RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of William J. Cough in, of Semerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in n,y left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medteines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of PE. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughe at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bettle to satisfy them, when to my surprise as d gratification, I commenced to feel better My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to lay I feel in better spirits than I have

After one of the most notable conventions in the history of the party, Stephen | Hendricks 1, Tilden 2, Thurman 22, Cleve detail at Chicago will be found below. CHICAGO, July 11 .- While it seems to be pretty generally believed that Cleve-

if he is not successful after a few ballots, an effort will be made to turn the convention to Hendricks. Cleveland's friends claim he will be nominated on the third Hendricks has just entered the conven tion. [Tremendous cheering ] It is said that Randall's influence will be turned to Cleveland this morning. McDonald, Rose crans and Vilas are names most prominent for the vice president. It it reliably stated that Colorado will change its vote to Cleveland on the fourth ballot this morning. The convention is assembling. The Cleveland men claim Illinois will cast its solid vote for Cleveland on the coming ballot, and that Pennsyl vania will give him 40 votes, a gain of 35, and that Cleveland will poli at least 450 votes on the first ballot.

The convention was called to order at 11:04 a. m. A number of telegrams from various parts of the country, suggesting proper persons to be nominated, were laid on the table. Some Conflicting Rumor. CHICAGO, July 11.-It is understood this morning that Randall will withdraw and permit the vote of Pennsylvania to be cast for Cleveland. This gives great hope to the friends of that candidate that he will be nominated on the second ballot. The opposition, under the lead of Butler and Kelly, will make an effort to prevent the ncrease of Cleveland's strength on the second ballot, in the belief that it will then be possible to turn the tide to some other candidate, possibly to the representative of the old ticket by Hendricks. Hon. Patrick Walsh, a delegate-at-large from Georgia, expresses the opinion to the as sociated press that Cleveland will be nomi nated on the first ballot this morning.

Onto Delegates Renounce Their Canaldates The following telegram has been sent to he Democracy of Cuyahoga county, Ohio: "We the undersigned, your representa-tives in the national convention, familiar with the entire situation are satisfied that neither Thurman nor Hoadly can be nominated. That Thurman's name is suggested simply by Tammany and other interests opposed to Cleveland, and we believe Cleveland will most probably be nominated. . [Signed]

The convention was called to order at 11 o'clock, and prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Clinton Locke, of Chicago, He prayed that in the great and noble contest which was opening before the American people, there would be a cessation from strife and anger, that men's eyes should not be blinded to that which is fair and just, that all corruption, bribery and illegal voting be kept far away, and that after the election the whole people may join in their support of the president. A Wild Effort for Hendricks. Here there suddenly broke out a scene of wild, general and enthusiastic cheering and waving of hats, fans and handkerchiefs. It was impossible for the chair to suppress it, although he tried. the delegates and spectators took part in it. It was the first exhibition of genuino enthusiasm in the convention; it was renewed again and again, and flually, the airs. Umbrellas were also brought into requisition, and banners were carried around; in fact, the Blaine demonstration of five weeks was again repeated. This con amore interruption of proceedings occupied 15 minutes.

Hendricks himself was not present, having left the hall just previously. At the end of a quarter of an hour, and while the uproar was at its height, Voorbees mounted the platform and announced that at the request of the Indiana delegation, he withdrew the name of McDonald, for the purpose at the proper time of casting the vote of Indiana for Hendricks. This renewed the cheering, which was kept up for several minutes longer.

The rest of the state of Illinois was announced as follows : For Cleveland, 38. This was the opportunity for the friends of the New York candidate, and they availed themselves of it, the delegation from the state rising to their feet and cheering lustily, while they waved fans, hats and handkerchiefs. The spectators took part in the demonstration, but not to the same extent as in the case of Hen-dricks. The band joined in with the air, "We Won't Go Home Till Morning, which seemed to stimulate this enthusi-asm. This seeme lasted three or four minutes.

Illinois continued : Bayard 3, McDonald 1, Illinois giving one vote less than the full number. Indiana gave Hendricks 30; Iowa; gave Cleveland 22, Hendricks 4, At this point the Pennsylvania delegation asked leave to retire for consultation. A New York delegate objected, but the chair dec ded that the Pennsylvania delegation had the right to retire for consultation, and it did so amid great excitement.

Continuing the Balloting. During the confusion it was announced that another vote bad been gained in Illinois for Hendricks. The vote, therefore, stands, Cleveland 38, McDonald 1, Bayard 3, Hendricks 2. The call of the roll proceeded—Kansas: Thurman 2, Bayard 4, Cleveland 12; Missouri; Cleveland 2, Bayard 14, Cleveland 2, Hendricks 2; Nebraska: Bayard 1.
