

A GREAT STORM.

DEWASTATES THE NORTHERN END

Dwellings damaged, trees destroyed and property blown away. Injurious to the growing crops. There was a great storm on Saturday night some miles north of this city, but the full extent of it, nor the amount of damage done by it, have not yet been ascertained. It began at about ten o'clock and extended in a southeasterly direction through Manheim, Litz, Newville, Rothville, Oregon, Farmerville and Landis Valley. There was a regular cyclone of considerable violence, blowing several miles in length, uprooting forests, shade trees and orchards, leveling fences, blowing down buildings, and doing much damage to the growing crops. The rain poured down furiously, badly washing the fields and roads, and swelling the streams into torrents. At some points there were heavy falls of hail, which on the tobacco, corn and other crops badly. Only a meagre amount of individual losses has been obtained.

The farm of John M. Stallman, near the terminus of the Fruitville turnpike is very badly damaged. Almost every tree in his fine orchard is blown down and many of them torn entirely out by the roots. The long rows of beech trees that shoot the tall, slender, spire-like spires into the sky, and which were nearly blown down. The tobacco is somewhat, but not very badly, damaged by hail. On the farm of Daniel Herr, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn.

On the farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn. The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn. The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn.

The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn. The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn. The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn.

The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn. The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn. The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn.

The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn. The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn. The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn.

The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn. The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn. The farm of George, in the same neighborhood, much damage was done, and the roof was torn from his large barn.

COLUMBIA NEWS.

A Big Crowd Witnessed the York Club's Defeat of the Columbia. First fireworks. Fling & Breneman.

Fully eight hundred persons saw the York professionals defeat the Columbia club in an uninteresting match game of ball on Saturday afternoon. It was expected the visitors would defeat the home nine, but a slow and uninteresting game was anticipated, and when it was learned that their croak battery would not work in their positions, all hope for the Columbia nine was given up. Down in the game below the Virginia, of Newtown, and the Mannheim, of Manheim, had the middle finger of his left hand so badly injured that it was impossible for him to face the ball. Habbe, who has not caught a great deal, but who has not the bat, but who worked bravely to do so, allowed five runs in the second and third innings, to be secured on passed balls. A visitor did not hit Rhodean's balls outside the distance. Middle was put on third, and aggressively accommodated the visitors with two runs by miffing two thrown balls. Several other changes were made, but the boys not being used to the visitors played poorly, except Hiltene, who, however, pitched with good effect. The game finished with York leading by six runs.

The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting. The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting. The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting.

The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting. The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting. The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting.

The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting. The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting. The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting.

The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting. The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting. The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting.

The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting. The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting. The York club, who were playing with their best, were defeated by the Columbia in a game that was not very interesting.

Fishing Tackle Department. RODS, REELS, LINES, CORKS AND HOOKS.

GRAVITATION HOOKS. THE LARGEST STOCK AND LOWEST PRICES IN THE CITY.

FLINN & BRENNEMAN, 152 NORTH QUEEN STREET, LANCASTER, PENNA.

THE BEST HOOK IN THE MARKET. SPECIAL NOTICES. Hop Flitters are clean, sweet and pleasant to use. Fresh Hooks combined with Balauns and Gams. More powerful than any other person's pattern. 25 cents.

The medicine we most like is that which does work quickly and leaves behind it nothing but health and a perfect appetite. Hop Flitters are the quickest kind of a cure for dyspepsia and liver and kidney affections. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen Street.

Malaria is caused by Torpid Liver; Flies by Constipation; Headache by Indigestion. Alleviate them by using the GRAVITATION REMEDY. Alton's Bitters. Price, 50 cents. All at druggists. J. F. L. W. M. W. F. W. F.

For more information, apply to the undersigned, at 152 North Queen Street, Lancaster, Pa. For more information, apply to the undersigned, at 152 North Queen Street, Lancaster, Pa.

For more information, apply to the undersigned, at 152 North Queen Street, Lancaster, Pa. For more information, apply to the undersigned, at 152 North Queen Street, Lancaster, Pa.

For more information, apply to the undersigned, at 152 North Queen Street, Lancaster, Pa. For more information, apply to the undersigned, at 152 North Queen Street, Lancaster, Pa.

SECOND EDITION. AT CHICAGO.

MONDAY EVENING, JULY 7, 1884. Fearing a Hitch on the Tenth Congress. California for Thurman—Why Kelly Opposes Cleveland.

CHICAGO, June 7.—The Daily News says:—Abram S. Hewitt arrived on Sunday with a tariff plank for the national platform. Although he arrived at a late day he created as much stir as did Henry Watterson when he established his headquarters at the Palmer house. Hewitt's resolution was of a conciliatory nature and seemed to meet the approval of several Western tariff reformers, but it was not sufficiently positive in its declaration against protection to suit the reformers of the most pronounced type.

The Tammany delegates held a five hour caucus last night and adjourned at 1 a. m. The sentiment was unanimous against Cleveland. Shortly after midnight Ben. Burleigh passed through the Tammany crowd into John Kelly's private room, where a long consultation occurred.

When asked directly if he would support Cleveland, if nominated, Kelly replied he would not lift a hand for him. When asked if he would oppose Cleveland, Kelly said you can print this as your own item. I would not oppose any Democratic candidate, but I will not lift a hand to aid the election of Grover Cleveland, if he is nominated. I could not afford to. He then went on to argue that Tammany's strength is based on labor votes, and they could not be swayed for Cleveland.

A joint resolution has been passed by the Senate and concurred in by the House providing for final adjournment at 2 p. m. on the 10th inst. The Senate adjourned at 10 o'clock on Friday night, and adjourned at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning.

THE TAILORS' GUILD ALIVE AND BOOMING. EVERY ONE AT HIS POST RECEIVING. NO DULL BEANS FOR US. IT IS KID HO.

LONDON CHEVIT WORSTED SERGES. FULL INDIGO COLORS; 20 cut to the yard. THE BEST ARTICLE IN THE WORLD FOR SERVICE. which can be made up in the Best Style and Trimming at the Low Price of $25.00.

THE PENNSYLVANIA DELEGATION.

What Was Done at Their Meeting To-day—Official Session.—Special to the INTELLIGENCER. The Pennsylvania delegation held a meeting to-day, there being fifty-nine delegates present. In the Lancaster county district, Gen. Patton's substitute, Mr. Buck, not having arrived, Mr. Hensel took his place temporarily. Eckley B. Cox, was elected chairman without opposition and Chas H. Hanner, secretary. The first contest caused over the question as to whether the selections for subordinate places should be given to a committee of five or nine, or decided in full meeting. After sharp issue it was decided to determine it in full meeting. W. S. Dewart was unanimously named for vice president and J. K. Bogert, secretary. For committee on credentials, Robert P. Allen was named; organizer, Robert S. Patterson, for member of resolutions committee; the vote was Hay 33, Sowden 10, Zeiger 10.

There is no absolute change in the situation here. New York by the vote of Kings county is for Cleveland by 50 to 23. The opposition to him is still vigorous and effective, and though his nomination is more likely than any other, it is not yet assured. The west is generally for Cleveland, as between Bayard and him, and the South is for him. It looks as if the pull would first be between these two with no certainty of result, and everything after that is in doubt. As Cleveland becomes stronger the opposition to him intensifies, and is very bitter. His friends claim that it is exactly parallel with the opposition in St. Louis in 1876, and will be equally effective.

There is no absolute change in the situation here. New York by the vote of Kings county is for Cleveland by 50 to 23. The opposition to him is still vigorous and effective, and though his nomination is more likely than any other, it is not yet assured. The west is generally for Cleveland, as between Bayard and him, and the South is for him. It looks as if the pull would first be between these two with no certainty of result, and everything after that is in doubt. As Cleveland becomes stronger the opposition to him intensifies, and is very bitter. His friends claim that it is exactly parallel with the opposition in St. Louis in 1876, and will be equally effective.

There is no absolute change in the situation here. New York by the vote of Kings county is for Cleveland by 50 to 23. The opposition to him is still vigorous and effective, and though his nomination is more likely than any other, it is not yet assured. The west is generally for Cleveland, as between Bayard and him, and the South is for him. It looks as if the pull would first be between these two with no certainty of result, and everything after that is in doubt. As Cleveland becomes stronger the opposition to him intensifies, and is very bitter. His friends claim that it is exactly parallel with the opposition in St. Louis in 1876, and will be equally effective.

There is no absolute change in the situation here. New York by the vote of Kings county is for Cleveland by 50 to 23. The opposition to him is still vigorous and effective, and though his nomination is more likely than any other, it is not yet assured. The west is generally for Cleveland, as between Bayard and him, and the South is for him. It looks as if the pull would first be between these two with no certainty of result, and everything after that is in doubt. As Cleveland becomes stronger the opposition to him intensifies, and is very bitter. His friends claim that it is exactly parallel with the opposition in St. Louis in 1876, and will be equally effective.

There is no absolute change in the situation here. New York by the vote of Kings county is for Cleveland by 50 to 23. The opposition to him is still vigorous and effective, and though his nomination is more likely than any other, it is not yet assured. The west is generally for Cleveland, as between Bayard and him, and the South is for him. It looks as if the pull would first be between these two with no certainty of result, and everything after that is in doubt. As Cleveland becomes stronger the opposition to him intensifies, and is very bitter. His friends claim that it is exactly parallel with the opposition in St. Louis in 1876, and will be equally effective.

There is no absolute change in the situation here. New York by the vote of Kings county is for Cleveland by 50 to 23. The opposition to him is still vigorous and effective, and though his nomination is more likely than any other, it is not yet assured. The west is generally for Cleveland, as between Bayard and him, and the South is for him. It looks as if the pull would first be between these two with no certainty of result, and everything after that is in doubt. As Cleveland becomes stronger the opposition to him intensifies, and is very bitter. His friends claim that it is exactly parallel with the opposition in St. Louis in 1876, and will be equally effective.