COMMON PLEAS.

The Jurors Discharged after the Selection of the Brickerville Jury.

BEFORE JUDGE PATTERSON.

In the suit of Henry S. Keen vs. Jacob S. and Franklin G. Shirk, the jury this morning rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $325.41.

The Brickerville church case was attached for trial this morning. This was an action of ejectment brought by Edward K. Siebert et. al against Mr. Fensler et.al. The property in dispute belongs to the Brickerville church and was deeded by the Penns to the Lutheran church of Warwick, (now Penn township) in 1743. It was managed by trustees chosed by the church and there was no dispute until about 1866 when Rev. Harpel was the pastor of the church. During his administration there were charges preferred against him, heard by the old ministerium synod and he was suspended. He then connected himself with the east Pennsylvania synod and took with him one of the officers and part of the congregation. The difficulty has been in litigation ever since, the East Pennsylvania synod people being in possession and the ministerium party trying to oust them. The case will occupy at least two weeks in its trial and has been fully reported in our columns twice.

There being no cases ready for trial this week, on account of counsel being engaged in the Brickerville church case a jury was selected and the balance of the jurors were discharged.

Amusements.

"Dan's Tribulations."—Mart Hanley possesses the sole right to present the plays of Ned Harrigan in the country. On Friday evening his company will give "Dan's Tribulations" in the opera house. The Philadelphia Press says of them: "'Dan's Tribulations,' as presented by M. W. Hanley's company, were quite as laughable as the original Mulligan himself could have desired; Mr. Joseph Sparks as Dan Mulligan, gave an orthotox, although a slightly solemn representation of the Irishman who is the central figure of the alley in which his grocery is the common headquarters of Irish laborers, colored 'fokes' and Chinamen. Mr. Peter Goldrich and Simpson Primrose, carried off the honors as an Ethiopian Bill Sykes, whose ruling passion for roguery endures through a mock funeral into the coffin and icebox itself. Mr. Banna: came out strong as Jeremiah Stitl, and N. B. Felter as John Quigley, the typical 'Mick,' honest hearted and red headed, yielded the palm for Irish character representation only to Mr. John Welsh, whose Honorah Dublin bullied the police, scared a light-fingered Chinaman into convulsions and terrified the denizens of an entire court."

"A Bunch of Keys."—To-morrow and Thursday evenings "A Bunch of Keys" will be presented in the opera house by Dudley McAdow's company, headed by Miss Flora Moore, the charming young actress. The company has appeared here before to big business, and t will no doubt be well received.

After prayer by Rev. Dr. J. S. McIntosh, Professor Wm. P. Latham, president of the Franklin Institute made the opening address which was heartily cheered by those present. Governor Pattison here stepped forward and was introduced. He said Pennsylvania was to be congratulated for the presence of this exhibition within its boarders.
