Texas Fever Among Columbia Cattle—A Boy Kicked by a Mule—Lad Nearly Drowned—Town Notes.

Messrs. Erb and Mummaw noticed that some of their cattle had a peculiar disease for the past few days. They sent for Dr. F. Bridge, of Philadelphia, state veterinary surgeon, and Mr. Thomas I. Edge, secretary of the Pennsylvania board of agriculture, who were in town this morning and examined all their cattle. They pronounced the disease to be Texas fever and only one or two affected. This disease is not contagious in the manner of native cattle giving it to other cattle but only Texas breed can give it to our cattle. Texas fever in cattle will not descend from one generation to another. The disease is not dangerous either for breeding or for beeves.

A Marriage and Death.

At the St. Paul's Episcopal church on Thursday, August 1, by the Rev. F. J. Clay Moran, B. D., Mr. Henry Hilt and Miss Elizabeth A. Ritter, of Lower Windsor township, York county, Pa.

This morning at 3 o'clock Hiram L. Bachman, son of John B. Bachman, died after a lingering illness of several months. The cause of his death was consumption.

Severely Kicked by a Mule.

A young colored boy living on Fifth street, was driving some cows to pasture, and when in the field on Mifflin's farm, approached too close to a mule and was severely kicked in the face and breast by that animal. He had to be taken home, and is now confined to bed on account of the injuries received.

Nearly Drowned.

A party of boys were swimming at the shute at Bletz's log pond last evening. The water is very swift at this place and Charles Shaffer came nearly being drowned. He was disappearing for the second time when one of his companions, Harry Courtney, rescued him.

Police Notes.

Mrs. F. Stephens, a colored woman, living in Bank alley, had her daughter, Maggie, arrested for disorderly conduct. At the hearing last night at Squire Evans' there was as much evidence produced against the mother as the daughter, so the justice of the peace come to the conclusion that both were alike and discharged the case and divided the costs equally between the plaintiff and defendant.

Laura Smith, a colored girl of about sixteen years, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Davis, had complaint entered against her for incorrigible conduct, a warrant was issued for her arrest but when the officer went for her he experienced considerable difficulty in effecting her capture. She was taken before Squire Evans, who remanded her to jail to be taken before the judges in order to have her committed to the House of Refuge.

Chris. Hildebrand, a well known character in our police courts and at the Lancaster jail, has been again arrested. This time for keeping a disorderly house. His place is a regular rendezvous for both colored and white and he has harbored the colored girl Laura Smith for the past week. He was bound over by Squire Evans, for a futher hearing at the next term of court.

Town Notes.

Butcher alley is being paved from Third to Second streets, and some of our streets are being repaired. They certainly needed attention.

The regular monthly meeting of council for this month will be held to night in the council chamber.

The Ironville Sunday-school was at Heise's woods yesterday. Some Columbia people went out to enjoy the picnic. The Ironville band was present.

A large excursion from Ephrata, Lincola and different points along the Reading railroad, will picnic at Heise's woods tomorrow. About 1,200 people are expected.

THE PHILADELPHIA CITY TROOP.

Romantic Incident Connected With Their Passage Through This County.

From the Philadelphia Press.

All along the route the natives lined the road, and gazed with astonishment at the spectacle of these scions of Philadelphia aristocracy riding under the burning sun, and weighted with overcoats in front and blankets behind and carbines at the sides. In the nose bags for the horses were carried the oats. Perhaps the severest trial of the troopers' march was encountered between Coatesville and Lancaster, when an old cavalryman, attracted by a familiar bugle call rushed out of his house and presented Captain Grubb with a slip cut out of a newspaper dated 1815. On one side was a poem written for the First City Troop of Philadelphia cavalry, by Saul Allen, to the air of "The Glasses Sparkle." On the other side was an obituary of Robert Fulton, the Hudson river steamboat pioneer. The last verse of this poem, which has not seen the light for many years, runs:

Then do not spurn your guards, ye fair,
Nor slightly hold their name,
A prouder office none can bear,
Since angels do the same.

That eye that speaks, those blushing cheeks,
Shall all our cases beguile:
What lance could ever half so clear,
As lovely woman's smile?

The troop met and passed this reminiscence of their predecessors' gallantry with commendable fortitude. Indeed, Captain Grubb brought his command of thirty-eight into camp without a sick man or a lame horse. Colonel Volkmaar of Sheridan's staff, remarked that the troop had covered twice the distance that regular army cavalry would be expected to accomplish in the same time.

There will be dancing every day and evening and members of the Grand Army will be present from all over the state.

Treated His Wife Badly.

Frank Schmidt, residing at 414 Low street, was arrested this afternoon by Chief Haines and Constable Kline, on warrants issued by Alderman Barr. The allegation is that he struck his wife, threatened to kill her if she made complaint against him, and that he has for some time back failed to support his family. He was committed for a hearing.

Beecher's Bad Head.

For two months in the year Henry Ward Beecher can't preach. In August and September he takes his vacation and endures the onset of the hay fever. A man with hay fever isn't accountable for his actions. He is frantic with snuffing, sneezing and headache. Every nerve in his skull thrills with distress, and his head is a fountain of tears. He lives only to fly from seaside to mountain-top in search of relief. This form of catarrh (hay fever) Ely's Cream Balm will cure. Placed in the nostrils it penetrates and soothes the affected parts at once, restores the impaired senses and creates healthy secretions. You cannot run away from hay fever, but you can drive it from you by using Ely's Cream Balm. 1y28-2wdeod&w

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughe at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold by H. B. Cochran, 137 North Queen street

BRANDY.

Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. SLAYMAKER, Agent for REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE, by a prominent practicing physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those afflicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away the annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive, we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease, Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

BRANDY.

The aged, with feeble appetite, and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy

For all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

Reigart's Old Brandy,

Sold by our enterprising friend, H. E. SLAYMAKER. This brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies—no matter with how many jaw breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics, would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative power of

Reigart's Old Brandy

In cases of Dyspepsia we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we will cite:

A hard working farmer had been afflicted with an exhausting Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

Reigart's Old Brandy

In his case, he looked up with astonishment; but after hearing of his wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was all taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine, he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practicing Physician.

ARRIVALS AT GOVERNOR'S ISLAND.

Saluted by the Firing of Twenty-one Guns—Four Hundred Troops Drawn Up in Line to Receive Them.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—The Alert, Bear and Thetis of the Arctic relief fleet, which lay in the lower bay all last night, weighed anchor about eight o'clock, and steamed slowly towards the harbor. The funeral escort and saluting companies on Governor's Island were gotten in readiness by General Hancock and other officers shortly after nine o'clock. Secretary Lincoln and Generals Sheridan and Huson, with their staffs, arrived on the island about 9:30. At eleven o'clock the lookout announced the vessels in sight, and guns began to fire the funeral salute of 21 guns. Upon the arrival of the vessels the bodies were transported from the Bear to the dock on Governor's island. There were about 400 troops in line to receive them. The bodies will now be given to the friends of the deceased members, as previously announced.

After the bodies were landed they were escorted by the troops to the hospital, where they will lay in state with a guard of honor until the arrival of their friends.

HELENA, Mont., Aug.—Leading citizens and the board of trade of Helena last evening, presented a petition to the secretary of the interior urging immediate action for the relief of three thousand Piegan Indians at the Black Feet agency, who, despite contrary reports are actually starving. The death rate is very great. Stockmen report that cattle have been killed on the ranges by starving Indians.

Over Production the Cause of The Depression.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 9.—The coke operators are loud in their complaints about the depressed condition of the industry, notwithstanding the strenuous efforts put forth by the syndicate to bolster it up. A meeting of the coke producers has been called for on the twentieth instant, when measures will be taken to remedy the evil, and it is probable that the association will order a suspension of operations for some time in the coke region, overwhich they have control.
