

Lancaster Intelligencer

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 18, 1884.

Dishonest Voters. If the Republican voters believed all to be true that is said in disparagement of Mr. Blaine's integrity...

It is common for reports to get all out of French victories in the war in the Orient that are not cool before they are officially contradicted by the French.

What are we set on earth for? Say, to tell—Not to waste the best of our talents. For all the heat of day, till it declines, And his will cut a shaft from work as usual.

What is the use of a man who is believed to be doing in Berlin? F. B. ANDERSON, president of the Ottawa, Waddington and New York railway and bridge company...

It will not do for us to say that Mr. Blaine will receive no vote from any honest, self-respecting and intelligent Republican; for there are many such who will vote for him and comparatively few even will vote against him.

Mr. Blaine has been called back from the Northwest to New York state, where the Republican state chairman thinks he is sorely needed.

THE president has appointed a Democratic to the supreme bench of New Mexico in the person of Stephen F. Wilson, of Dauphin county, Pennsylvania, who is in every way fit for the place.

terial for the judiciary on the Democratic side, and though late it is not too late to set a good example of his particular selection for the bench.

It is common for reports to get all out of French victories in the war in the Orient that are not cool before they are officially contradicted by the French.

What are we set on earth for? Say, to tell—Not to waste the best of our talents. For all the heat of day, till it declines, And his will cut a shaft from work as usual.

What is the use of a man who is believed to be doing in Berlin? F. B. ANDERSON, president of the Ottawa, Waddington and New York railway and bridge company...

It will not do for us to say that Mr. Blaine will receive no vote from any honest, self-respecting and intelligent Republican; for there are many such who will vote for him and comparatively few even will vote against him.

Mr. Blaine has been called back from the Northwest to New York state, where the Republican state chairman thinks he is sorely needed.

THE president has appointed a Democratic to the supreme bench of New Mexico in the person of Stephen F. Wilson, of Dauphin county, Pennsylvania, who is in every way fit for the place.

FRESH NEWS OF THE DAY

IMPORTANT ITEMS OF INTEREST.—Embarking Accident, Citrus and California.—What the morning news contains.—In Brief Form.

Israel Stahl, a young resident of Madison township, Perry county, was at work Friday, on the top of a straw stack, when he was suddenly precipitated to the ground in some unexplained manner.

Christopher Seebold, a well-to-do farmer of near New Berlin, Snyder county, committed suicide by hanging himself to a fence Friday morning.

What are we set on earth for? Say, to tell—Not to waste the best of our talents. For all the heat of day, till it declines, And his will cut a shaft from work as usual.

It will not do for us to say that Mr. Blaine will receive no vote from any honest, self-respecting and intelligent Republican; for there are many such who will vote for him and comparatively few even will vote against him.

Mr. Blaine has been called back from the Northwest to New York state, where the Republican state chairman thinks he is sorely needed.

THE president has appointed a Democratic to the supreme bench of New Mexico in the person of Stephen F. Wilson, of Dauphin county, Pennsylvania, who is in every way fit for the place.

COLUMBIA NEWS ITEMS.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.—A German Attempts Suicide—Accidents and Other Happenings in the Borough.—Deaths.

John Dombacher, aged 40 years, a German employed at the St. Charles furnace since last April, attempted to commit suicide last evening, at his boarding house, at Third and Walnut streets.

At a dinner in Stamford upon Avon Thursday, Sir Francis Canfield Owen promised with the assistance of Mr. G. W. Childs, of Philadelphia to organize a fund in aid of the restoration of the church where Shakespeare is buried.

The Controversy. Pulpit of England recently took a vote of its readers on the question of whether the greatest English speaking preacher, and the following is announced as the result of the vote: Canon Liddon, 296; C. H. Spurgeon, 293; Joseph Parker, 218; Alexander Mackenzie, 212; Archdeacon Farrar, 209; Henry Ward Beecher, 188; Bishop Magee, 150; Canon Knox Little, 149; Bishop Boyd Carpenter, 101 and R. W. Dale, 100.

A number of clerymen in England have been successful in having Henry W. Dancykley, the editor of the Manchester Examiner, although he has withdrawn from the active duties of the ministry.

The Rev. J. H. Swafford, of Tennessee, was shot dead by a jailer named Hudson, whom he attacked on the street in Frankfort, Ky., Monday.

The Rev. J. H. Swafford, of Tennessee, was shot dead by a jailer named Hudson, whom he attacked on the street in Frankfort, Ky., Monday.

THEIR TERMS EXPIRE.

Three of the Hottentot Gang who have served their terms in the Lancaster Prison were set free on Monday.

The terms of George Buzard, Diller Clark and two others, members of the Hottentot gang, were extended for a year. They were sentenced in April, 1881, to undergo an imprisonment of four years for a burglary committed in Ephrata township, and the commutation for good behavior, redoubled their terms to six years.

Buzard and Clark were arrested and were justly convicted. Clark has protested his innocence of the charge on which he was convicted, although he admits that he was guilty of other offenses, equally as serious as those of which he was convicted. Buzard gave out for good that they were justly convicted, Clark has protested his innocence of the charge on which he was convicted, although he admits that he was guilty of other offenses, equally as serious as those of which he was convicted.

Clark and Buzard said last evening that yesterday secured the longest day to them since they had been in prison. When questioned as to what they intended doing they said they would remain in Lancaster for a time at least. Buzard said he would not return to the mountains, for he would be blamed for all the thefts committed, and as he had no money to go home, he had been an inmate of our prison almost all the time since he was seventeen years old. He is now twenty four years old. He is a charmer by trade, and will try to get work in this city. Since he has been in prison his wife produced a divorce from him.

Clark's wife has remained in town since he has been in prison. He will probably remain in the city, where his wife lives, and secure work. He is a good mechanic, and a fine tailor.

Wrecker does not appear to care what they will do with him at Reading, on the charge of burglarizing the store at Sinking Springs. He admits having had an overcoat and a pair of trousers from the store but says that he can prove that he bought it from Abe Buzard. He will be taken to Reading on Monday, if he don't escape from prison before that day. His wife has remained in Oats and produced a divorce from him.

A special meeting of Lancaster citizens of the Reformed Church.

A special meeting of Lancaster citizens of the Reformed Church.

Important items of interest. In which it is noted that a proposition of literary fabrics is being discussed.

Deaths. Lem T. Imble, aged about 70 years, and who resided with his granddaughter, Mrs. Wm. Newcomer, on Walnut street, near Seventh, died from general debility last evening.

Deaths. Lem T. Imble, aged about 70 years, and who resided with his granddaughter, Mrs. Wm. Newcomer, on Walnut street, near Seventh, died from general debility last evening.

Deaths. Lem T. Imble, aged about 70 years, and who resided with his granddaughter, Mrs. Wm. Newcomer, on Walnut street, near Seventh, died from general debility last evening.

Deaths. Lem T. Imble, aged about 70 years, and who resided with his granddaughter, Mrs. Wm. Newcomer, on Walnut street, near Seventh, died from general debility last evening.

Deaths. Lem T. Imble, aged about 70 years, and who resided with his granddaughter, Mrs. Wm. Newcomer, on Walnut street, near Seventh, died from general debility last evening.