per ton on stove coal and of 15 cents per ton on chestnut and pea, in the rates at Port Richmond; and of 15 cents for stove, chestnut and pea at Elizabethport. The new prices for white ash coal, delivered on board vessels at Port Richmond, are $4.40 for lump and steamboat; $3.75 for broken and egg; $4.15 and for stove; $3.80 for chestnut and $2 65 for pea. Prices of same grade at Elizabethport are $4.75 for lump and steamboat; $4.10 for broken and egg; $4.40 for stove; $4.15 for chestnut and $3 for pea.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

Decides to Put up a Figure Head as National Chairman.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The meeting of the Republican national committee drew a large crowd to the Fifth Avenue hotel to day. It was agreed among the closest friends of Blaine and Logan that the chairman should not be chosen from among those who have been radical advocates of Blaine, but that such chairman should represent the business and manufacturing elements of the country. On this account the selection of Mr. Jones, of Pennsylvania, is urged.

The national committee met shortly after noon, John W. Mason, of West Virginia, in the chair temporarily.
