treasely funny. Throughout the situations are ridiculously pleasing." "Creashed.".- Edward Bothern's company of comedians will present this langhable comedy success in Fulton opers house on Friday even-ing. The New York Times anys of it: "Com-pletely successful. Its comical incidents are numerous, and there are not a few bright lines in the brisk dislogue. "Where Are They 1" kept the spectators in their setts for upwards of two bours last night, and much hearty laughter was heard during the pregress of the farce. The occasional passages in which tits of elever writing ware detected wors quickly caught up by the critical ininority of some of the situations and the pantominic stage business in which the piece abounds appealed to the more irrepressible majority."

A MURDERER UUNFESSES.

Wiln the Object of Hape the Villain Chokes a Woman to Death. AUGUSTA, Maine, Oct. 1.-John Baker, AUGUSTA, Maine, Oct. 1.—John Baker, of Albion, who was arrested yesterday on suspicion of having murdered Mrs. Newell Tuck, has confessed. He says he was cleaning out a hog pen back of the barn and saw Mr. Tuck at work on the road opposite. He knew Mrs. Tuck was alone, and so he went to the house. He found the woman in an outhouse, and at once jumped for her throat. She tried to scream, but his grip was so firm she could not utter a word. She fell back, and Baker becom-ing frightened, ran away. He did not then know she was dead. His object was rape.

A Foot Bacs Ends In a How A Foot Rece Ends in a flow. HAMILTON, Ont., Oct. 1.-The 120 yard race between Quirk, of Brandford, and Stone of New York, ended in a quarrel. When 100 yards had been run. Quirk was slightly ahead but, it is alleged, was running into Stone's track. Stone put out his hand to pull Quirk back, when the latter struck him with his elbow. The men finished close on each other. Although Quirk was a foot ahead, the referce gave the race to on each other. Although Guirk who a foot ahead, the referee gave the race to Stoue, on the ground of a foul. Then the row commenced. Quirk and Stone abusing each other severely. It is said Quirk's friends will enter suit for the re-covery of the stake money.
