Sympathy for a Sharper.

From the Chicago News.

Adjutant General Swaim's court martial will occur next month. The charges against him are of a most serious character, and the manner in which he has conducted himself since the first formal complaint was lodged against him justifies the popular suspicion that he may not be altogether guiltless. We sincerely hope this suspicion will be fully dispelled by the official investigation which is to be made. We must confess that our sympathy is with the man, though purely for sentimental reasons, and we believe this sympathy, for the same reasons, is shared by a large majority of the American public. Swaim was the boon companion and intimate friend of Garfield; he was first among that coterie of personal associates who were familiarly called the chum cabinet. During Garfield's long illness and that last moment at Elberon, Swaim was ever present, his fidelity to his wounded and dying friend serving as one of the tenderest features of the sad time. It seems like a sort of reflection upon Garfield's memory that this man whom he loved and trusted and honored should be charged with these abuses—we will not say crimes—at this time. We cannot disconnect Swaim from our memory of Garfield; so out of the reverence we bear the dead president we hope the cloud that now hangs all about Swaim's reputation may be dispelled. Garfield's last words were "Oh, Swaim!" Perhaps Swaim bears them often repeated by a spirit voice—who does not hear voices that are hushed and who does not see faces that have forever passed away? We were not human did we not hope no tone of reproach would ever bring back to Swaim those words from the spirit land.

Mrs. Langtry's Plans.

Mrs. Langtry, who arrived on the Arizona, remained in London last week completing her preparations for a provincial tour beginning at Newcastle on Monday, including Glasgow, Edinburg, Manchester, Liverpool, and other cities, ending in Birmingham in the middle of November. She regrets that she will probably be obliged to postpone her intended return to America until January. Rejecting several large proposals from London managers, she has about resolved to take a theatre in London and to play with her own company during a season of four months, producing the plays which met with the greatest success in America. She reports that her recent American tour yielded even more brilliant results than her first tour. She acknowledges the kindness of her American audiences, and agree with Mr. Irving that the American public is equally intelligent, critical and amiable. She hopes to return in the autumn of next year.

He Was Glad to Meet Him.

From Drake's Travelers' Magazine.

As the train pulled out of Kansas City recently, bound West, a fine looking old gentleman, who occupied a seat in the smoking car, was accosted by a rank looking specimen of Western humanity. "Goin' far West, stranger?" he asked, "Yes, sir," replied the old gentleman, politely; "I am going to Denver." "Business or pleasure?" "Chiefly for my health." "Ah, yes, I see. From the East, ain't yer?" "Yes, I am president of the Twenty-fifth National bank of New York." "You don't say so!" exclaimed the Westerner. Then he added in a whisper: "Gin us your hand, old pard, I'm right glad to meet yer. I'm a Missouri train robber."

Letter From Dr. Serre.

18 WEST 35TH STREET, NEW YORK, June 1, 1883.

I have been a sufferer in the past with Malaria, which finally became Chills and Fever. Treatment by my physician failed to help me. I used BRANDRETH'S PILLS and was cured. Thirteen months have elapsed since then, and I have had no recurrence. Other members of my family used them for the same trouble, with the same good result.

I cheerfully endorse them for that illness, and also as a pleasant laxative or purgative, according to the number taken. They are now a household remedy with me, and I am never without them. I would gladly give the details of the foregoing to any who might choose to call upon me for them.

J. E. SERRE, Dentist.

HAVING DISSOLVED PARTNERSHIP and petmanently closed the Chestnut Street Iron Works, I desire to inform my old patrons and the public generally, that I am still in the business, being located in the Penn Iron Company's Works, North Plum street, where I am making Iron and Brass Castings of every destription, and will be pleased to serve all who may favor me with their patronage. From 40 years experience in the business and using the best material and employing the best mechanics, I am satisfied I can guarantee entire satisfaction. Castings made from a mixture of iron and steel which are more reliable for strength and durability than the best cast iron known. Teeth roll pinions, rolls and rolling mill work a specialty. Castings made of very soft iron, and brass castings of every description. I have all the patterns of the well and favorably known Mowrer Corn and Cob Crusher, refitted and improved. Also on hand, mills completely fitted up or in parts, to replace old ones which have been in use for years, guaranteeing them to give satisfaction.
