

Lancaster Intelligencer. MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 1, 1884. Young Logan at West Point. When young Logan came up he was much enough to wear a high silk hat. He was immediately seized, mounted on the mantelpiece, an empty water bucket turned over his head, a coal scuttle on top of that, his imposing tile on top of the coal scuttle, and a cavalry helmet surmounted the whole. Thus mounted, he was forced to sing "I'm getting a big boy, now," which he did with tears in his eyes. Next day a first class man came to him and mentioned that he had just received a letter from Mr. Augustus Daly, asking him to secure an actor for the leading part in a play called "The Good Samaritan" that he had observed a striking dramatic talent in him (Logan), and proposed to give him his first rehearsal at his part there and there. He marched him over to the barracks, fished out a jacket which needed some buttons on it, produced a needle and thread, and in half a minute young Logan was playing the Good Samaritan to perfection sewing on the first class man's buttons for the first time.

IN LIFE 150 YEARS. Impurity of Blood, however generated, is always present in the body when pain is felt; it spreads and remains wherever a weak spot or low vitality exists. BRANBURN'S PILLS are the one great and unfailing remedy, because they take hold and expel only what is harmful, so when sick, have pain, distention, rheumatism, colds, or constiveness, take from three to five, and if they do not operate in four hours or so, take three or four more. They cleanse the bowels and circulation from all impurities of the blood, and often save the BRANBURN'S PILLS produce the vigor of youth, and for a long period keep off the double of age. Sold in every drug and medicine store, with plain printed directions for use.

THE FEEBLE GROW STRONG. When Brantburn's Stomach Bitters is used to promote assimilation of the food and enrich the blood, indigestion, the chief obstacle to the acquisition of strength by the weak is an ailment which infallibly succumbs to the action of this restorative. Loss of flesh and appetite, failure to sleep, and growing evidence of premature decay, are speedily counteracted by the great invigorant, which braces up the physical energy, and fortifies the constitution against disease. For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

THE HEMORRHOIDAL AFFECTION. No one thinks of raising the dead, though some desparately close to death above have been completely restored by Brantburn's Stomach Bitters to genuine and lasting health. For sale by H. H. Cochran, Druggist, 127 and 129 North Queen Street.

DR. DYER'S VOLTAIC BELT. Electro Appliances are sent on 30 Days' trial. O MEN ONLY.
