The poor fellow whose blood does not circu-late vigoronsiy, whose liver is halt asieen, whose stomach is in poor order, and whose divestive apparatus has gone back on him, can never make his feet warm until he puts stomach, blood, liver and digestion into good condition He cando this by the air of Brown's Iron Bitters. Of this prince of tonics, Mr. W. C. Fuller, of Monigomery, Ala., says, "I took Brown's Iron Bitters for general decility, and am greatly improved."

What say You, Doctor ?

What say too, boetor r Some physicians are sindid to prescribe any-thing except what they direct the apothecary to compound. Yet frequently we find those who have found Brown's Iron Bitters such a valuable medicine that they are giad to pre-scribe it. Among these is Dr B. F. hmith, of Hat Grack, Ya., who says, "I have frequently prescribed Brown's Iron Bitters in my prac-tice, and find it a most excellent preparation."
