CROP PROSPECTS.

Reports from Texas, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

Concerning the present drought and the condition of the crops in Texas the News says: "The accounts from growing crops that continue to reach the News are anything but encouraging. In some districts a full crop of corn is assured, but in many portions of the state even the corn crop is not satisfactory. The yield of wheat and small grain has been abundant wherever planted. Cotton in all sections is in a precarious condition from the continued drought. The heavy rains of the spring and early summer retarded planting operations, and the crop, such as it is, is very late. The drought of the past six or eight weeks has stunted the growth, and everywhere the cry come up for rain. Should the drought continue for two weeks longer incalculable injury will be done and the cotton crop will be cut short disastrously. On the other hand, with general rains within a week or two a fair cotton yield may yet be made. The situation of the cotton crop in Texas is certainly critical."

Crop reports from Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky to the Commercial Gazette, are that wheat is the best in quantity and quality gathered in years. Corn has suffered from drought, but the rains this week have rescued it, and the yield will be an average one. Oats—good crop. Tobacco has suffered more from drought than anything else, and in some localities it is a failure, the rain being too late. In others the plant is in excellent condition, but the yield will be below the average. The rainy weather continues. A good rain fell here last night.

George Eliot's Religion.

Bombay (Ind.) Weekly Register.

Admirers of George Eliot, who were pained by the jaunty tone of allusions to religion contained in her recently republished early "Essays," will discover a difference in the character of remarks on similar subjects scattered through the private letters, written in more mature life, which have just been published. "I pray you," she writes to a friend, "do not ask me again not to strip a man of his religious faith, as if you thought me capable of thinking of such a thing * * * * I have too profound a conviction of the efficacy which resides in all sincere faith, and of the moral barrenness which follows the absence of faith to foster in any way the spirit of negative propaganda. In fact, I have very little sympathy with the clan of Freethinkers, and I have lost all interest in purely anti-religious polemics."

George Washington's Spelling.

San Francisco Bulletin.

General Butler asserted in the Chicago convention that George Washington's early education was so neglected that he never learned to spell correctly, and in his will wrotes "cloathes" instead of "clothes." In a volume of selections from the Bible before me, printed in London, 1714, in Matthew xxi, 7, it is written: "And put on them their cloathes," and Matthew vii, 15: "Beware of false prophets which come to you in sheep's cloathing." Edward Everett, in his famous lecture, says the boy Washington was taught daily from the Bible and Prayer Book. I have a copy of Washington's "Farewell Address," printed in September, 1796, doubtless from an authentic manuscript, in which Washington, in the first sentence, wrote "cloathed," because he found the word so written in his Bible and in other books of his day.

Put On.

The cruelty of woman's criticism some times goes beyond life. "Did you ever see a more natural corpse than Mrs. Podson?" asked a lady of a friend. "Such a contented smile."

"Contented smile!" said the friend. "It was all put on."

No Limit to Advertising.

Albany Express.

We shall not be surprised, by and by, to hear that Mary Anderson is going to elope with Pere Hyacinthe.

The rose bud opening to the morn,
While yet the dew hangs on the thorn,
Exhales less sweetness than is wont
To breathe from lips that SOZODONT
Has touched with a soft crimson glow
That shows the dazzling teeth off so.

Letter From Cyrus W. Field, Jr.

8 EAST 50TH STREET,
NEW YORK, May 8th, 1883

Several times this winter I have suffered from severe Colds on my Lungs. Each time I have applied ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS, and in every instance I have been quickly relieved by applying one across my chest and one on my back. My friends, through my advice, have tried the experiment and also found it most successful. I feel that I can recommend them most highly to anyone who may see fit to try them.

CYRUS W. FIELD, JR.

Weak Back, Rheumatism and all Local Pains are relieved and cured by ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. One trial will convince you, but see that you get the genuine, as all other so-called Porous Plasters, without a single exception, are worthless imitations.

Kicked Out.

How many people there are who are struggling to rise in this world that are kicked down and out by envious rivals. Thomas' Eclectric Oil never "kicked out" its patrons. It is true blue. For throat affection, asthma and catarrh it is a certain and rapid cure. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

Ladies, Attention! In the Diamond Dyes more coloring is given than in any known dyes, and they give faster and more brilliant colors. 10c, at all druggists. Everybody praises them. Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt.

Some Strong-Minded Women

Can regulate their husbands amazingly fast should they not do their duty. Burdock Blood Bitters are a good regulator of the circulation. They are exclusively a blood tonic, and consequently strike at the root of many serious ailments. For sale by H. B Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

An Answer Wanted.

Can any one bring us a case of Kidney or Liver Complaint that Electric Bitters will not speedily cure? We say they can not, as thousands of cases already permanently cured and who are daily recommending Electric Bitters, will prove. Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Weak Back, or any urinary complaint quickly cured. They purify the blood, regulate the bowels, and act directly on the diseased parts. Every bottle guaranteed. For sale at 50c a bottle by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa. (1)

No Deception Used.

It is strange so many people will continue to suffer day after day with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Sour Stomach, General Debility, when they can procure at our store SHILOH'S VITALIZER, free of cost if it does not cure or relieve them. Price, 75 cents. Sold by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster. fed14-eod5

Twenty-four Hours to Live.

From John Kuhn, Lafayette, Ind., who announces that he is now in "perfect health," we have the following: "One year ago I was, to all appearance, in the last stages of Consumption. Our best physicians gave my case up. I finally got so low that our doctor said I could only live twenty-four hours. My friends then purchased a bottle of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, which considerably benefitted me. I continued until I took nine bottles, and I am now in perfect health.

COLDEN'S Liquid Beef Tonic is admirably adapted for invalids in delicate health. Colden's; no other. Of druggists.
