last evening—the boys' school at the corfor three days or return same day. Special girls' at North Prince and Chestnut streets. At the boys school there was an attendance of 125 pupils, whose names were regularly enrolled, but no other business was done. Messrs. Wm. H. Levergood and James C. Gable were the teachers in charge, and it is probable that A. Stamy and R. S. Gates will also be retained as teachers, if the number of pupils warrant. The school will be better organized than ever before, as the rules governing the day schools will be strictly enforced.

The girls' night school opened with between 50 and 60 pupils, in charge of Miss K. Shirk and Miss Ida Linn. Should there be an increasing number of pupils, an additional number of teachers will be

The Strawberry street school, Mr. Frank Shilling, teacher, was not opened, there not being a sufficient number of pupils present to warrant it.

At Target Practice.

The Lancastersharp shooters had a target practice at Tells Hain on Monday after-noon, which was participated in by ten of their crack shots. The range was 185 yards and the highest score attainable was yards and the highest score attainable was 36. The first prize, a handsome gold medal, was won by George Kircher, who scored 31 points, the second prize, also a gold badge, was won by William Roehm, of the North Pole hotel, on a score of 30 and the third, a silver badge, by John Horting, who scored 26. The badges are fine pieces of workmanship and were made by Hugo Hintze, of No. 12 South made by Hugo Hintze, of No. 12 South Mary street, this city. The probabilities are that the sharpshooters will soon reorganize their association.

Inmates of Rebel Prisons

The monthly meeting of Union soldiers who were inmates of Southern prisons was held on Monday evening. A large number of new members, principally from the country, were elected. Papers were received for the members to sign and forward to Washington for increased commutation for rations while in rebel prisons. The next meeting will be held on the first Monday of November, and important business will be transacted.

Discharged on Mabeas Corpus Morris Simon was committed to the county prison on Monday by Justice B. F. wares and merchandise without license. He was taken before Judge Livingston this afternoon on a writ of habeas corpus and his counsel, J. H. Brown, raised the fact that the commitment was defective because it failed to set forth that the accused was convicted of the offense charged. The court examined the commitment valed that it was defective and mitment, ruled that it was defective and discharged the accused from custody.

An Important Sait Continued. The suit of John K. Barr vs. the executors of William M. Wiley, on this week's trial list, in the United States district court, at Philadelphia, has been continued for the present, on account of the absence of a very material witness for the plaintiff. If the witness can be found the case will be tried at the present term.

The Vilo Work of Train Wreckers. EMPORIA, Kan., Oct. 7.—On Sunday morning, ten miles west of here, an at tempt was made to rob the Santa Fe passenger train. Two rails were unspiked, but not removed. The train went so fast, however, that it went safely over them. When the robbers saw the train flying by them without accident, they became enraged and fired a volley into it, though fortunately they hurt no one. Following the passenger train came a freight train which was wrecked. The fireman was killed and the engineer seriously injured.
