Released on Habeas Corpus Samuel Read, who was committed to prison for ten days by Justice Young, of Columbia, on Wednesday, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was taken be fore Judge Livingston on a writ of habeas convert this morning. Justice Young core Judge Livingston on a writ of habeas corpus this morning. Justice Young believed that Read has been sufficiently punished and he and the officer who made the arrest were satisfied that he should be discharged. He was released from quatody.

A few days ago an item was published about Levi Lintner loosing a team and receiving it at the stable of Daniel Miller, at Millersville. This morning James Bryson, had a suit of replevin issued for the team, claiming that it was his money that paid for it. On the same day that Lintner recovered his team he made an assignment of his property for the benefit of creditors, which will further complicate the proceedings.

The Romany Rye.—This romantic melo-drama will be produced in Fulton opera house on Monday and Tuesday evenings by Brooks on Monday and Tuesday evenings by Brooks & Dickson's capable company. The Beading News says of it: "The scenery is fine, especially that which represents the gypsy encampment. The cellar on the Thames and the wreck are new, and all of them were applauded. The progress of the play was punctuated by plaudits and tears."

"Pop."—The original Bice's Surprise Party will produce this popular comedy in Fulton opera house on Thursday evening next. They are now playing at the Chestnutstreet theatre, Philadelphia, where their performances have given entire satisfaction. The Evening Rews, of that city, says: "The piece is a pleasing medley of song and specialty features, but is too well known here to require extended notice at this time. John W. Mackay was as intensely amusing as ever in the title role, and Miss Ida Mulie, who replaces Miss Kate Castleton, sang and acted capitally. The other memt ers of the company did their work well.

petitors who cry us down by representing to buyers, that we build nothing but anction work, therefore futimating that it is a cheap grads, built especially for this purpose. Now in justice to ourselves, we would state that any work sold at these sales, and guaranteed by us, we will forfalt any amount that it is as substantial and as stylish as any built in the county, and furthermore, THAT OUR FINEST GRADES are superfor to any built in this county, both in regard to style and workmanship. We publish this statement to show the public that we are first-class builders, and will stand by our work in every respect, and those that try to hurt our reputation, can only do so by accepting our offer and excelling us in quality. As we have on several occasions published this wager not one of our competitors has felt it his duty to accept. So on this and the premiums we have received at County and State Fairs, we gain our laurels, and the public can ludge for themselves.
