A TEN-INNING CONTEST.

The Ironsides Win the Second Game of the Series After an Exciting Struggle.

The Ironsides and Lancaster met a second time at McGrann's park yesterday and played a most exciting game in the presence of about 600 people. The Ironsides won the toss and neither side scored in the first inning. In the second inning Stevens scored on his own and Richardson's hit and opportune errors of the Ironsides. In the latter half of this inning the Lancaster became rattled and allowed their opponents to score five runs. McTamany, Oldfield, Donald and Bradley made hits and Holland a double error at third on Pyle's hot grounder, which accounted for the result. Wetzell and Stevens scored in the fourth inning for Lancaster, after which neither side tallied until the eighth inning, when Lancaster added two runs tying the score.

The ninth inning closed with no result, and in the tenth Stevens for the Lancaster, alone reached first base. The Ironsides came in for their half of the inning with the crowd on tiptoe with excitement. Donald opened with a clean base hit past second base and Bradley was given his base by being struck with a pitched ball. At this critical juncture Holland had a disastrous passed ball, on which Donald came home scoring the winning run, Wetzell failing to hold the ball at the home plate. A deafening cheer greeted the result from the adherents of the victors that was long continued. The full score follows:

Notes of the Game.

At Mount Joy, yesterday, the Dauntless defeated the Vigils of Newtown, by the score of 6 to 0.

The Lancaster club was to have played in Westminster, Maryland, to-day, but they missed the train this morning.

This morning the Ironsides left for New York. They took Zecher late of the Littles town club, with them to catch for Hyndman. They form the battery to-day.

Yesterday a party of young men who were stationed on the grand stand at the game, showed very bad taste in hissing and hooting at Goodman every time he went to the bat. These same young men pretend to respectability but allow their prejudices to run away with their sense of fairness.

COLUMBIA NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondent

The Columbia and Vigilant fire companies, which participated in the firemen's parade in York, highly praise the manner of their reception. The former was the guest of the Rescue and the latter of the Laurel. Both Columbia steamers were greatly admired.

About fifty pupils of the Columbia high and grammar schools went to Philadelphia this morning, to the electrical exhibition. The principal, Miss Lillian Welsh, accompanied them.

Owing to the reported illness of Mr. Franklin, the leading man in the "N. Y." dramatic company, that play will not be rendered in Columbia, either this or to-morrow evening.

Mr. Fred. Bucher yesterday purchased for building purposes 162 feet of ground on Walnut street above Seventh, from the Columbia Building association and from Mrs. Sharkey, of Mauch Chunk, 97 feet of ground on Walnut and Eighth streets.

Condensed Items.

The Columbia (las) ball club was defeated in York on Thursday by the score of 15 to 3.—The Republican meeting in armory hall was not attended by the local politicians.—Hugh McLain, a tramp, was arrested yesterday by Officer Wittick for drunkenness. He was released after paying costs.—Mrs. McClellan, of Altoona, is visiting her friend, Mrs. Nicholas Gilman.—A meeting will be held in the Methodist Sunday school room at this S p. m, to decided about the Sunday school going to the electrical exhibition next week.—'Squire Evans has received the value of the man found drowned in the river some time ago, from the authorities at Washington, D. C., wither it had been sent for identification, as it was thought deceased was a member of a gang of robbers who infested that city. It was a mistake.

The New East King Street Engine House.

At the meeting of the fire committee of councils on Thursday evening, plans for the engine and truck house to be erected on East King street, on the property recently purchased from Henry Stamm, were submitted by Mr. Urban, architect. The committee propose erecting a two story engine and truck house with cupola on top. The building will have a frontage of 32 feet and a depth of 60 feet and in the rear and separate from the engine house the stable for the horses will be built. Bids for the erection of the same will be asked for at an early day.

Throwing Stones on the Street.

Yesterday a party of boys, who are employed at stores and other places in the first square of West King street, became engaged in a quarrel and began throwing at each other. One hurled a stone at another, which struck the glass window in the store of John Gemperling, breaking it to pieces. Lyman White, Samuel Dorwart and two brothers named Fdick were arrested and held by Alderman McConomy for a hearing.

Sales of Real Estate

Samuel Hess, auctioneer, on Thursday, sold for Dr. P. W. Hiestand, assignee of John K. Bender, a tract of land in Manor township, containing 30 acres and 48 perches, with improvements, to John K. Nissley, for $318 per acre; also for the same assigned estate a tract of four acres of land, without improvements, to Amos Martin, for $704.80.

Charged With Assaulting His Wife

Abram Nowlen, charged with assaulting his wife, was to have been heard by Alderman Barr on Thursday evening, but the case was continued until Monday evening to give the parties an opportunity to settle the differences.

IS HE AN ESCAPED MURDERER?

Man in Custody at the Prison Answering the Description of Michael Smith.

On last Saturday Officer Winower arrested a one legged man for drunkenness and disorderly conduct and on Monday he was committed to the county prison for ten days by Alderman McConomy. When before the alderman he gave the name of Thos. Brown, one different to that he had given the officer, and he also told contradictory stories as to his residence. At one time he said he lived in Pittsburg and at another that he lived in a county adjoining Pittsburg. Officer Winower had read the following account of an escape from the Cambria jail and he opened a correspondence with the Cambria county sheriff.

"Michael Smith, the condemned murderer of John Minahan, who has been sentenced to be hanged on September 23, escaped from the county jail at Ebensburg on the night of August 30. The escape was made possible by assistance from without his cell. It is alleged that the parties who aided him, hid in the cellar during the day and about midnight removed the grating from the heater in the corridor and were then at Smith's cell. The heavy bar of iron that was well locked was sawed off. When this was done Smith's way was clear. The escaped man was tracked on the board walk by the indenture of his wooden peg leg for a short distance, when he was driven away in a wagon toward the northern part of the county."

After receiving a description of the escaped murderer the officer went to the county prison and compared it with the prisoner. It answered it in nearly every particular. The sheriff of Cambria was notified of the description of the man in our jail and Officer Winower has received a telegram that he will be here this evening to look at the man.

When the officer asked the prisoner what had become of his wooden peg he said he had thrown it away because it hurt him. The officer called again at the prison this morning and he called the prisoner by the name of Michael and he stepped forward to the opening at the cell door but declined to answer answer any questions put to him.

The Sheriff of Cambria county has offered a reward of $300 for the arrest of Smith and the commissioners of the county $1,000 if he is delivered at Johnstown before the day set for his execution, September 22d. Officer Winower believes that the man in our prison is Smith, the escaped murderer.

LITTLE LOCALS.

Stray Items of Interest From Town and Country.

The Unprovoked Murder of a Boy by a Drunken Hunter Near Lynchburg, Va. --Emperor William at Home.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Sept. 19.—Great excitement has been caused in Amherst county by the unprovoked murder of Samuel Mitchell, aged 16, son of a respectable farmer residing a few miles from this city. The boy, accompanied by two other boys, was in search of cows when they came upon a hunter's camp in the woods. There were three men at the camp, and one of them, George Fortune, ordered Mitchell to carry a beer keg for him. The boy refused, and Fortune shot and instantly killed him. The man fled, but was captured last evening. He claims the gun was discharged accidentally, but the boys say it was a deliberate murder. All the men were drunk.
