KITTY'S PRAYER.

No, nary drink; obliged old boy,
But I've shut down on that sort o' thing;
'Twill be a mighty long time, you bet,
Before I take a swing.
Yes, it's all very nice for the fellows
To go out and "paint" the town;
You're way up now, but just keep it up,
And see how you'll feel when your down.

I'll tell you how 'twas, old fellow,
I was loafing around the town;
Money was out and grub was scarce—
You can bet my heart was down.
Most all that I had was put "in soak;"
I was sick, discouraged and blue:
"Hard up" don't express the fix I was in,
But how hard up nobody knew.

Well, I met my Kitty one evening,
And I looked like I had been on a spree.
I hadn't; 'twas sickness; without any "stuff,"
One can't well buy drinks d'ye see?
But I tell you I felt sort o' mean an' low
When we started to take that walk,
Till somehow the darkness changed to light,
List'ning to that girl's talk.

At last she said as we parted:
"I'll pray for you, dear, to-night—
Pray as I've often prayed before,
You'll have strength to do what's right."
I'm a pretty hard subject to pray for,
But old boy, d'ye know I swear
(For I struck my luck the very next day),
That the Lord heard Kitty's prayer?

A Cure for Hay Fever.

Philadelphia Bulletin.

A well known gentleman of this city, Mr. John F. Young, a regular member of the noble army of hay-fever martyrs, sends us from Rye Beach, N. H., a communication, fully endorsing Mr. Dio Lewis's theory of the "hay-field" cure. Mr. Young writes: "I have just been reading the letter of Dio Lewis in reference to the cure of hay fever, and your comments. For one I can bear witness to the correctness of his observations, that open air labor will cure hay fever. In the summer of 1875, after extreme suffering for many years I moved out of the city to my farm. The first summer, I was obliged to go from home to find relief. The succeeding summers, through a scarcity of help, I frequently took an active part in out-door work before going to my office in the city and upon my return home in the afternoon. From that time forward, to my utter surprise and delight, I found myself altogether free from it. Although I have not been on a farm to do out door work since 1880, I have not had a return of it to any very perceptible degree, and, indeed, I consider myself cured. I hope this may meet the eye of many sufferers, and that they may be induced to try this simple, healthful and inexpensive remedy."

A Strange Bird.

From a bunch of bananas that had just been hung up in a fruiterer's establishment, at Concord, N. H., some days ago, there dropped a little object that proved, on examination, to be a bird, of a species unknown to any one that saw it. It was alive when picked up, although so exhausted as to be unable to stand, and breathed with some difficulty. It revived in a short time, and before night was bright and lively, and so tame as to eat flies from the hands of his captors. It is supposed the bird was fed too many flies, as it was found dead Thursday morning. The general opinion is that the bird must have been shipped from the tropics in the bunch of bananas, in which it had in some way become entangled. It was of small size, spotted black and white, and some what resembled a woodpecker.

It Is Terrible

to have a wife or husband with a bad breath. This may be avoided by using SOZODONT. It is agreeable to the taste, fragrant and healthful. It confers comfort on its users, and prevents the affliction of unpleasant breath.

LET THESE THINGS BE CONSIDERED.

Thousands of men die every day who could be saved. Prejudice is mainly to blame for this loss of life. If it were believed that the sum of disease may certainly be reduced by physic, much would be gained. And yet the proposition is very simple: If you take out daily more impurities than is daily generated, you will soon be rid of impurities. The effect of this wise practice is soon seen in Bilious, Liver, and Kidney troubles. But it is equally of value in head and brain affections; in Pleurisy, Pneumonia, Apoplexy, and Paralysis.

In chronic and acute Rheumatism, and in all affections of the bowels, this principle soon relieves and cures, when the medicine used is BRANDRETH PILLS.

Yes, when all other means and medicine have failed to relieve from pain, these pills have cured, by taking impurities from the bowels and blood, and thousands of men and women now place BRANDRETH'S PILLS among the blessings of mankind.

HAVING DISSOLVED PARTNERSHIP and permanently closed the Chestnut Street Iron Works, I desire to inform my old patrons and the public generally, that I am still in the business, being located in the Penn Iron Company's Works, North Plum street, where I am making Iron and Brass Castings of every description, and will be pleased to serve all who may favor me with their patronage. From 40 years experience in the business and using the best material and employing the best mechanics, I am satisfied I can guarantee entire satisfaction. Castings made from a mixture of iron and steel which are more reliable for strength and durability than the best cast iron known. Y teeth roll pinions, rolls and rolling mill work a specialty. Castings made of very soft iron, and brass castings of every description. I have all the patters of the well and favorably known Mowrer Corn and Cob Crusher, refitted and improved. Also on hand, mills completely fitted up or in parts, to replace old ones which have been in use for years, guaranteeing them to give satisfaction. aug14-6md R. C. McCULLEY.
