TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT., 30, 1884.

A HARVEST SONG.

When all the land with corn was green,
And all the air was hot with sun,
I used to lean from yonder pane,
Children for this or that undone—
To look across the warm glad fields;
"For there," I said, "ere long I glean,"
With happy thoughts of harvest tide—
When all the land with corn was green.

When all the harvest fields lay shorn,
And stubble was where corn grew fair,
For other was the harvest meed,
For me—the empty fields stretched bare.
Only God knows how sad they were,
Those cold brown lands, once green with corn,
But they were what was left for me,
When all the harvest fields lay shorn.

Not Heeding Advice.

From the New York Sun.

"I say, young man," said a physician stopping him on the street. "You are not well. Your face is flushed, and you are in a high fever. Let me feel your pulse."

"I—I'm all right," protested the youth.

"No, you're not," said the physician positively. "Your pulse is over a hundred, and in less than two minutes you will be in a cold sweat. You take my advice and go home."

"I—I can't go home. I am resolved to ask old Jones for his daughter's hand to-night or perish miserably in the attempt."

"Wrong diagnosis," muttered the doctor to himself.

The New Mother Hubbard Bonnets.

From the New York Sun.

The new pokes, or Mother Hubbard bonnets, in velvet brocbe and gold and silver bead embroidered velvet stuffs, are the most striking novelty brought out this fall. They are nothing like the pokes and Mother Hubbards of the past, but are jaunty small bonnets with high tapering crowns, and brims that sweep low and flat on the sides and rise up in a peak above the forehead. This space is filled in with pleatings of white, black or colored lace, and a similar peak in the back, over the chignon, is similarly filled with lace, which is continued all around the bonnet under the brim.

A Zealous Boy.

From the Bridgeport Standard.

Sidney Read, of Falls Village determined to raise some corn for himself this year. When the corn was about two feet high, ready for the last hoeing, Mr. Read thought he might trust some one else to do that, so he hired a good strong boy to work for a while, giving him orders to take his hoe, go up to the lot and "hoe up the corn." The boy obeyed, worked all of one day and part of another, and announced the job done. Judge of Mr. Read's satisfaction and pleasure when going up to survey the promise of his coming crop, he found that the strong, active, willing boy had hoed up every root of the corn, and the whole lot was as flat as the back of one's hand. Mr. Read has bought his sweet corn this year as usual, and will probably in future "hoe up" his own.

Alice E. Curtis of Brunswick, Me., writes, she has suffered very much with kidney disease. Using several bottles of HUNT'S KIDNEY and LIVER REMEDY Miss C. pronounces it a real blessing to women for all kidney diseases. s30-1wdeod&w

LETTER FROM ASSEMBLYMAN HOAG.

STATE OF NEW YORK, ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, ALBANY, April 13, 1883.

During my temporary residence here the past winter I contracted a severe cold, which for a time confined me to my room and rendered me unfit to attend to my duties. I not only suffered all the inconveniences which usually attend a heavy cold, but was afflicted with a tightness in the chest, accompanied with a severe pain, which made breathing difficult and rest impossible. I tried the usual remedies—cough drops, cough cordials, &c., but received no substantial relief until I applied ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS on my back and chest.

These I put on when retiring, and was delighted to find myself much better the next morning. In two days I was well. This, and the experience I have had with Allcock's Plaster in my family, has convinced me that for coughs, colds, sprains, bruises, rheumatism and local pains, Allcock's Porous Plasters are the quickest and most effective remedy extant. JOHN HOAG.

No Deception Used.

It is strange so many people still continue to suffer day after day with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Sour Stomach, General Debility, when they can procure at our store SHILOH'S VITALIZER, free of cost if it does not cure or relieve them. Price, 75 cents. Sold by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 37 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster. feb14-eod&

Very Remarkable Recovery.

Mr. Geo. V. Wiling of Manchester, Mich., writes: "My wife has been almost helpless for five years, so helpless that she could not turn over in bed alone. She used two Bottles of Electric Bitters and is so much improved that she is able now to do her own work."

Electric Bitters will do all that is claimed for them. Hundreds of testimonials attest their great curative powers. Only 50 cents a bottle at Cochran's Drug Store, Nos. 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa.

Try It at Once. For 10 cents get a package of Diamond Dyes at the druggists. They color anything the finest and most desirable colors. Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt. Sample Card, 32 colors, and book of directions for 2c stamp.

An Excellent Report.

Hon. Jos. G. Goodridge, of Brooklyn, N. Y., writes this: "Cannot express myself in sufficiently praiseworthy terms. Burdock Blood Bitters have used for the past two years; keep my stomach in splendid trim." For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist 137 and 139 North Queen street.

A Baptist Minister's Experience.

"I am a Baptist Minister, and before I ever thought of being a clergyman, I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present profession, 40 years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy; "Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me." I was also troubled with hoarseness, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil always relieved me. My wife and child had diphtheria, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured them," and it taken in time it will cure seven out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold or cough, and if any one will take a small teaspoon and half fill it with Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon into the head, by sniffing as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice it twice a week, I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarrh. For deafness and earache it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever felt like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it in my house for any consideration. I am now suffering with a pain like rheumatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves me like Thomas' Eclectric Oil."

Dr. E. F. CRANE, Corry, Pa.

HAVING DISSOLVED PARTNERSHIP and permanently closed the Chestnut Street Iron Works, I desire to inform my old patrons and the public generally, that I am still in the business, being located in the Penn Iron Company's Works, North Plum street, where I am making Iron and Brass Castings of every description, and will be pleased to serve all who may favor me with their patronage. From 40 years experience in the business and using the best material and employing the best mechanics, I am satisfied I can guarantee entire satisfaction. Castings made from a mixture of iron and steel which are more reliable for strength and durability than the best cast iron known. Wheels, pinions, rolls and rolling mill work a specialty. Castings made of very soft iron, and brass castings of every description. I have all the patterns of the well and favorably known Mowrer Corn and Cob Crusher, refitted and improved. Also on hand, mills completely fitted up or in parts, to replace old ones which have been in use for years, guaranteeing them to give satisfaction.

NOTE—There are a few of our competitors who cry us down by representing to buyers, that we build nothing but auction work, therefore intimating that it is a cheap grade, built especially for this purpose. Now in justice to ourselves, we would state that any work sold at these sales, and guaranteed by us, we will forfeit any amount that it is as substantial and as stylish as any built in the county, and furthermore, THAT OUR FINEST GRADES are superior to any built in this county, both in regard to style and workmanship. We publish this statement to show the public that we are first-class builders, and will stand by our work in every respect, and those that try to hurt our reputation, can only do so by accepting our offer and excelling us in quality. As we have on several occasions published this wager not one of our competitors has felt it his duty to accept. So on this and the premiums we have received at County and State Fairs, we gain our laurels, and the public can judge for themselves.
