The Celebration of the Celober Victoria Buthuslasm Along the Brots.

Last evening the Democrats of the city celebrated their great victory in West Virginia and heavy gains in Ohio, by hold ing an old-fashioned walk around. Al-though the affair was gotten up in a very short time, there was a big turnout, and the Democrats have good reason to feel proud of the display. The ouly club of the city which was uniformed was the one from the Seventh ward, which certainly presented a fine appearance in their new equipments. The members of the other embs all appeared in citizen's clothes. They carried torches and turned out a large number of men. It is likely that there were almost 1,000 men in line.

The H. L. Haldeman glub, of Marietta, under command of Capt. John L. Reiff, 1st Licut. Adam Wiseman and 2d Licut. William Reiff, arrived in town on the 6:45 train and their coming was a surprise to many, who had no idea that they would be here. They turned out about 60 mer who were clad in handsome uniforms. Dr. James Clark, formerly of this city, was marshal, and Harry Hegener and Conrad Chickedans, aids.

They were accompanied by the G. A. R. drum corps of Marietta, a handsomely equipped organization of boys, who showed great musical proficiency. The club had a color bearer of immense height, who extried a handsome American flag at the head of the line. A handsome banner, containing a portrait of Cleveland was also borne in line and each member of of the club carried a torch. During the march the club executed many pretty evolutions with great precision showing that they have been well drilled by their officers They were loudly cheered many points along the line of march.

The parade started from Centre Squar at exactly 8 o'cleck moving in the follow Chief Marshal, Col. Edward McGovern.

The parade passed over the following North Quien street to Chestnut, to

James, to Mulberry, to West King, to Dorwart, to High, to Strawberry to Vine, to South Queen, to Middle, to East King, to Centre Square and dis

All along the line there was great enthusiasm and the cheering was almost constant from the start. The illuminations and decorations were very fine and many houses were in a blaze, some being liter ally covered with Chinese lanterns and flags. At several points there were fine displays of fireworks. The route of parade was short; it was over by 10 o'clock, when it was dismissed in Centre Square. Every one voted it a grand success, and it certainly showed that the Democrats are alive and numerous. There was no disorder of any kind, although at several points drunken Republicans acted in a very noisy manner. After the parade the Haldeman club was taken in charge by the Seventh ward club and the two organizations did some pretty drilling, after which the vistors were regaled and flually escorted to the depot, where they awaited the arrival of an early morning train which took them to their homes,

A MERTING IN STRASBURG A Democratic meeting will be held on Thursday evening, October 23d, in Massa-soit ball, Strasburg. The meeting will be addressed by Henry Budd, esq., James M. MASS MEETING AT THE GAP. Every Democrat and citizen in favor of promoting the battle for good government and of the opinion that "the Republican party must go" and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty four, should turn out to the great Democratic mass meeting to be held in the Gap, to morrow (Wednesday) evening, under the anspices of the W. U. Hensel, club, of Salisbury. W. U. Hensel, esq., chairman of the Democratic state com mittee, will positively be present and address the assemblage. The meeting will also be addressed by James M. Walker esq., of the Lancaster bar, R. Jones Monaghan, West Chester's elequent ex-pounder of Democratic principles, and other able speakers.

The parade, in which a large number o oampaign organizations will participate, will move at 6 30 p. m. sharp. It will be marshalled by Wm. Penn. Linville who will be assisted by the following aids: Jacob Wise, Thos. G. Wise, J. Rutter Worst and George Brown. All delegates are requested to be on hand early.

Death of Dr. A. L. Aletead.

From the Harrisburg Telegraph.
Sunday evening, after a long illness, Dr.
Alfred L. Alstead, of this city, died at his residence, Fourth and Market, aged 55 years and 6 months. Dr. Alstead was born in Lancaster county and studied medicine and graduated at the University of Peunsylvania. He practiced medicine nt Marietta and Dauphin previous to re-moving to Harrisburg. He came to this city about 1850, and attended at one time a very extensive practice. He was a very genial gentleman and was much liked by his patients. He married Miss Holman in Dauphin while practicing there, and she survives him. Dr. Alstead was a member of the First Lutherau church for many years. He will be missed by many poor people of this city, whom he was always ready to attend professionally free of charge, and without any hope of re-

Gas for the County Institutions. Martin L. Kreider and Daviel Herr, a committee of the board of poor directors, called upon the county commissioners on Monday to consult with them in reference to the manufacture of gas for the several county buildings, believing that it could be manufactured much cheaper than it is furnished by the Lancaster Gas Light and Fuel company. The commissioners finally decided to meet the prison inspectors and poor directors at the county prison on the first Monday of November to discuss the Fall of a Hridge Structure. Milton Walker, of Oxford, is rebuilding the bridge on the Octoraro at Kirk's, and on Saturday he removed the under trussels, and the same evening the whole structure fell down, smashing it to pieces. It is said there is not a whole stick left. This is not only a heavy loss to the contractor, but to the people of the vicinity, who have so anxiously been awaiting the rebuilding of the bridge, it being one of the most important on the stream. The above was the inter-county bridge that the commissioners of this and Charter. sioners of this and Chester county were to inspect on Thursday.
