Magic No More; a Mystery-Seen From Across the World.

"Haroun of Aleppo," said Sir Philip Derval, "had mastered every secret in nature which the nobler magic seeks to rathom. He discov-ered that the true art of healing is to assist Nature to throw off the disease-to summon, as it were, the whole system to elect the summon, my that has fastened on a part. His processos all included the reinvigoration of the incl-ple of life."

In this the Eastern sage merely antict pated the practice of the best physicians of the ind-ple of life." In this the Eastern sage merely antict pated the practice of the best physicians of to day, what life itself is, nobody knew than-nobody whow now. But we have learned somothing of the reasons why the mysterious tide flast and fails. Provided the great organs of the body are not irreparably destroyed, medical science can always relieve, and often save, yet no reputable physician now adheres to the barbarous and stupid processes of deple-tion, such as bleeding, by which it was st-tempted to cure disease by reducing the pa-tient's ability to resist it. Nowkings we do not tear down the fort to help the garrison-we strengthan it. In this intelligent and bendicent work, it is conceded that FAKE, KAS TONIO leads all ther medicines. As an invigorant it acts immediately and power-ting of the traulations and the organs of digestion, thus giving Nature the assistance she calls for. It follows that all allments of the stonach, kitnoys and lives are at once releved or cures. No other preparation em-podies the same qualities or produces similar results. It is delicious to use, and the basis and the barbar work. Do use and the basis and the same qualities or produces similar produces the same qualities or
