FALSE PRETENSE.

Complaints against Alderman Spurrier, Constable Eicholtz and ex-officer Lemon. A few days ago the county commissioners...

The facts, as given by J. H. Fry, selling the county commissioners, are substantially as follows: About a year ago Samuel Greenley, of Manheim township...

Baker Bros. wrote to Mr. McCordell, who came on and identified the horse, paid the reward and took the animal away with him.

They then brought a civil suit for the recovery of the money from Alderman Spurrier, who fixed a date for the hearing.

At the appointed time, Mr. Greenley, the defendant, was on hand at the alderman's office, but the prosecutor, Baker Bros., did not put in an appearance.

Alderman Foinley issued warrants for the arrest of Spurrier, Eicholtz and Lemon, and they gave bail for a hearing to be held on Monday at 10 o'clock.

THE SOUTHERN END. Items from that section clipped and condensed from the Mt. Joy Star.

An art is on foot to remove the post-office from the Mt. Joy Star building.

A campmeeting will commence tomorrow in Shook's grove, midway between Mount Joy and Columbia.

The excursion from Elizabethtown to Mount Gretna, which was to come off yesterday, was last week entirely given up.
