OBITUARY.

Mrs. Sarah murray, of Harrisburg

Mrs. Sarah Murray, of Barrisburg. Mrs. Sarah Murray, relict of the late John Murray, died at her residence in Harrisburg, Wednesday morning, in the eighty first year of her age, after an illness of five months. Mrs. Murray was born in Langford, Ireland, in 1803. Her father, Major Grey, of the British service, was born in Edinburgh, Sootland. Her mother was a lineal desendant of the Holmess. born in Edinburgh, Scotland. Her mother was a lineal descendant of the Holmeses', a family of influence and respectability in Ireland. Mrs. Murray came to this country with her husband in November 1826 or 1827. He had been extensively engaged in the drygoods business in Ire-land before he emigrated to the United States and resided for a time in New York. Philadelphia and Lancaster. He came to 'hiladelphia and Lancaster. He came to Harrisburg in 1832 and established a drygoods store on Second street, adjoining Buehler's (now Belton's) hotel. He died in 1852, leaving a family of six small children, four daughters and two sons, viz : Mrs. Jane M. Keenan, Col. Wm. Groy Murray, Miss Julia A. Murray, Mrs. Thomas Collins, wife of the noted railroad contractor, and Michael J. Murray, who died at Demarara, South America, in 1852. The first named is the widow of the late 'rancis Keenan, years ago a well known Lancaster lawyer. The funeral of the de-ceased will take place in Harrisburg at 10 o'clock ou Monday morning. Mrs. David H. Wylls,

It is our painful duty to record the death of Mrs. Emily D. Wylie, wile of David H. Wylie, which occurred at an early hour this morning. She was the daughter of Henry P. Carson, and sister of H E. Car. son, of the INTELLIGENCER. She had been sick only a short time, and her death was very unexpected. She had a wide circle of this city who will be greatly pained at her domise in the prime of her womanhood. Her husband and family have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.
