THE GENTLEMEN'S CONFERENCE. At 10 o'clook, a. m., about twenty-five gentlemen, including several ministers, met in the lecture room of the First Reformed

Rev. D. C. Babcock, secretary of the Rev. D. C. Baboock, secretary of the state Temperance committee, was called to the chair, and Rev. J. B. Turner, of Little Britain, was chosen secretary. Rev. Babcock stated the object of the conference, which was to plan a canvass for petitions to the Legislature in favor of submitting a prohibitory constitutional amendment to the electors of the common wealth. He submitted the following form of petition, which had been adopted by the Temperance union of Philadelphia: To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives :

Your petitioners, electors of Pennsylvapia, residents of ____, do respectfully pray your honorable bodies to submit to the electors of the commonwealth, in accordance with article XVIII. section 1, of the constitution an amendment prohibit the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors for use as a beverage within this commonwealth.

Capt. S. H. Hartman asked whether it was to be understood that the proposed amendment would prohibit the use of beer and other mait liquors.

Rev. Babcock reported that the form of the amendment had not been considered; personally he would rather have the manufacture and sale of whisky tolerated than to tolerate the sale of beer. Young men to tolerate the sale of beer. Young men were much more likely to be lead astray in the beer saloon than in the tavern. He favored an amendment that would prohibit the use of all intoxicants as a overage. A committee with Rev. J. B. Shumaker as chairman was appointed to select a city committee of five members to prepare, roulate, and receive back the petitio favor of a prohibitory amendment. After a short absence the committee returned and reported the following named gentleas said committee: James Black, eeq., John H. Pearsol, D. S. Bursk, Rev. James E. Crawford and Samuel M. Myers.

Mr. Myers asked to be excused, as his business engagements would not permit attention it merited. He named Mr. Hershey as a substitute.

After a brief discussion Mr. Myers' request was not granted, and the report of amittee was received and adopted. Mr Baboock spoke at some length, ex plaining the manuer of circulating the petitions for prohibition, and cautioning the canvassers to take only the names of electors and not of women and children. In answer to questions by Rev. Powick, said that pastors might sign petitions in behalf of their congregations, and might also announce any opposition to prohibi-tion that might prevail in the congregation and that petitions by women and children would form a great auxiliary to the elec-

At 11 o'clock a. m, the Union service was held in the audience room. A hymn was sung, and prayer offered by Rev. J. B. Rev. J. B. Shumaker made an address of welcome, heartily endorsing the cause in which the conference was engaged.

Rev. D. C. Babcook responded, at considerable length, showing the enormous expense that the liquor traffic entails upon the people, compared with the expense of education, missions, and other elevating and christianizing enterprises, and added that we are now seeking legislation in behalf of two practical measures: 1st, a school law by which our children may be taught the effects of alcohol and other narcotics on the body and mind; and 2d, a
