A Good Political Manual.

The B. & O. Red Book for Pennsylvania is ready for distribution, and is very val-uable. The forwarding of a stamp to C. uable. K. Lord, Baltimore, is all that is necessary to secure a copy, and in fact the only way, as the Red Book issues are all for mail circulation. The present volume is replete with political statistics and condensed data, not only as regards the latest presidential, state and congressional elections in this state, but relating as well to elections since admission into the Union. Court of Common Pleas.

The second week of the October term of the court of common pleas commenced this morning at 10 o'clock with Judge 'atterson presiding in the upper court oom and Judge Livingston in the lower court room. Of the thirty cases on the list, twenty-three were declared for trial.

In the suit of the city of Lancaster vs. Patrick Maher, soire facias sur municipal ein, judgment by consent was entered in favor of plaintiff for $18.33 and costs of suit.

CURRENT BUSINESS.

A subpona in divorce was issued in the suit of Frank P. Musser vs. Maggie Musser, on the ground of desartion. Henry Shaub, 7th ward, city, who was retured to court by Constable Merringer for violating the liquor law, was brought into court on a process and was required to enter bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the next term of the quarter sessions court.

Adjourned to 2:30 o'clock.

The German Veteran Association.

The German veteran association was erganized on Saturday evening by the elec-ion of the following officers : Captain-Max Friedel. Lieutenant-Frederick Otto.

Quarter Master-August Riske. Sergeaut Major-Hugo Hintze.

The association starts with a member ship of twenty-five, all of whom have served in the German army, a number of them in the Prussia-Austria and German Franco wars. Some of the members wear decorations of a high order, ng them being Mr. Friedal who the fortunate possessor of three decora-tions. The organization is also beneficial, the members receiving a cortain sum per week when slok, and their families a speel-fied sum in case of death.
