FOREIGN MISSIONARIES.

MEETING OF RELIGIOUS WORKERS Annual horsion or an amportant Uhristian isody-Delogates Present from Various Points-The Pinancial Report. The Women's Foreign Missionary society, of Westminster presbytery, met this morn-ing in annual session at 10 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church of this city. The following are the officers of the President-Mrs. D. E. Small, of York Recording Secretary-Miss Ella Galbreath, of York. Corresponding Secretary-Miss Mary Boyer, of Union.

Treasurer—Mrs. Dr. Park, of Bellevue.
The first half hour was spent in devotional exercises, conducted by Mrs. J. B.
Turner, of Little Britain, after which the president took the chair, and the following elegates answered to their names, as the roll of churches was called :

Following are the delegates present : Bellevue Church — Mrs. Nixon, Mrs. Maxwell and Ella Park. Chestnut Leve!—Miss Moore and Mrs. Reynolds.

Columbia -Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Grove, Miss Hippe, Miss Wright and Miss Evans. Chanceford-Miss R K. Boyd, and Miss Lizzie Smith. Monaghan-Miss L. E. Coover.

Little Britain—Miss Emma Reed, Mrs. Collins Mrs. J. B. Turner. Laucaster.—Miss Mary Carson, Mrs. Dr. Mitchell, Miss May Hutchinson, and Miss Piper. Leacook - Mrs. Melivaine and Miss Lefevre.

Marietta—Mrs. Cassell and Mrs. Cront. Pequen—Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. J. Wanner and Miss Sue Vanner. Slate Ridge—Mrs. Park, Miss Kiza'e Slateville - Mrs. C. R. McConkey. Union - Mrs. V. K. Alexander, Mrs. T.

M. Patterson. Wrightsville-Miss Sue McConkey and Mrs. H. Wilton. York - Miss Primp, Miss Withslm and Miss M. Young.

Pine Grove—Miss C. M. Crawford.

Strasburg — Mrs Spencer and Miss

Martin.

In addition to the delegates, a very large number of ladies from the different churches in the presbytery were present which, with the visitors from the city, made a congregation of about 300. Quite a number of the ladies led in prayer, others made addresses, while the carnestness of the body in singing gave evidence of the great interest which all have in the cause f toreign missions.

Miss Gaibreath, the secretary, read her annual report, which contains an outline of the mission work done within the bounds of presbytery during the past year, and many valuable auggestions regarding the future work of the society.

The annual reports of the thirty three societies and bands within the jurisdiction of the presbytery were also read, showing the cause of foreign missions to be in a healthy condition. The annual report of the treasurer was was read as follows: The Annual Report Report of the treasurer of Westminster

Presbyterial society for the year ending September 24, 1884 : Amount received of Aux Societies ... 11.97: 72

Afternoon Session. Alexander, both of whom returned from their mission field in India last June, ad dressed the meeting. Her little daughter dressed in Hindoo costume sang beautifully in the language of that country. A mission band from York, under the direction of Miss Maggie Young, composed of the following children: Bertha Crider, Minnie Gohns, Anna Crider, Ella Ebert, Elsie Gross, Isabella McLean and Edith Young, admirably did its part in song, scripture and other recitations; Miss Edith Young read also an original essay on Japan. An election of officers for the ensuing year took place—the officers of the present year being elected by acclamation. Adjourned.

PUTTING ON THEIR ARMOR.

Young Republicans Preparing to Split the The Republicans have made arrange ments to hold numerous meetings for the benefit of the landlords in this county. The Examiner seems to have a monopoly in the printing of bills and they are using a cut of Biaine and Logan which would lead any one to believe the pictures to be those of two Zulu warriors. Many prominent speakers will attend these meetings and some are billed to appear at four and five each night. All of the Re publican lawyers have been drummed up and will be made to do service. Among the party is Jake Amwake, who resolved to forsake his old associates, the Temperance people, and follow in the Blaine procession with the understanding that he is to receive an office, a promise that has been made to him for twenty years Jake, with Thomas Whitson, another able barrister, will open the campaign at New Providence on Saturday evening. Henry M. Houser, B. F. Beyer and Wm. Compton will astonish the residents of Bareville. "Cook" Gatchell expects to be at a dozen places and Wm T. Brown, the Fulton township statesman, so far will allow his name to be used for a meeting at Strasburg only. Safe Harbor has been selected as the place for Benjamin Franklin Groff, seq., to come to the front and A.O. Newpher will nut the Millersvill ers to sleep. W.D. Weaver will destroy h's chances for any votes for district attorney in the lower end by speaking at Wakefield. George Lane and Banders Collins will terrify the people at the Unicorn The last named is one of the freshest speakers on the list, and enters this campaign after the style of Johnny Lindis. If the crowd is expected to rausin togother, he should be the last apeaker. Among the other shining lights is no less a personage than Chas. I. Landis, the Rapublican chairman himself, who will deliver lican chairman himself, who will deliver one of his lively orations at Millersville. These brilliant men will certainly do great

An Eighth Ward Store Rafbad. The premises of William C. Joxey, store-keeper, 523 Poplar street, were entered by burglars on Wednesday night and a large lot of goods stolen. The entrarco was effected by cutting away a part of a screen door, in the rear of the store, large enough to admit a man. When in the store the thief or thieves took their time store the thief or thieves took their time in the selection of such articles as they could easily carry. Among the goods stolen were 500 cigars, 8½ dozen silver pated spoons, 1½ dozen of knives, and a lot of toy watches. From the money drawer between $30 and $35 were stolen. The store was closed at 10 o'clock last night and it was not known that a burglary had been committed until Mr. Corney's and had been committed until Mr. Coxey's son came down stairs this morning. The thisf or thieves left the house through the front dcor, unlocking it from the lnaide.

The burglary was reported to Alderman Spurrier this morning and he has a number of officers on the lookout for the criminals. An arrest was made at noon of a party on a charge of drunkeness and disprisely conduct and when he was searched several spoons were found in his postussion. Whether they were the property of Mr. Corey could not be learned.

The Romany Rys. -Of this tartiling melo-drama, which will be produced in Fulton opera house on Monday and Tuesday evenings, the Scranton Republican says: "The scenic effects surpassed anything in that line that has been produced in this city. Whether in the detail of the gypsy encampment or the old bird shop in St. Giles, the beauty of the views of Craiganest, or that of the landscan stretching away beyond the Hampton race course, the moonlit picture of the Thames, or the well conceived realism of the scene of the shipwreek, the production of the 'Romany Rye' is certainly a combination of acting and echanism that is at once absorbing and enoyable. The company has little talent that aggest discrimination on the part of the au-lence. Joe Heckett, Jack Hearne, Heckett's protego, and Gertie were all we'l portrayed and no climax was lost in their hands."

The genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by New York, Sept. 25.—Angry words, followed by a pistol shot, were heard this morning in the basement of No. 77 James street, where Rosara Ferotta and his wife ived. The husband and wife ascended to the sidewalk, where the young woman was bleeding profusely from awound in the abdomen. Before she could make a statement she became unconscious. Her wound is pronounced fatal. The herband who is under arrest, says he quarrelled with another Italian named Salvatorri, and that the latter tried to shoot him when his wife rushed between them and received the bullet. The police are searching for Salvatorri Mrs. Feretta recovered sufficiently to say the man who shot her is Sicilian. For three nights in succession he tried to force an entrance to er bedroom. The Progress of the Hippotrome. SYRAGUSE, N. Y., Sept 25.—Blaine left in a special train to-day to attend the fair of the Oswego Falls Agricultural society. He was enthusiastically received at the grounds, and made a brief speech, refering to this year's abundant crop and say ing that here, at least, the Ropublican and Democrat could meet on equal terms. On return, Blaine received a cordial welcome at Baldwigville, where a thousand people gathered at the little depot to see him pass. On arriving again at Syracuse Blaine drove to the New York Central depot and left for Auburn. A large crowd gathered to see him eff.
