WELCOMING A PASTOR.

A York County Clergyman Who Wedded a Lancaster tiride,
From the York Daily.

Rev. R. L. Clark, who has been pastor of the Centre church, Fawn township York county, for the past five years, was married on the 18th of this month, to Miss Abuse Letitia Stewart, second daughter of Rev. Dr. Stewart, of Colerain, Lancaster county, After a wedding tour to Saratoga, Niagara Falls and Watkins Glen, they re-turned to Fawn, on Thursday last, whon the good people of Centre church gave them an enthusiastic welcome. Rev. Clark is very popular with his people, and deservedly so, as he is a young man of sterling worth and very successful in the ministry. Under his charge the congregation has always been prosperous. As a token of esteem and respect the members of the church desired to welcome him home with his accomplished wife. A committee consisting of Reed Anderson on the part of the session, and James R. Wiley, of the trustees, met Rev. Clark and wife at the parsonage, and escorted them to the church, which was beautifully festooned with evergreens, vines and flowers. In front of the pulpit was erected a miniature cottage, beautifully decorated, with words "Welcome Home," over the door, where the bride and groom were pre-sented with an address by John B.

Gemmill, esq.,
After this, they were congratulated by the entire congregation of 400 people Prof. Davis played a wedding march dur ing the ceremonies. After the congratulations all repaired to a brilliantly-lighted lawn adjoining the parsonage, and partook of ice cream, cakes, fruits, etc., which were provided by the sessions and trustees
