securement of this class of men in the pub-lic service; since it is a burthen to them, as they would discharge the work, and one they will not seek. But those who do not seek, in these days do not get, public office; the more's the pity for the public.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. BENJ. STAUPPER. The wife of Benjamin Stauffer, residing at Forney's tavern, West Earl township, died very suddenly yesterday. In the afternoon she and her husband started to drive to the residence of Reuben Johns' a neighbor. Finding that the family was not at home they went to call on D. Hurst, at Earlyille. Upon attering the house Mrs. Stauffer sank in a chair and died in a few moments. Deceased was about sixty years old, and a daughter of John Forney. She leaves a family of several grown children, one of whom is John F. Stauffer, of this city. Apoplexy was the cause of her death.

OULUMBIA REWS.

A large crowd of Republicans and Demo-orats as the representatives of the former party in Columbia hoist their Blaine and party in Columbia hoist their Blaine and Logan campaign banner at the Odd Fellows' hall on Saturday evening. The 'small boy' was numerous and made all the noise. The Columbia band played three selections, after which Major Yooum, of the Spy, spoke a few words, inviting those present to Armory hall, to bear Marriott Brosius, esq., of Lancaster, who spoke for an hour.

The Skatteg Klok.

The admirable skating of Miss Ella Stetson on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon had the effect of packing the afternoon had the effect of packing the rink on Saturday evening with enthusiastic admirers. Miss Stetson surpassed even her former performances in the case and elegance with which she executed a hundred graceful evolutions. If there be a "poetry of motion" Miss Stetson may be regarded as a whole volume of poetry. Without effort she seemed to float rather than skate, in a labyrinth of bewildering curves, rayishing to the avec as they ing curves, ravishing to the eye as they were puzzling to the mind.

Preliminary Irjunction.

Judge Livingston this afternoon granted a preliminary injunction restraining the authority of the borough of Strasburg from leveling the pavement in front of the premises of Caroline C. Brackbill and Harvey Brackbill. The petitioners claim that their property will be greatly damaged if the pavement is lowered, as the borough authorities have notified the petitioners that they purposed outling down the same eighteen mohes.

On Baturday evening, Mrs. Hennecke drew the toilet set, and received the largest number of votes for the cham-ber set. Mrs. Barr received the silver watch and Miss Bertha Barr the guess doll, Mrs. Shaub the loed cake and Miss Eshleman the star cushion.

The police reported three electric and the same number of gasoline lights as not burning on Saturday and Sunday nights

John Lichtenberger, a young man of good address, was brought before the court this afternoon for sentence. He was convicted at the August sessions on three charges of forgery. His counsel made a motion and filed reasons for a new trial but Judge Patterson denied the motion. The testimony showed him to be a cool rascal. On May 23 he purchased a horse from Albert S. Risser, a buggy from A. B. Landis and a set of harness from S. S. Royer of Mount Joy, giving in payment checks signed Charles F. Myers. It was soon learned that the checks were forgeries and Lichtenberger was pursued and captured in Lebanon county, with the horse, buggy and harness in his possession. He has already served a term in our jail for horse stealing and also a term for obtaining a wagon from Philip Doersom by fraudulent representations. Judge Patterson air of referring to the former convictions and stating that the former imprisonment did not reform him much, sentenced him to undergo an imprison-sentenced him to undergo an imprison-ment of eight years at hard labor, sepa-rate and solitary confinement in the Eastern penitentiary. The prisoner was unmoved at the long sentence imposed.

Their First Communion. At the early mass at St. Mary's Catholic church on Sunday morning a class of seven boys and thirty-one girls received first communion. Rev. Dr. McCullagh addressed them on the important step they were about to take and gave them good advice, which if followed will keep them consistent members of the church. After the close of the services one of the little girls on behalf of the class returned thanks to Dr. McCullagh and the sisters in charge for their trouble and care they had taken to instruct them, so as to worthily receive their first communion. A Free Concert. A free concert at Excelsor ball Saturday ight was very largely attended. Aldine the great piecolo and concertina player, as-tonished and delighted every one by his accurate imitations of singing birds, bray-ing bugles and beating drums. Mr. Justin Clark executed some fine pieces on the piano. The lunch set by the proprietor, Mr. Robrer, was an additional attraction, appreciated by all present. The concert will be repeated every night this week. Blown from His Train. Early Sunday evening Max Heims, a fireman of a P. R. R. freight train was hurled from his train near the Gap, out by a bursting of a flue of his engine. His skull was fractured and he was badly scalded. It is believed that the injuries will prove fatal. He was conveyed to his nome in Harrisburg on the 11:15 p. m.

**Rhea."-On Saturday evening the great dramatic event of the season will be witnessed in Fulton opera house, when M'ile Khea will appear in her strong play "Yvonne," supported by a solendid company. Of her work in this play, the Grand Rapids Daily Democrat says: "The title role is one well calculated to bring out in strong redief the characteristics which have placed M'ile Rhea to the teristics which have placed M'de Rhea in the very front rank of histrionic artists, and the wonderful power, accompanied with exquisite grace, manifested in some of the scenes must have been a revelation to all who saw Rhen for the first time. M'ile thea is certainly a most finished artist. In grace she fully equals the Fernhardt, in the ability to delineate the delicate shades of feeling, she is little if any behind, and in power and passion she sur-passes her—as she likewise far sur-passes her personal beauty."

DARKER'S TONIO.

Where the Fire Is Out.

Magic No More, a Mystery-From Across the World.

all included the reinvigoration of the principle of lite."

In this the Kastern sage merely anticipated the practice of the best physicians of to-tay. What life liself is, nobody knew then—actually knows now. But we have learned sometime of the reasons why the mysterious title mand falls. Provided the great organs of the body are not irreparably destroyed, medical science can always relieve, and other away to no reputable physician now athere to the barbarous and stupid processes of depiction, such as bleeding, by which it was attempted to cure disease by reducing the patient's ability to resist it. Nowadays we do not tear down the fort to help the garrison-we strengthen it. In the intolligent and beneficent work, it is conceded that PARE—BRS TUMIC leads all other merigings was an invigorant it acts immediately and posserfully upon the circulation and the organs of digestion, thus giving Nature the assistance she calls for. It fellows that all aliments the stomach, kidneys and liver are at cooreleved or cured, No other proparation can be offered or cured. No other proparation con but its the same qualities or produces similar results. It is delicious to use, and the bark known anti-intoxicant. Price, its. on-imake.
