A Tramp Caught With a Stolen Watch—A Burglar Returned to Court—Political Pointers—Town Happenings.

Lawrence Paris, of Virginia, a tramp, passed off as a laborer to Mrs. Lizzie Blackston, and by so doing succeeded in obtaining board at her house. Sometime after dinner, Mrs. Blackston saw him running down Locust street. Suspecting that all was not right, she investigated and found her watch missing. Officer Wittich was placed on his trail, and succeeded in arresting him on J. C. Stoner's farm below Columbia. The watch was on his person. Squire Young committed him to jail for a court trial. While after the man's arrest, he had a narrow escape from death. He was told the tramp was concealed in a box car of a westward bound train. Said train was just pulling out of the west yard when the officer attempted to climb into the car. He missed his hold and fell beneath the car, but with great presence of mind he succeeded in rolling from beneath just as the wheels touched him. The tramp was then arrested but was not the right man.

MILLER COMMITTED FOR COURT.

On the night of April 9th, 1879, Charles Goodwin, Andrew Egan, Joseph Graley and Geo. Miller, all of Columbia, forced an entrance into the store of Simon Eriman, at Millway, and stole between $800 and $400 worth of goods. After a desperate chase the next day, by Mr. Eriman, Henry Sanders and the Mannheim constable, all but Miller were captured. Through the cowardice of the constable Miller escaped after firing several shots at his pursuers. Most of the plunder was recovered. The captured thieves had a trial and were sentenced to 6 years in prison, but Miller, after being incarcerated, was returned last Saturday, and in the evening was arrested by Wittich and Gilbert and taken to jail.

Wednesday he was brought to Columbia and given a hearing before Squire Evans in the presence of Sanders, Eriman and the constable. He was committed to jail for a trial at court.

POLITICAL.

The Democratic meeting in Schuyler hall was well attended last evening. But little business of importance was transacted. W. Hayes Green is a short address. L. K. Fendermish's duties are to be formed into a permanent organization. Probably they will not parade this campaign, unless the Democrats do. This is a poor way to win a small hope. The fact is, the club has not proved a success, and the above are only offered as excuses.

"WALKIN' TO DAT CAKE."

Colored Society Circle of the city strolled up Locust street yesterday.

Last evening the Blaine drum corps, which is composed of colored men, held a cake walk in the second story of Fulton opera house. The attendance of colored people was large and the crowd looked many times as large as the white.

Friends of the corps, who were expected to turn out in great number after the alleged victory in Ohio, did not swarm to the room. The corps were very slow in starting, owing to the fact that the capital by half past 10 o'clock the managers concluded that there was a sufficient attendance to warrant them in having the match.

At that time the following couples took the floor, after the selection of white men for judges: Albert Wilson and Miss Carr, George Book and Miss Susan Smith, Ed. Clark and Miss Elizabeth Clark, Henry Cooper and Miss Elmina McGonny, Henry Jackson and Miss Mary Proctor, William White and Miss Mary Egan. After waiting some time to the music of an old violin, the prize, a large cake, was awarded to Albert Wilson and Miss Carr, who, according to the views of the judges, displayed the most grace. Ed. Clark was a good second, and it was thought by many that he should have had the prize.
